self is—Why is the mediation to be offered now? why not sooner? If offered when Russia first urged its unjust claims upon Turkey, the mediation of America might have averted from the unoffending Danubian Principalities the curse of two successive occupations by foreign armies. Offered now that Sebastopol is tottering to its fall, and the Czar, in effect, suing for peace, the mediation can only benefit Russia, whose lawless ambition provoked the war. The offer of mediation is so unhappily timed that it must, of necessity, improve the position of Russia and deteriorate that of France and England. * * A regard to truth, and to the honor and interests of our own country, compels us at the same time frankly to declare that this proposed mediation is urged by a pretty strong party in the United States in pure hostility to England.

"One of the most eager advocates of the interference of the United States in the war which now convulses eastern Europe is the New York Herald. That journal winds up one of its latest reviews of the progress and policy of the war in these words: "No instincts of race, no similarity of religion, no assumed similarity of constitution can blind the American people to the true significance of the war in the East. Public opinion is here undoubtedly favorable to Russia. There is no necessity for disguising the fact, and England is welcome to the admission. Not that we love Russia more, but that we hate her less."

This, it may be said, is but the counterpart of the London Times revilings of America and everything American, and naturally produced by them. Granted—but, apart from newspapers altogether, there is evidence of a hostile feeling towards England, of a partizan leaning towards Russia, among a numerous party in the United States. To what else can we attribute the treatment experienced by our prize crew and their officers, after the affair with the Russians in the North Pacific, at San Francisco? To what else can we attribute the numerous enlistments of military officers of the United States in the Russian service? The cajoleries exercised by the Czar with such brilliant success upon Senator Douglas and others, have of late been redoubled.

Reports have reached us, to which we cannot at present allude more distinctly, of testimonials of a very strange nature, indeed, presented by the Czar to American citizens. All this has had its effect in calling into existence a numerous pro-Russian party in the United States. It is with this party that the idea of mediation has originated, and its object is to promote the interest of Russia and damage England.

"We appeal confidently to the American people, and ask them, will they allow themselves to be made the tools of a party in this way? Will they allow themselves to be deluded into lowering the Union into an accomplice and catspaw of the great champion of despotism and barbarism? It is their concern how this question is to be answered, for it is the honor of the United States that is at stake.

"As for this country, Englishmen would deeply regret to have any unfriendly conduct to complain of on the part of a kindred nation. Englishmen are fully sensible of the power, the valor, and the intelligence of the North American republicans. But Englishmen will not hesitate or pause in what they know to be the path of duty for one moment, let the North American republicans, or any set of men upon earth, do or say what they will. Highly though Englishmen value the friendship of the United States, they will not stoop to purchase it by desisting from what they know to be the discharge of a sacred duty."

RUSSIAN TROOPS FROZEN TO DEATH.—The following is news of the 28th December, from Odessa via Csernowitz:—"Powerful reinforcements are arriving. There are snow storms, with frost. Two companies of soldiers, on their march, and forty wagon loads of sick men, have been frozen to death. The thermometer (Reaumer) is 24 degrees below zero—equivalent to 22 Fahrenheit."

STRENGTH OF THE RUSSIAN ARMIES.—The last letters from St. Petersburg are of the 24th December. According to the Russian Invalide, the Emperor will have the following armies in the field next spring:—1. The Crimea army of 120,000 men in the field and 30,000 in Sebastopol; 2—The Tchernomorish (Cossacks of the Kuban) army, 40,000 men; 3—The Danubian army, 40,000 men; 4—The army in Lithuania and Volhynia, 120,000 men; 5—The Baltic army, 60,000 men; 6—The reserve army, 80,000 men.

The American Rifle still Ahead.

Observing in the Press of Monday, a description of the Minie ball with the remark, that though the original efficiency of the rifle was due to the backwoods of America, its present perfection rested with the French, induces me still to claim for the American arm the superiority over all others.

