asy Hurd's Hair Restorer.--This preparation seems to be efficacious for the restoration of the hair upon hald heads. We have seen the testimony of persons well known to us, who have used the compound successfully. thereby corroborating the opinion of its restorative ener gy. We know of nothing more desirable in the way of por-sonal comeliness and comfort than a gool head of hair, and any process by which this crowning brament of the outer man can be preserved, or recovered when low destructives, de-serves to be halled and embraced with gratitude by all of either sex, who are unlucky enough to need its benefit. We took occasion the other day to notice this valuable compound in the above terms, and now republish what was then easid, to show egain our favorable opinion of it.
