Fine Daugementypes.—Messrs. Wertz & PatterBoa, have fitted up on Fifth street, next door to Masonic Hull, one of the handsomest daguerrean gallerice in the city. Their rooms are large, airy, convenient, and afford superior advantages to take a good likeness: The gentlement are both artistes of long experience in their bnsiness, are provided with all the modern improvements of their art, and never fail to produce a picture which gives complete satisfaction. Their prices are moderate enough to accommodate all. Those of our citizens who desire to procure a faithful likeness of themselves cannot do better than patronize Messrs. Wertz & Patterson, as we feel well ssaured they will be suited as well there as any place else.
