Worms even in Adules.

The Administration of B. A. Fainnestock's Vermi.

Fuge has always been characterized with success, always producing in the feelings a marked change for the better. Any one who tries it can safely counds in it, and, the most delicate infant cannot be injured by its use. Adults, too, are frequently subject to worms in the rectume and small intestince, which always impair its health.

Mairs. B. A. Functick & Co.

GENTLIMES:—I have used two bottles of B. A. Fahnestock's Vormitage, which I purchased from your agent; it had the desired effect in bringing away a large number of worms from my wife I purchased another vial and gave it to my child; it had the same effect, bringing away great numbers of worms. I therefore recommend it to the public as a sure remedy for worms.

Pittsburgh, January Ed, 1855—[jan4] render this by far the most complete Gallery of Art in the United States.

The Literature published for dissemination among the members of the Association, for 1854, will consist of the following Monthly Magazines, Reviews, &c., viz. Hurper's, Putnam, Blackwood, Knickerbecker, Godsy's Lady's Book, Graham's Magazine, and the Illustrated Magazine of Art, together with the following Quarterly Reviews, re-printed in New York, viz. Westminster, London Quarterly, North British, and Edinburgh.

This Association is open to all: any person may become a member on the payment of $2, which entities him to a membership and any one of the above blagazines or Heviews for one year, and also a frectickel in the annual distribution of Statasry, Paintings, &c. All who take five memberships are entitled to any five of the Magazines one year, and six tickets in the distribution.

The wide-spread fame of the above periodicals renders it needless to say anything in their praise, as it is conceded that, as literary organs, they are far in advance of any others in the world. The publisher's price of each is invariably $2 a year; thus by becoming a member of this Association, it secures to all the two-fold benefit of three dollars' worth of sterling literature and a ticket in the distribution of the most magnificent collection of choice works of Art in the country.
