In conclusion, a few appropriate remarks were made by Mr. Kerr, the County Superintendent, highly complimentary to Miss Hunter and her young pupils for the perfect and interesting manner that they acquitted themselves. The large audience, with one accord, concurred with the speaker, and adjourned, much pleased with the entertainment.

The American people look upon the hero of Chippewa as the most eminent military man of this time, and to show their appreciation of his services they create a title that has heretofore had no existence under our government. This, we take it, is one of the highest compliments to his genius as a commander that could possibly be bestowed. We hope Gen. Scott may live many years to enjoy it.

HOPRINS, member of the Pittaburgh Bar, Lecturer on Commercial Law.

Although but a short time established, this Institution is in a most prosperous and flourishing condition, now numbering one hundred students, which caribits a popularity and success perhaps never attained in so short a time by any other Commercial College. The Book-keeping department, under the sale supervision of Mr. Barry, is unequalled in this city. Piot. Millar & Bro's system of writing is entirely new, and in many respects superior to any other system, for the corroboration of which they appeal to many persons in Pittsburgh who have already received instruction from them. Prof. Millar has taught Penmanship in all the principal cities and towns in this country for the last eleven years, during which time he has instructed upwards of fineen thousand persons.

Young men who desire a thorough commercial cluestion will here find inducements effered to them unequalled in the West. Let it be distinctly understood that no student shall get a diploma from this College unless he is capable of entering on the duties of mercantile life. Every satification guaranteed.
