HE CITY POST. WEDNESDAY MORNING::::::::AUGUST 15 FUETHER EXAMINATION OF REV. ISAAC WIL-LIAMS ON A CHARGE OF ADULTERY.—We mentioned a few days ago, the arrest of Rev. Isaac Williams, Pastor of the Wylie street, African Methodist Episcopal church, on a charge of adultory, prefered by Henry A. Jackson. The case has excited considerable attention amongst was aspersed, and see that she was properly dealt with; the case was tried before Rev. I. M. Williams, who proceeded to try her fer stealing instead of slander, to which I took exceptions this he did by first calling Gardner to make his statement: I thought it was proper to call the other first, otherwise he would be trying the wrong party; when I made this objection, he ordered me to take my seat, and said if I did not take my seat he would expel me from my official standing, by taking the class from out of my hands; told him I didn't consider the rights of my official standing of much account, when I saw one of my class injured by his mal-adminiswas over a month ago that this trial was held I was suspended from the church, on the charge brought; did not know that Mr. Williams was charge of adultery against him; am not a relative of Mrs. Young or her husband; believe she house with him: Mr. and Mrs. Young also live Youngs': was a steward in the church by the after the meeting of the Quarterly Conference. sician to the Young family for some time; have attended Mrs. Young professionally; during all savored of impropricty; Mrs. Young has been laboring for a long time under a debility of the mterine system : she is Isboring under Lausorhea, a condition which forbids impregnation; she was also afflicted with a very painful affecited her about the first of August; she was in the condition described, at that time; den't think the woman ever did conceive, or could one outside of their house, relative to the dis-case or condition of the woman; have seen the family of William Young for about five years; the general health of Mrs. Young has not been !-Mrs. Young was in the family way at the time I attended her; did not give him any answer to the question; the ordinary condition of Mrs. Young's health, up to the 10th of July, was tolsmall; Dr. M'Cook said she would have to be removed; the defendant theu offered her his bed, there being no other convenient; defendant said he would get another boarding house : Mr. Young begged him to remain ; I wished his assistance through the night, and asked him to I lay in Mr. Jackson's room, on the floor; the defendant had an arm chair to sit in ; Mr. Young told defendant to lie down on the bed and take a nap; he said he would rather not; I heard the remark, came from my room, and told him there was no harm in it, to lie down; he took his cont off, and lay down beside Mrs. Young; the light was burning; defendant consented to assist me through the night, and Mr. Young, when not on watch at the Monongahela House, was at home; here to match, he get heme at 11 c'clock at home; here to match, he get heme at 11 c'clock at night; the defendant and Mrs. Young were never under the same cover while I was there; about the first of August or last of July her health and mind were bad; she would sometimes imagine they were dragging her to judgment; some one had to hold her; when the flowing was stopped, it was succeeded by leucorrhea; she was unable to work; the door of the room occupied by the defendant and Mrs. Young was always open; any one in the house could enter it; heard Jackson say, after the suit was enered, that Mrs. Young had had a miscarriage told him that was untrue; never saw any mis conduct with the defendant and Mrs. Young; know Jackson; have heard it said that he did A number of other witnesses were examined. but their testimony was so voluminous that we could not find room for its insertion. The examination will be continued to day.

Whig County Committee of Correspondence was held yesterday morning, in the Court House. Dr. James Carothers was valled to the Chair; and Messrs. Henry Woods and D. N. White appointed Secretaries. A committee, consisting of Messrs. H. Nixon, D. N. White, C. Snively, L. B. Davidson and M. Henderson, reported the following resolutions, A committee, consisting of Messra, H.
