The unrivalled excellence of this combination of agents, cited.
The unrivalled excellence of this combination of agents, (in the Cherry Pectoral) proved beyond cavil by repeated trial under their own observation, has compelled medical men to proclaim abroad its usefulness. It is beyond all doubt the best general remedy we have for the Pulmonary Affections of this climate, at the same time sedative and expectorant—a rare combination of properties.

In the hope that it will prove its own:reward, I subscribe myself. Respectfully your obedient servant.

JAS. H. C. MILLER, M. D.

Let gentlemen of the Legal Profession mark this case.

Da. J. C. AYEE: Dear Six—Over application for the past three years in my duties as an advecate, brought on some eight months ago a severe irritation of the bronchial tubes, which was a constant annoyance to me, and Last becoming a source of great apprehension. Every remedy tried falled to even relieve me, till I used your Cherry Pecconal. This has not only relieved me, but, as I trust, wholly cured me I care nothing for the reputation of advocating Patent Medicines, and this is at your service. I shall recommend it to members of the bar, and others whom I may meet, isboring under similar indispositions.

Nours truly,

Montgomery, Ala., October 4, 1649.

Da. J. C. AYEE: Sk—I have used your admirable compound exclusively in my practice, and find it to surpace, by far, any other remedy we have for curing diseases upon the lungs.

Your obedient servant, solicited.
