- LEFINITE CONCLUSION.-Noah B- was unfortunate enough in this old age to become addicted to rather strong potations, and when under the infigured of the spirite, was more than usually religrons. Now, of Baturdsyl afternoon. baking day, his wife, who was a very industri-ons old lady, add in every why a model house-wife, seked Noah to go out into the yard and split some wood to heat the oven with. Noah wife, asked Noah to go out into the yard and split some wood to heat the oven with. Noah concluded before he set about it, to start off to the tavern and "imbibe," whereby, of course, the baking was neglected. Coming back in a short time; and utterly oblivious of his good woman's request, he seated himself in the old arm chair. Noah was very much strached to the about the line of the binself one hed mede it that old chair, for, like himself, age had made it fet22 tottering in the legs, and somewhat weak in the
