Shawk's Steam Fire Engine is to be added to the Fire Department of Philadelphia. The sum necessary, excepting a few hundred dollars, has already been subscribed.

There were 163 deaths in St. Louis last wee -of these, 85 were five years and under. In Cincinnati the mortality was nearly as largeincluding upwards of 80 of cholera. The Whigs of Philadelphia met on Taesday evening last, and elected delegates to the convention which meets on Tuesday next, at the county court-house. In some of the wards the excitement ran high, in consequence, as is alleged, of an attempt on the part of members of another political party to control the meetings, though nothing serious resulted. There seems to be a determination to revive the old Whig party, and in some wards their strength was shown by the large number voting. At one meeting four hundred and eighteen votes were polled, and at several others upwards of three or fired the first shot? The Louisville Journal, Prentice's paper, and organ of the Krow Nothing party, beldly avers that in every instance of a disturbance there the life and Germans were the aggressors, firing from their houses upon peaceable and unoffending altizane, and manufactures that the provide an outbreak and a riot. On the other hand three papers, the Times, the Courier and the Democrat charge the whole blame upon the Know Nothing party. The Courier was formerly a Whigh paper, and for several months was an earnest advocate of the pinciples of the K. N.'s.

In the first place, there are three witnesses against one, the Journal, which never was distinguished for a sexupulous regard for truth. And It is certain that the telegraph reports in the main confirm the Courier's statements which we have published. Again, it should be remembered that the Irish and Germans form but a small portion of the population of Louisville. Is it likely that they, knowing their numerical inferiority, before Springs.—The popularity of this would desire and wantonly provoke a bloody once fashionable resort of politicians and pleasure of the subject. It is fellow citizens, and relying on this are very much divided in opinion on the subject. Where was the provocation for that intended destruction of property? It appears, too, from all the accounts that the foreigners were no where found assembled in numbers. Had they meditated an affray, and designed to provoke it, would they not have been found together, and with arms in their hands? Their foes were gathered in crowds, and armed; while they were separate, and flying to their homes for refuge. The Times tells us that one infant's brains were blown out in its mother's arms, while she was fissing from her burning house. Had that infant offended? . Did the foreigners in their feeble and despairing defence kill any children? It is not so stated. Did they provoke disturbance by demanding their rights at the polls? It appears that they did not go to the polls at all.

But all the accounts show that the Irish and Garmans did. in some instances, commit acts of violence. Six Americans were killed. A NEW WORK BY MISS SEWELL.—Cleve Hall, by Miss Sewell, author of "Amy Hen' ert," "Gertrade," &c.; 2 vols. 12mo, paper covers, $1; or '1 vol. cleth, $1,25.

This new work from the pen of Mis's Sewell, is characterized by the English pers as possessly og the same power as was displayed in the early fotions fif his writer. Nowhere in the Kuglish language can be found more valuable "life philosophy" than in the pages, of those engreasing volumes. They do not abound in startling and horrible pictures, but present to the regder those admirable photographs of "home life," which are sure to arrest the attention of those who are fund of the lovely and the good.
