Twenty-five Cents. Pittsburgh, May 11 Orphan's Court Sale of Real Estate of Dr. George Huey, deceased.

Dy virtue and in pursuance of an order of the Orphan's Court of Allegheny County, I will expose to sale at Public Auction, on the premises in and near the Borough of McKeksPoRT. on the First Satuuday (2d day) OF JUNE NEXT, at 10 o'clock A. M. of said day, the following described parcels of the REAL ESTATE TALE OF DR. GEO HUEY, Deceased, viz.

two story brick hones, and a tanyard now in operation. The balane of this lot will be subdivided into small lets, a diacram of which will be shown on day of sale.

ALSO—A lot adjoining the above, containing about four acres, on which is erected a twb story brick and a two story frame. This Lot will also les subdivided into smaller lots.

En The Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad is located nearly on the line between these two lots.

ALSO—A Farm in the vicinity of the Borough, known as the "Crooked Run Farm," containing about 125 acres, on which is a brick honsean other improvements. The Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad runs through the Farm; also the State Road. On the upper part of the farm are some handsome sites for country residences. The lower part is well calculated for Gardering purpoces, being bottom land and having the Monongabela River on its northern boundary.

Citizene of Pittsburgh and others wishing to obtain desirable country residences will find in this sale an opportunity of securing most eligible situations. For beauty of situation and scenery, and healthfulness, the village of McKeesport and vicinity is not surpassed by any locality in the western section of the State, and there is and will be abundant and cheap communication with Pittsburgh at all times, as there are now two or three daily Boats runuing between McKeesport and Pittsburgh on the Monongabela Slackwater; and it is expected there will be a tailon of the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad on or near the property offered for sale.