Within a few days I have examined a rifle, the superiority of which, to the Minie improvement, is incontestible. Its penetrations at forty yards with a round ball, eighty to the pound, was thirty yards with a round ball, eighty to the pound, was thirteen inches in solid pine timber. It is loaded and fired, with time for an oft hand aim, twelve times in a minute; and after being rapidly fired fifty times, was found to be perfectly clean and ready for use as at first. Its weight is less than that of a double barrelled shot gun, and its simplicity and strength of construction almost precludes the possibility of its getting out of order. When I add that it loads at the breech, most who read this will pronounce it an inevitable failure. No one, however, who has examined, it or tried it, will be inclined to hazard much on such a prophecy. That it is destined to supersede all other ball fire arms, no one will doubt, who has witnessed its efficiency. I trust that it will not be without its proper meed of honor, because our own Yankee has produced it. A citizen of Milwaukie has the honor of being its inventor. Mr. Howe's patent of this invaluable arm is so recent as October, 1854.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

THURSDAY.

In the Senate, nothing of very general interest was discussed or acted on. A resolution was adopted requesting the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund to inform the Senate why they have not made an annual report to the Legislature, as required by law.

The Senate then took up the resolution authorizing the printing of a daily record of the proceedings of the Legislature. The resolution, after considerable debate, was amended and passed—yeas 16, nays 13. Adjourned.

In the House an unusually large number of petitions, memorials, &c., were presented, and among them a memorial from the Board of Trade of Philadelphia, for the sale of the canals and railroads belonging to the Commonwealth, which, on motion of Mr. Cummings, was read, and then referred to the Select Committee on the subject.

The petitions of last year for an amendment of the ten hour law, were, on leave given, withdrawn from the files and re-presented.

Mr. Eyster moved to reconsider the vote taken yesterday on agreeing to the resolution permitting the Committee on the contested seat from Northampton county to take testimony in the case in Northampton. The motion was agreed to, and the resolution, after a lengthy and animated debate, was then negatived, being considered in contravention of law.

On motion, ten o'clock, was fixed as the standing hour of meeting. The House then adjourned.

WRECK OF THE SAN FRANCISCO.—THE TESTIMONIALS.—When the U. S. transport ship San Francisco was wrecked, sundry sea-captains hove in sight and rescued the survivors, for which they were handsomely rewarded by subscriptions on 'Change. The testimonials ordered are just completed and ready for presentation, as follows:

To Capt. Creighton, of the Three Bells, a piece of plate and a gold medal.

To Capt. Low, of the bark Kilby, the same.

To Capt. Stouffer, of the Antarctic, the same.

To the First and Second Officers of the three ships above named, each a gold medal.

To each sailor, a silver medal.

To Capt. Pendleton, of the Lucy Thompson, a service of plate.

To Lieut F. K. Murray, of the U. S. Navy, a service of plate.

To Capt. Watkins, of the steamer San Francisco, a service of plate.

To J. W. Marshall, Chief Engineer of the San Francisco, a gold medal.

To Chief Officer Mellus, of the San Francisco, a gold medal.

To the Second Officer, the same.—N. Y. Times.

SUICIDE BY HANGING.—A friend has shown us a letter, which states that on the night of the 16th inst., the wife of Mr. John Roadman, near Donegal, Westmoreland county, committed suicide by hanging herself with a hank of yarn, up stairs in her own house. Mrs. R. is represented to be of good repute, about fifty years of age, and the mother of a large family. The cause of this painful tragedy is said to have been mental derangement.—Fayette Standard, 26th.

LIBEL SUIT.—A suit for libel was instituted, on Saturday, against Messrs. Foster & Pleeson, of the Dispatch, by a young maned Jas. Mason. The alleged libel was contained in a local item published in that paper on last Friday, in which it was stated that the prosecutor was arrested on a charge of passing counterfeit money.

MORNING POST JOB OFFICE.

We would call the attention of MERCHANTS AND BUSINESS MEN to the fact that we have just received from Philadelphia a number of fonts of new Job Type, and are now prepared to fill orders, for Cards, Circulars, Bill Heads, Paper Books, Posters, and Programmes for exhibition. All orders will be promptly filled.

News of the Day.

A telegraphic despatch from Mobile says Julia Dean has been already married to Dr. Hayne, a son of the South Carolina Senator.

