timents, and after thanks to the gentleman and lady of the house for their sumptuous entertainment the company adjourned to the spacious ment the company adjourned to the spacious and elegant parlors, where music and various amusements closed the day. The literary institutions of New Brighton are worthy of very favorable mention. Mr. Taylor, of the Episcopal church, has erected an elegant brilling and will score of an elegant brilling and will score of an elegant brilling and will score of a spaceful manner. The '' hat brilling are dwill score of a spac building, and will soon open a boarding school in which about forty boys can be accommodated. Rev. Mr. Davis is the principal of a good and flourishing female seminary in the village : and Mr. M'Creary is preceptor of a well conducted academy for boys. New Brighton has many prosperous manufacturing establishments, already, and the prospect of more in a short time. Among others worthy of notice, if we had time, we may mention the extensive shawl manufactory of Mr. Wilde & Co., which "turns out" about $75,000 We have no time at present to say more than that New Brighton and the Merrick House offer attractions unsurpassed by those to be found at any other place in the vicinity of Pittsburgh. COMPARATIVE RECEIPTS OF THE CHARITABLE Associations .--- As an appropriate addendum to our reports of the Anniversary Meetings of the week. says the New York Courier and Enquirer, of Saturday, we give a comparative statement of the receipts of the principal associations for the three years last past, as presented in the Annual Reports. The receipts for the year ending 1855 are, with but one trifling exception, much below those of the preceding year, but generally are fully equaled, and in some in-stances, considerably exceed those reported in 1853: 1854: 1855. 1854. 1855. 1854. 1855. 1854. 1855. 1855. 1854. 1855. 1854. 1855. 1854. 1855. 1854. 1855. 1855. 1854. 1855. 1855. 1855. 1854. 1855. 1856. 1 visited our city for years, and deserves the support of Pittsburghers. But his forte is not confined exclusively to Momus. His tragic powers have received the hearty endorsement of the press in other cities, and we would like to have a "touch" of the grave as well as the gay, before he leaves us. What say you, Mr. Addams ? CHOLEBA IN KANSAS .- Those disposed to emigrate to Kansas should not believe all that is | agraph : said about the prevalence of cholera there, and "With the exception of the Orleans, the theain western Missouri.
