THE CITY POST TUESDAY MORNING.....AUGUST 14. DIABOLICAL OUTRAGE BY A NEGRO.—We were resterday informed of the particulars of a diabolical outrage perpetrated on a young woman arrived yesterday by river and railroad, 2,251 on Saturday evening, a short distance below bales. Woods' run, on the line of the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad, by a negro whose name we suppress for the present, in order not to defeat the ends of justice. The young lady resides the ends of justice. The unfortunate viotim made her way slowly home, related her story, and the father and brother arted out in search of the scoundrel, but we are sorry to add did not succeed in arresting . On Sanday, information was received of his whereabouts, and every hope is entertained The girl is of proposessing appearance, about twenty years of age, and is of a respectable fam ily. She is still suffering very severely from her ARREST OF A BURGLAR -On Sunday morning. about 4 o'clock, the residence of Mr. M'Grew, on Robinson street, Allegheny, was entered by a burglar. The inmates were aroused by the noise, gave chase to the intruder, and arrested a man who they suspected of being the person, as he was minus his shoss, and took him before Alderman Neely. Officer Pyle was sent for, who searched him and found on his person $200 in money and a gold watch. Mr. Werts, on Espla nade street, who it will be recollected was robhed some days ago of a large number of watches, was sent for, who identified the watch as one n from him. The prisoner was convaved to the Mayor's office and looked up during the day. In the evening, he agreed to give up all the sto-len property, and went with Mr. M'Grew and officer Scott to a board pile near the Perry Ho-tel, on this side of the river, where the goods were found under the boards. A pair of shoes were found in a house on Lacock street, which had been entered during the night, which fit the prisoner exactly. Amongst other offences, he said his wife had seized him by the throat, choked him badly and thrown him down, also attempting at the same time to pound him with a sad iron. In confirmation of his story, he exhibited a very dilapidated shirt, which he said she had torn in the scuffle. But it was of no use; he couldn't work upon the sympathies of the magistrate, and the only satisfaction he got was being allowed the privilege SOMETHING WORTHY THE ATTENTION OF OUR CITY AUTHORITIES. A case was brought before Alderman Ma or, yesterday, which, as he did not seem to have authority to act in the premi not seem to have sutuarity to a the the sees, is worthy the attention of our city authorities. A man named James Cattamole, at the instigation of the janitor of the Good Intent Engine House, was arrested for having in his possession a number of iron rollers, bar of iron, co., belonging to the company He alleged that he purchased the articles from Mr. Michael O'Brien, one of the Trustees of the company : and on that person being called as a witness, he admitted that he had sold them. This statement, of course, exhonerated Cattamole, and the suit had to be dropped. But as the articles are the property of the city, and no permission was ever given by Councils to O'Brien to sell, we would like to know upon what suthority he has taken the responsibility of disposing of public property. The company or never directed the Trustees to find purchasers; and even if it did, had no right to do so.
