DAILY MORNING POST.

WEDNESDAY MORNING .....JUNE 20. THE LITTLE BOY THAT DIED.

[Dr. Chambers is said to be the author of the following enutiful poem, written on the occasion of the death of his young son, whom he greatly loved :] ag son, when he creatly loved if I am all alone in my chamber how, And the midnight hour is near; And the fagget's crack, and the clock's dull tick, A re the oily sounds I hear. And over my soul in its sclitude, Sweet feelings of sadness glide; For my heart and my eyes are full when I think (of the little boy that died.

I went one night to my father's houso-Went home to the dear one's all-And softly I opened the garden gate, And softly the door of the hail. My mother came out to meet her ron-She kissed me and then she sighed. And her head fell on my neck and she wept For the little boy that died.

I shall miss him when the liowers come, In the garden where he played; I shall miss him more by the fireide, When the flowers are all decayed; I shall see his toysand his empty chair, And the horse he used to ride: Anit they will speak a silent speech for the tist, box shot died And they will speak a silent Of the little boy that died

Weshall go home to our Father's house-We shall go home to our failers set To our Father's house in the skies, Where the how of rout shall have no hight— Our love no broken ties. We shall r am on the hanks of the river of pence, And bathe in its blissful tide, And one of the joys of our heaven shall be The little boy that died.
