DAILY MORNING POST.

SATURDAY MORNING:.....APRIL 21.

[From the London Athenæum.]

LITTLE BELL.

He prayeth well, who loveth well
Both man and bird and beast.
The Ancient Mariner.

Little Bell sat down beneath the rocks—
Tagged aside her gleaming golden locks—
"Sing me your best song before I go."
"Here's the very finest song I know,
Little Bell," said he.

And the Blackbird pi;ed—your never heard
Half so gay a song from any bird—
Full of quips and wiles.
Now so round and rich, now so soft and slow,
All for love of that sweet face below,
Dimpled o'er with smiles.

And the while that bonny bird did pour
His full heart out, freely o'er and o'er,
'Neath the morning skies.
In the little childish heart below,
All the sweetness seemed to grow and grow,
And shine forth in happy overflow
From the blue, bright eyes.

Down the dell she tripped and through the glade,
Peeped the Squirrel from the hazel shade,
And from out the tree
Swung and leaped, and frolicked, void of fear—
While bold Blackbird piped that all might hear—
"Little Bell!"—piped he.

Little Bell sat down amid the fern—
"Squirrel, squirrel! to your task return—
Bring me nuts!" quoth she,
Up, away! the frisk squirrel his—
Golden woodlights glancing in his eyes—
And down the tree,

Great ripe nuts, kissed brown by July sun,
In the little lap, drop one by one—
Hark! how Blackbird pipes to see the fun!
"Little Bell!" quoth he.

Little Bell looked up and down the glade,
"Squirrel, squirrel, from the nut-tree shade
Bonny Blackbird, if you're not afraid,
Come and share with me!"
Down came Squirrel, eager for his fare—
Down came bonny Blackbird; I declare;
Little Bell gave each like honest share—
Ah! the merry tree!

And the while the frolic playmates twain
Piped and frisked from bough to bough again,
'Neath the morning skies,
In the childish heart below,
And shining out in happy overflow,
From her blue, bright eyes.

By her snow-white cot at close of day,
Knelt sweet Bell, with folded palms to pray—
Fair calm and clear
Rose the praying voice to where, unseen
In blue heaven, an angel sings serene
Paused awhile to hear.

"What good child is this," the angel said,
"That with happy heart, beside her bed,
Prays so lovingly?"
Low and soft, oh! very low and soft,
Crooned the Blackbird in orchard croft,
"Bell, dear Bell!" quoth he.

"Whom God's creatures love," the angel fair,
Murmured, "God doth bless with angel's care:—
Child, thy bed shall be
Folded safe from harm—love, deep and kind
Shall watch around and leave good gifts behind,
Little Bell, for thee."

HOPPER'S PATENT PLANE

THE undersigned is prepared to supply CARPENTERS, JOINERS, PLANE-MAKERS, and Workers in Wood generally, with his Patented and valuable PLANES.

All who have tried it, pronounce it the most valuable invention, that must soon come into g neral use. The following letters from practical workmen are but two among many letters the Patentee has received recommending this Plane above all others in use:

PITTSBURGH STEAM CABINET FACTORY,
February 22, 1855.

We hereby certify, that during the last twelve months we have used Hopper's Pat nt Plane, and do not hesitate to recommend it to Cabinet Makers and Carpenters as superior to any other Plane in use. We consider it peculiarly adapted to planing oak, cherry, walnut, and all sorts of hard wood, and for planing cross-g. i. s far superior to the old mode of scraping, besides being a great saving of time. One man, by using this Plane, will do more work than two men can do by any other plane or method
H. H. RYAN & CO.

To MOSES F. EATON, Esq.:
Dear Sir—I have examined Hopper's Patent Bench Plane, and believe it to be a most excellent article for the use for which it is intended, as a combination of plane and scraper.
It is particularly adapted to planing veneers, and it does not require more than one or labor of the old method; and I have no doubt, when its properties become generally known, but that it will entirely supersede the former tedious and unfavorable system.
I most cheerfully recommend it to all persons engaged in the Cabinet business, as from my knowledge of it, there is nothing so well fitted to give a smooth and beautiful finish to veneers as the Hopper Patent Bench Plane.
JAMES W. WOODWELL,
Furniture Warerooms, 97, 99 Third st., Pittsburgh.
Pittsburgh, February 27, 1855.

MOSES F. EATON, of this city, is my sole Agent for the sale of Planes, or of rights to manufacture and sell them

IN THE numerous suspensions of Banks and Bankers throughout the country during the last six months, we are satisfied that in almost every instance their troubles have grown out of a departure from their legitimate business; and we, therefore, take occasion to assure the public in advance, that no speculations in "fancy stocks," or other "outside operations," shall tempt us from the strict and legitimate line of our business—believing that in avoiding all such investments we shall not only be better able to serve our customers and ensure their safety, but that in adopting such a course we shall promote our own ultimate benefit.
