Cool for the Dog Days. A Harisburg paper in a recent article

A Harisburg paper in a recent article on "Harrisburg" gets off the following:

"Our botels are, generally, large and well kept, offering inducements to visitors."

This is the coolest piece of assurance we have come across during the "heated term,"—it is perfectly refrigerating. When it is remembered that the Legislature came within one of removing the seat of government last winter solely from a fear of starration if they remained, and that the indefatigable "Ross" had to observe the same time they are doing the going the same time they are doing the party the slave trade which caused much excitement.
