ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER NORTHERN LIGHT.

New York, April 16.—The steamer Northern Light arrived yesterday at 4 o'clook in the afternoon. She brings $170,000.

The revolution in Central America has been suppressed. Gen. Munos heads the revolutionary party, who expects shortly to be largely reinforced by Col. Walker's emigrants from California, 150 of whom sailed from San Francisco in the middle of March. Walker and a large number of followers are secretly preparing to follow, in two ships, which have already been chartered for the purpose.

The following is from Gen. Geo. Fr. Mathis, and the rights of March and the propose of the purpose.