Hon. John Slidell was a few days ago elected U. S. Senator by the Legislature of Louisiana, for six years from the 4th of March next.

New Orleans papers of the 21st say the opening of the up-river navigation has revived business, and affairs generally wore a more improved aspect.

In the House of Representatives of the Pennsylvania Legislature, on Saturday, bills were read in place to incorporate the Mechanics' Savings Bank of Pittsburgh, and the Bank of Beaver county.

In the same body, the bill from the Senate to repeal the act providing for the registration of births, marriages and deaths, was finally passed.

President Pierce has removed John Esaias Warren, the United States District Attorney of the territory of Minnesota, for commencing a suit in the name of the United States against the Minnesota and Northern Railroad Company without notice to his superiors at Washington. It is suspected that the suit is commenced by collusion with the company, with the intention of allowing the United States to be defeated and thus extinguish a lien of the United States upon some of the lands claimed or needed by the company.

THE CONCERT.

Truly to enjoy music, there must be a predisposition for it, however sweet its cadences or melodious its numbers. With ordinary exhibitions of it this is peculiarly so; and a man fretted with a protested note, or a lady who has "got the mitten," are cure to be among the malcontents to whom every note is a squall and every cadence affectation. And thus our semistare go out in darkness, not so much because of the wants of power to beautify the memory of an hour with simpler song, as because of the pre disposed wickedness of the heart produced by causes as trifling as they are transitory. We would defy the man or maiden, however, let their jealousy or disappointment be as juicy of despised tears as they might, to have gone to the Saturday evening Concert of Madame De Vries and remember long either the one or the other.

The singing of Madame De Vries is of a varied character, though each in itself possessing the highest degree of excellence. Of a strong physical frame she has a power of lung such as we have never seen exceeded. It comes bursting forth, after a passage of deep tenderness, like the sudden advent of a storm upon the summer air. We have heard her in the best tragic scenes of Norma, when her voice become terrible through its unequalled strength and intensity of pathos. On Saturday evening it revealed itself in occasional bursts, mingling with her softer and concert room tones, as the thunder breaks in upon the singing of birds, or the warble of trembling brooks.

Of Rosa De Vries, one thing can be truly said, there is no trickery either of dress or action to steal a plaudit or seduce an encore. She commands both by the true rendering and unadorned execution of her art. From a deep pure undertone, masculine in power but all woman in richness, up through the bars, now soft and weeping, now glad and joyous, here wild and chivalric, there eccentric and arnate, she has touched every heart, even if that heart be a broker's, and has mounted far above music's highest line —having pleased every form of ear and triumphed without an effect. Of the gentler style, how beautiful was her "home sweet home," and on occasional passage in "Come per me Sereno." Of her joyous and glad style, how rich the "Echo Song"—that air so deeply connected with our memory of the gifted Swede. Her flute song was the triumph of the evening, only however from its difficulty of performance, and the opportunity it gave to display her power in the highest register of the human voice. Clear and accurate as the flute of Kyle, she struck unerringly the highest of them all. From the enthusiasm shown we expect to see Masonic Hall, on Tuesday evening next, crowded from end to end, and shall hope to be again a delighted listener.

Having said so much of De Vries we have no room for an extended notice of the other performers. Morini had a fine voice, which showed itself to much advantage in the beautiful duet from "La Favorita," and also in the "Romanza," from Ernoni. Lagare was handsomely received, and played with much acceptation. Signor Pasarelli plays well, but seemed out of humor either with himself or his oremona. But the whole Concert was one of much delight to us, and we believe to the large assembly present. If a thing of beauty is a joy forever, and a concert be a thing, then we have added another joy to the accumulations of former days.

The last Concert of this troupe will take place to-morrow night, on which occasion numerous operatic gems, heightened by the presence of a full orchestra, will be sung, Madame De Vries singing seven times during the evening.

NEGATIVED.—A Bill was lately introduced into the legislature of our State providing for the repeal of the three hundred dollar exemption law. It was referred to the Judiciary Committee, and has been by them reported back with a negative recommendation. Almost every year since the three hundred dollar exemption law was passed an attempt has been made to repeal it, but without success. We do not believe it will ever be repealed, and attempts to repeal it may yet result in increasing the amount and value of the property exempted from execution. Two years ago a bill was introduced to increase the amount to $1,000, and that bill had many friends in the legislature. The course of legislation for years has been to restrain the credit system, and such exemption laws are designed for that purpose, as well as to protect the poorer classes.

A BALM FOR TWO WOUNDED SPIRITS.—Some heartless wretch or wretches, without the fear of the law before their eyes, or thinking of the pain it would cause two, perhaps loving hearts, prematurely published in the Cincinnati papers the marriage of Mr. Charles Kohl to Miss Julia Conclin. However, the aggrieved Charles and Julia discovered the parties who so deeply wronged them, as the following from under the marriage head the next day will show:

AN APOLOGY.—The marriage notice which appeared in Wednesday's Commercial, relative to Mr. Chas. Kohl and Julia Conclin, is all a hoax. The parties concerned done it thoughtlessly, without taking the consequence or injury they were doing into consideration, and are very sorry they did it. They feel that no apology they can make will be sufficient to cover the injury; but trust the agrieved parties will forgive them.

If this is not a sufficient remedy for the "inward bruise," we think the Balm of Thousand Flowers might answer, as it has untold curative virtues, if we may believe certain "Boston Poets."

THE WISE MEN OF THE EAST.—Philadelphia is a great place in the estimation of Philadelphians—although with outsiders she is not considered to be "faster than the law allows." The phrase "as sharp as a Philadelphia lawyer," has grown into a proverb. Nevertheless, it sounds very much as if it had its origin in the Quaker City; for in several encounters, of our own knowledge, a legal gentleman from Pittsburgh utterly discomfited the best of these same "sharpers." However, this may be true of the black letter gentlemen; but it is not equally applicable to her merchants, if her Board of Trade is a fair sample of that class. That body has petitioned the Legislature once more to sell the Public Works, particularly the Main Line, and suggest the minimum price be fixed at seven millions; for, argue these learned Thebans, the main line will soon be rendered worthless by competition from the Pennsylvania Railroad. If this argument is worth anything, it will prevent its sale at any sacrifice; as no capitalists, even with mental visions as obtuse as these gentlemen imagine our legislative Solons to be possessed of, would purchase what will shortly be worthless! Couldn't the Philadelphia lawyers lend a little of their sharpness to the Board of Trade? If they could spare a little, we know of no set of persons who stand more in need of it.

YOUNG MEN'S BIBLE SOCIETY.—The Anniversary of this Society will be held to-night at the Secession church, Rev. Mr. Lee's, on Seventh street, Pittsburgh. Addresses will be delivered by Rev. Mr. Paxton and Rev. Mr. Quick. The Reports of the different officers will be read giving detailed accounts of the transactions of the Society for the last year. This useful and praise worthy association has heretofore been well sustained and encouraged in this community, and it is hoped that a full house will great the speakers and officers this evening. No collection will be taken up. The public are earnestly invited to attend.

Benefit of T. D. Rice and Herr Cline.

To-night Messrs. Rice and Cline take a benefit, and we hope it will prove one in deed as well as in name. This will probably be the last opportunity our citizens will have to see the man who created such a furore about a quarter of a century ago, as "Jim Crow." Herr Cline's tight-rope performances are truly wonderful. Since the death of Leon Javelli, of the Ravel troupe, he has not his equal on the American stage. Go and see them. Each are great in their particular line.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE.—This sterling magazine has been received by Miner & Co. and Gildenfenney & Co. The January number is unusually interesting, and will amply repay perusal.

