1 FEW days since, I published an aftertisement of The HAMSURG FLANOR, in which an extract from a let from Prof. II Robbeck, of this city, addressed to Moss Baumgarton & Heins of Hamborg, the manufacture ray merched. This morning I observed in several of thaily papers a "Note" when was meeted. This morning I observed in several of the daily papers a "Note." signed by Pro. R., in which he states that I was unauthorized to make use of it, and that it was incorrectly stated and applied.

In reply—I presumed that if he had written the letter, he of course, meant what was therein contained, and consequency required to authority from him to make the same public. As regard, the assertion as to its incorrectness, I have the letter in my possession, and it speaks for itself, word for word as I have published. Messrs Baumgarten & Heins are not dependant upon Mr. Robbock for condensement—their Planos were known, appreciated and reacted the highest rommendations from the first artists, long before Prof. R. saw fit to pass an optoin upon them.

My reason for publishing the extract was in the fact that

The Hamburg Pianos are undoubtedly sutouch and superiority of tone.
They have not only received the bighest marks of approbation from the best European Pianists, such as And others, who have them constantly in their own use, but also from our resident Professors. The following is an extract from a letter of PROFESSOR HERRY ROHBOOK. PROFESSOR HENRY ROHBOOK.

After describing the particular style, two of which he wants for his own use—one Graud and one Square—he peaks as follows of their excellent qualities:

"My little daughter, who plays very well, must, with my-olf, have a good instrument, and yours are the only ones thich can satisfy me.

In an advertisement of Mrs. Blume, in this paper, my nate is made use of in connection with the Hamburg-Pianos. Such use is unauthorized by me, and, morsover, the mat er is incorrectly stated and misapplied. The facts are those: About a year ago I wrote to Baumgarton & Heins, Plano makers in Hamburg, (Germany.) for a Piano of a new and peculiar construction, and of which I fornished a minute description. They replied that they did not manufacture any such, and requested me to examine a Piano of their make sent to Mrs. Blume, at the same time offering to furnehme with a similar one, in case I liked it. I accordingly examined the instrument, but as it did not please me, I declined purchasing of them. I have since tought and am now using a Piano from the factory of NUNES & CLASK, N. Y.
