short absence, returned a verdict of not guilty, and the prisoners were discharged by procla-mation. Commonwealth vs. Caspar Lenze; indictment, selling liquor on Sunday. This is the first case in our Courts presented under the late Act of Assembly. The offence is alleged to have been committed on the first of April, the day on which the Act went into operation. The defend ant keeps a lager beer house on the corner of Smithfield street and Virgin alley, and the suit was brought by Watchman Johnson, who, pase ing the house on the bight above stated, heard considerable noise in the barroom. Placing his eye to the key hole, he observed a number of persons inside scated uround a table drinking in an intoxicated condition, was thrust out of the back door of the establishment. Considering this strong presumptive evidence thet the pro-prietor was selling liquor contrary to the statute, Jubason arrested the drunken man, and next for the Commonwealth by reading a certified for the Commonwealth by reading a certified conv of the Act of A serend, the man, and next for the Commonwealth by reading a certified for the Commonwealth by reading a certified rosecuting Attorney Roberts opened the case for the Commonwealth by reading a certified copy of the Act of Assembly. The third section of the law is the one under which defendant was indicted it prescribes that any one, upon Sunday, may be fined from $10 to $100, and be imprisoned from ten to sixty days in the county jail. The first witness called was the intoxi-cated individual arrested by the watchman; but as be's sore positively that he procured the beer which he drank without the knowledge of Lenze, and without paying for it, the prosecution broke down from the start. Watchman Johnson was next called, but as he did not get into the house nothing could be proven by him The defence, on their part, showed by the testimony of several, witnesses, that no beer had been sold on tho premises during the whole day. The jury, there-fore, after an absence of but a faw jury, thereimprisoned from ten to sixty days in the county The Reciprocity Treaty in Canada.