FANNY FERN DAGUERREOTYPED.—She is full forty, is Fanny. Sports curls like a girl of seventeen. They are auburn—poetically so. Has a keen, flashing eye. Nose between Grecian and Roman, rather thin and rather good looking. Cheeks with a good deal—quite too much—coloring. Comes of rouge. Bad taste, but no business of ours. Lips well turned. Good indicative of temper rather than of—sugar. Chin handsomely chiseled. Whole countenance betokens a woman of spirit and high nature generally. Form fine. Chest a model. Not surpassed. Carriage graceful and stately. Rather tall, and emphatically genteel. Pretty foot. Ankle to match. Looks small. Likes to show it in the cut-and-dash school. Fond of ribbons, laces, millinery, &c., generally. Talks rapidly. Is witty and brilliant—cutting and lashful. Proud as Lucifer. Fond of fun. Hates most of her relations. Treats her father and Nat. almost brutefully. Has three as pretty girls as ever wore curls. Is proud of them, and justly. Is heartless. Is a flirt. Lives in clover. Is worth $20,000. Got it by pen and ink. When passing the street takes eight eyes out of ten. On the whole, wonderful woman is Fanny. —Boston Dispatch.

REV. DR. COVEL'S
RHEUMATIC PILLS,

For the Safe, Complete and Speedy Cure of Inflammatory, Chronic, Hereditary and Mercurial Rheumatism, Rheumatic Gout, Lumbago, Sciatica, and other Diseases affecting the Muscular System.

SUCH AN ARRAY OF TESTIMONY as Dr. COVEL'S RHEUMATIC PILLS have called forth from all classes, was never voluntarily offered in favor of any other Medicine. The cases of cure comprehend

EVERY STAGE OF RHEUMATISM,

Whether accompanied by that terrible sensibility of the parts affected, common in the inflammatory phase—by the muscular contractions which so often render the victim of Chronic Rheumatism a helpless cripple, or by the ever changing symptoms which are sometimes the characteristics of this Protean complaint.

Unlike the "dangerous" practice of bleeding and purging, which some sapient medicos consider the legitimate mode of treating Rheumatism, these Pills sustain and cherish the animal forces, invigorate the constitution, and thus set at the allies of Nature in her efforts to cast off the disease. Their medical action is direct and specific. It reaches the materies morbi or cause of the disorder, through all the complications of nerves and fibres in which it is entrenched, and expels from the blood the febrific principle which feeds, and spreads, and intensifies, while it spreads the fatal tendencies of the malady.

Caution—Beware of Counterfeits!!

Be particular, and enquire for REV. SAMUEL COVEL'S RHEUMATIC PILLS, and see that the boxes have, on the outside wrapper, his signature, countersigned by C. H. RING, General Agent, 192 Broadway, New York, without which none are GENUINE.

PRICE, FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.

Proclamation.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
PITTSBURGH, January 24th, 1855.

WHEREAS, the practice of selling intoxicating liquors, and the performance of worldly employment and business on the Sabbath day has continued to increase alarmingly in this community, having the tendency and effect of corrupting society, depraving the minds of the public, and trespassing against all the laws of religion and morality, it is therefore found necessary that the evil should at once be abated, and peace, comfort and happiness again be restored to the public.

It is not my desire to exercise severe and stringent measures to accomplish the reform so much and strongly needed. Calm, considerate reflection on the part of those who have hitherto been living in open violation of the laws of the land, it is anxiously hoped, will now convince all of the utility and propriety of a nature general and christian submission to their requirements. Lest any person may be discovered, who will not yield to the demands of the law, which requires a suspension of all kinds of secular business on the Sabbath day, orders have been issued to the Police to notice every infraction of the laws, and to use all diligence in bringing the offender to justice. The laws must and shall be enforced.

Given under my hand and the seal of said city, the day and year aforesaid.

All who are at all acquainted with the article, will immediately answer, DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE. It has never been known to fail, and is one of the safest remedies that can be used. A friend of ours lately handed us the following statement in reference to this Vermifuge:

NEW YORK, September 25, 1852.

GENTLEMEN:—A young lady of my acquaintance had been for a long time very much troubled with worms. I advised her to try Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge. She accordingly purchased and took one vial, which caused her to discharge an unusually large quantity of worms. She was immediately relieved of all the dreadful symptoms accompanying this disease, and rapidly recovered her usual health. The young lady does not wish her name mentioned; her residence, however, is 820 Fifth street, and she refers to Mrs. Hardie, No. 3 Manhattan place.

