On trial GRAND LANCENY.—A man named John Stotts was dominited to jsil, yesterday, by Alderman Parkinson, for the larotny of $50, in gold and silver, from Michael Crist. The money is alleged to have been stolen from the trunk of the prose-cutor, at his boarding house. The defendant and prosecutor were were employed at the Brew-ry of Mr. Smith, in Birmingham. The defen-dant became aware, on Saturday, that Crist had the money in his trunk, and on Sunday, after it was stolen, left suddenly and came access to this n, left suddenly and came across to this | The following comparative statement will show the con-aide of the river. Suspecting from this, that Stotts was the thief, Crist followed him to the the let of January, 1854 and 1855:

Stotte was the thief, Criat followed him to the boarding house of Mr. Haas, on Liberty street, where the money was subsequently four doere-ted in an out house. The defendant was then arrested, and being unable to find the proper se-curity, was committed to await trial at the next term of Quarter Sessions. Defendant was the next trial at the next tri CONCERT FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE. POOR .-
