Eastern exchange is dull, and rates irregular, consequent upon the scarcity of currency. The provision market is buoyant, with a good demand. The prospects of the resumption of navigation produces an increased activity in the market, and we may very soon look for an active business. The advices from New Orleans today are unfavorable for Flour and Whisky, owing to increased arrivals.—Cincinnati Commercial, Tuesday. in company with a Miss Slaymaker, from Lin caster, in this State, where she had lived since she was a girl of eight years. Balance, February 28..... Do March 2..... loudly, but disregarding her shricks, the rascally mob forced her along Third street, to near Wood, where they secreted her in some place Wood, where they secreted her in some place prepared previously for the purpose.

A short time after, one of the proprietors of the City Hotel, went to Dr. M. R. Delany, a prominent colored citiz-n, (who is a Director or conductor on the U. G. R. R.) and by representing to him that the woman was actually free, and neverhad been a slave, succeeded, through his influence, in having her returned to the hotel, where she still remains, suffering severely from the injuries received in the brutal kidnapping.

The woman, although always free, has the appearance and a great many of the characteristics of a slave, and this, probably, led to the abduction. The negroes concerned in it were not servants at the hotel, with the exception of one, the steward, who was promptly discharged by Messrs. Glass & Carr, when they were informed he had assisted in the outrage. Great credit is due to these gentlemen for the source, that if either of them had been about when the occurrence took place, it would not have hoppened.

We No article of a similar kind, now before the public RIVER.—Last evening there were six feet six inches water Are no article of a similar kind, now occore me public, enjoys a better reputation as a restorative and invigorating hair tonic. Its peculiar chemical qualities have a beneficial effect upon the growth and character of the hair, giving a silky and glossy texture to that which was former by of a coarse and dry nature. It has also a tendency to preserve the youthful color and appearance of the hair, and destroying or counteracting the effects of age. With such recommendations in its favor, we hardly perceive how any lady or gentleman should be without so valuable an adjunct to the toilet. Persons who have used it from the age of sixty-four down, declare it to be the most perfect article to secure the object intended ever yet produced. Gray hair, whether produced by the slow progress of time, or by any of the causes which whiten the locks prematurely, is restored to a healthy, lively appearance, and all the disagreeable effects of dryness, the accumulation of dandruff or like impurities, are removed.