P. S.—The above valuable remedy, also Dr. M'Lane's celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in this city.

Dr. John Minge, of the city of Richmond, though a regular physician, and of course opposed to what he called quack medicines, was obliged to say that its good effects in the case of Mr. Ramsey, were wonderful indeed.

He had been given up by several physicians; had tried most of the quack medicines, and was on the verge of despair, as well as the grave, when he tried Carter's Spanish Mixture.

We refer the public to his full and lengthy certificate around the bottle, stating his cure.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ Sure Hope for the Sick.—DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING ELIXIR OR CORDIAL.—The startling cures of nervous diseases wrought by this marvel-working restorative has awakened the public mind from the apathy with which innumerable disappointments had accustomed it to regard what are called "patent medicines." It is not too much to say, that nothing short of miraculous interposition has ever produced such rapid relief to the feeble and suffering. Thousands of both sexes, whose nervous systems were utterly prostrate, some of whom were bed-ridden, and others merely tottering over the earth's surface, apparently broken in constitution and on the high road to the grave, have been restored, by two or three courses of the Elixir, to robust health. The Agent has the proofs and evidences in his hands, and is prepared at all times to exhibit them. The medicine only requires facts to sustain it. Ladies who for years had been suffering from the worst complications of the peculiar difficulties to which too many of the sex are subject, have been relieved in less than one month; casting off, as if by enchantment, the lassitude, pallor, nervous irritation, low spirits, and debility, and become actively, healthy and cheerful. The INVIGORATING ELIXIR is indeed a godsend to the feebler sex—restoring to regularity every interrupted function, and in many instances blessing the despairing wife with maternal joys. Nor is it less certain in its action upon man, whether weakened by excess, or suffering from constitutional debility, nervousness, dyspepsia, liver disease, or any other disorder that impairs the integrity of the vitis function.

The Cordial is put up highly concentrated, in pint bottles. Price three dollars per bottle; two for five dollars; six for twelve dollars.

☞ Proclamation.—Whereas, the extraordinary and unprecedented demand for that invaluable preparation, WRIGHT'S PREMIUM KATHAIRON, has induced unprincipled persons to palm off other articles similar in name and appearance, but absolutely worthless, which has a tendency to injure the reputation of the genuine article, purchasers should be particular to ask for Wright's Premium Kathairon, and they may rely on receiving an article unequaled for its virtues for restoring a decayed head of hair, for a cool, refreshing and delightful application during the hot weather, removing all disagreeable sensations of dizziness and headache, and for the toilet it has never had an equal for its pleasant and delightful fragrance.

Its thousands of testimonials are a sufficient guarantee for its completely restoring a decayed head of hair; for removing all dandruff; for preventing its falling off, whether from sickness or disease; and for entirely dispensing with the necessity of using hair dyes, as it excites the secretions, providing a supply of its natural pigment or coloring matter, giving the hair a dark, glossy appearance, with a luxuriant growth.

For sale by every druggist in the city, and by druggists and merchants throughout the United States.

A liberal discount to wholesale dealers.

Price 25 cents a bottle.

☞ Piles.—W. JENKINS, Esq., of Columbus, Ohio Secretary of the Ohio Insurance Company, who was taken to New York in extreme debility, with Piles, to have an operation performed by the celebrated Dr. Mott, as the only chance to save his life, accidentally heard of the PAIN EXTRACTOR, states, "For years my disease defied medical skill, and grew worse until life became intolerable. As soon as I commenced using this Salve I rested in bed for the night the first time in many months, the frequency of the discharges abated, and in a few weeks the dysenteric secretion was entirely suppressed, and from that time to this, I have felt NO PAIN, NO SORENESS, NO HARDNESS, and am now as strong and hearty as ever."

CORNS AND BUNIONS can be cured with DALLEY'S PAIN EXTRACTOR by rubbing some of it in, on, and around the parts morning and evening, keeping on a small quantity spread on linen. It completely draws out the Corns. Persons lamed with Corns and Bunions—unable to wear boots, and some walking on crutches, have been completely and successfully cured by it.
