MEETING OF COUNCILS .- The City Councils held their regular monthly meeting last evening. In Select Council, a potition was presented remonstrating against the removal of the Alle-gheny Engine from the Third Ward. Referred Committee on Engines.
A communication was received from Mr. Forsyth, wharf master, stating that the Pennsylva-nia Railroad Company had refused to pay $1000 for the last six months rent of the Monongahela wharf. Referred to City Solicitor, with instructions to proceed to collect. The City Solicitor was ordered to collect $600 from the trustees of the late Mr. Hag. gerty, Tax Collector of the Third Ward in 1847.
The City Treasurer was authorised to sell the eighty dividend shares of the O. &. P. R. R. stock due the city, and apply the proceeds to payment of the July interest on the city debt. Common Council.—Mr. Lewis, of the Third Ward, presented the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Recording Regulator requested to fornish Councils an estimate of the expenses of opening Fifth street, by a direct ine, to Pennsylvania avenue; also an estimate of the expenses of continuing Pennsylvania avenue from the junction of Chatham street and said avenue to the junction of Grant and Fifth Read three times and passed. Mr. Bu houp has traveled with this popular exhibition for saveral years past; but, often experiencing great difficulty in procuring a room in the different towns which he visited large enough to accommodate his patrons, he has, at considerable expense, had exceted a beautiful moveable Pagoda, capable of holding twenty-four hundred persons. It consists of thirty-two handsomely ornamented wooden panels, cach six by twielve feet in dimensions. Four of these panels, bolted together, form one side of an octagon, sixty-four feet in diameter, and nearly two hundred in circumference, the whole being protected by an oil cloth covering, sustained by a centre pole.

Mr. Buhoup has labored assiduously for a number of years in perfecting an exhibition which is now second to none in the country;
