THE CITY POST.

MONDAY MORNING.....JULY. 2.

ANOTHER VICTIM OF THE CHECK GAME.—Fools learn by experience, and it is nothing but right only that they should occasionally pay for the information thus acquired. The patent safe game, the ball game, the check game, and various other methods resorted to by sharpers to fleece the unsophisticated, have been exposed so often in the public prints, that it seems almost impossible that any one, however verdant he is, would allow himself to be cheated in this manner. But, whether it is that the victims of these swindles are too parsimonious to take a newspaper, or are so incorrigibly "green" as not to profit by the information therein contained, we know not; they learn nothing by precept, and we don't pity them much when they suffer at the hands of those worthies who are always waiting to take the stranger in.

On Friday morning, a gentleman from Columbus, while standing at the Depot of the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad, in Allegheny, observed two respectable looking men engaged in what appeared to him, making a bargain. The one was selling some article and the other was purchasing. The seller was going off in the train, which was within a few minutes of starting, and the purchaser hadn't quite money enough to pay him. Turning suddenly around to the Columbus gentleman, the purchaser explained the difficulty to him, and asked whether he wouldn't advance $90, offering as security therefor a check for $900, on Kramer & Rahm, signed C. Johnson, and purporting to be endorsed by the firm. The Buckeye, supposing the affair was all right, forked over the money, and received the check, the other person telling him they would go over in a few minutes and draw the money. In the meantime, the seller stepped into the cars, and his companion went after him to bid him good bye. Just then the locomotive whistled, the train went off with the two sharpers, and the Columbus man, beginning to have some faint idea of the true state of the case, was left gaping on the platform. He hurried across the river, presented his check, and found—as is at once supposed—that it was worth nothing.

HOT WEATHER.—BEWARE OF EXCESSES.—The following advice should be read and borne in mind by every one:

"Statistics show that the largest number of deaths from imprudence happen when a cold spell is suddenly succeeded by one of intense heat; and the reason is that people, feeling the change acutely, thoughtlessly risk their health in the effort to get cool. A laborer becomes over-heated, rushes to a hydrant, drinks cold water to excess, and perishes in a few hours Another person seeks relief in juleps, cobblers, and other mix-culled "cooling drinks," and the result is increased agreement of the brains instead of diminished action there, often followed by sudden death. A third is tempted by fresh fruit, and either eats too much or eats that which is not ripe, and he too pays for indiscretion with his life. A fourth, fifth and sixth violate the laws of health in some other way, and are prostrated by illness, if not swept into the grave. And so it goes, to the end of the chapter."

ENGINEERS AND PILOTS LICENSED IN JUNE.—The following are the Engineers and Pilots licensed at this port by Messrs. Dickey and Watson, the Local Inspectors for the month of June, 1855:

ENGINEERS.

Original—To Baxter Watson, William Paul, Jr., Robert E. Ballard, and William Speers—all second Engineers.

Renewed—James Ing, Thomas Crawford and William Davidson—first Engineers. James T. Knight, Michael Ebrgott, F. M. Cooley and F. M. Sheuso, second Engineers.

Refused—Charles A. Church, for incompetency.

PILOTS.

Original—James Klinefelter.

Renewed—John Hazlett, M. D. Goldenger, Nelson Crooke, John S. McMillen, Francis Reno and Thomas Chester.

ANOTHER SEVERE STORM.—On Saturday afternoon, about five o'clock, a terrific storm of wind and rain, quite unexpectedly came up from the South, and continued for about an hour. The rain poured down in torrents, while the wind blew a perfect gale. The storm was also accompanied by a fall of hail, which knocked in a good many windows and destroyed other property. The front part of the roof of Coleman & Co.'s iron warehouse, on Water street, was crushed in. The establishment of Bailey, Brown & Co., next door, was also injured. The awnings suffered to an unlimited extent; at Mr. Wardrop's seed store, the canvass was not only rent into ribbons, but the iron posts which supported it were snapped off like pipe stems.

THE GIPSIES.—On Friday night, a son of Mr. John Quinn, residing near Manchester, going to the barn, met several gipsies coming out with a number of chickens in their possession, which they had just stolen. The vagabonds, as soon as they observed him, took to their heels, and attempted to make off, when the young man raised a shot gun which he carried in his hand, and fired after them. The shot seems to have taken effect as two of them were afterwards seen to limp considerably, and the head of one of the chickens was blown off. Information was subsequently made at the Allegheny Mayor's office, and Mayor Adams, with his whole police went down to arrest the gang.

A SUIT AGAINST THE PEARL MILL DECIDED.—In January last, the proprietors of the Pearl Flour Mill, Allegheny, when called upon by the Sea or of Weights and Measures to have their weights and measures examined, refused that functionary admission to the mill. The officer sued them before Alderman Smith, of Allegheny, and recovered a fine of $5 and costs. The Company deeming the decision wrong, carried the matter up to the Court of Common Pleas, and on Saturday, it came before Judge M'Clure, when his Honor affirmed the decision of the Alderman.

EUREKA INSURANCE COMPANY.—At a meeting of the stockholders of the Eureka Insurance Company, held in the Monongahela House, on Saturday afternoon, the following gentlemen were elected Directors for the ensuing year:—John Shoenberger, G. W. Cass, C. W. Batchelor, S. S. Bryan, W. K. Nimick, B. T. Leech, Jr., R. D Cochran, W. W. Martin, Geo. S. Selden, J. A. Caughey, T B Updike, L M. Pennock, A. Culbertson, David M'Candless.

MR. JACOB M'KAIN, of Allegheny, on Saturday instituted a suit in the District Court, against Isaac Craig, for injuries alleged to have been received at the hands of the latter, in a cowhiding affair which came off on Friday last. A capias was issued for the arrest of Craig. Bail required in the sum of $1,000.

THE BENCH WARRANT CASE.—Judge Hampton, on Saturday morning, rendered a decision adverse to the plaintiffs in the bench warrant case, and the defendant, James Black, was accordingly discharged.

Reported Expressly for the Daily Morning Post.

Important Decision—Liquor Law.

PORTLAND (Me.), June 30.—In the law term of the Supreme Court, Augusta, in the case of John Hovsam, sentenced in the Police Court to fine and imprisonment for selling a glass of liquor, Chief Justice Shipley discharged the prisoner on a habeas corpus, deciding that the municipal Judges of the Peace have no jurisdiction in punishing liquor sellers; which can only be done by indictment and trial by jury in the Supreme Court. This will completely nullify the law so far as the manner and form of execution has been attempted.

ANGELS!
They tell me I am greatly changed
From that which I have been;
So changed—it would have passed bells!
Had one of them been seen.
They tell me my once sunny face
Is lovely now, and fair;
My hands, once rough, have grown smooth and white;
And gone the frowns of care!
But do you see what caused this change—
Why beam my eyes with joy?
'Twas nought but this, my dear young friend,
The use of HERRING'S SOAP!
