Such an array of taient has never before been employed in any Commercial College in Pittsburgh; this is an established and undeniable fact. The Faculty of this College is composed of gentlemen whose names and rare qualificative as familiar to the public set. FACULT:—MILLAR & BRO, Principals and Professors of Plain and Ornamental Penmanship.

I. I. HYCHCUCK, (ou hor of Hitchcock's System of Bookkesping.) Principal of the Bookkesping.) Principal of the Bookkesping.) Principal of the Bookkesping. Department, and Lecturer on all important business transactions.

JOHN FLEMING, (anthor of Fleming's user and improved system of Bookkesping.) will examine and deliver weekly Lectures on the Science of Accounts.

JAMES H. HOPKINS, member of the Pittsburgh Bar, Lecturer on Commercial Law.

Young men who are desirous of becoming expert accountants, accomplished book keepers, and rapid business pension, may rely on having every satisfaction guaranteed to them. Those who feel interested will plesse call, and witness the wonderful progress made in the various departments by the students of the College.

43 The Faculty of this Institution do not claim to be the "best in the United States," nor do they mean to guilt the public, by saying that it is "the only place where book keeping is properly taught," but they wish to say that the Iron City College, in all its departments, is equal to any Commercial College in the western country.

Terms reasonable. College open from 8 A. M. till 10 P. M. No extra charge for Arithmetic. Civility gratis. Ind.
