This will go down in the hands of Mr. Tar-pley, who is here with the mail. I reached the mines on the 12th of May, and what with running about, prospecting and hunting, we have all done well, having averaged about six dollars each per day. We could do better if we had all the convoniences, pans, rockers, sifts, &a., as we soon will have, and then we can very easy make ten to fifteen dollars per day. You will do well to come, but don't expect to get it without work or privations. There is as much gold here as in any of the California mines, and as soon as it is generally known not to be a hoax we shall be overrun with diggers. OF PITTBURGH, I don't want to excite anybody, and therefore won't say any more than this, there is plenty o gold here, the country is good, and everything favorable, but that is all I shall say now.
