Dr. J. C. Avin: Dear Sir—Over application for the past three years in my duties as an advecate, brought on some eight months ago a severe irritation of the bronchial tubes, which was a constant annoyance to me, and fast becoming a source of great apprehension. Every remedy tries falled to even relieve me, till I used your Chrant Pettoral. This has not only relieved me, but, as I trust, wholly cured me I care nothing for the reputation of advocating Patent Medicines, and this is at your service. I shall recommand it to members of the bar, and others whom I may meet, Intoring under similar indispositions.

Yours truly,

Montgomery, Ala., October 4, 1849.

Dr. J. C. Aver. Sir—I have used your admirable compound exclusively in my practice, and find it to surpass, by far, any other remedy we have for curing diseases upon the lungs:
