THE CONVENTION. We have seldom had so full a Convention i this county as that which assembled yesterday, and have never seen one composed of better men. Middle-aged and old gentlemen composed a majority of the Convention. Men long attached to the Democratic party turned out this time in earnest for the cause. It was certainly a good evidence that the Democracy is aroused and resolved to make a vigorous and harmonious effort to redeem Allegheny County. It can be done if all one friends will go to work this fall in the right spirit. Our opponents are divided. We are united, and now is our time to win.

TEST THE TICKET.

We had yesterday the best Democratic Convention that ever assembled in this count; and it has given us the best ticket the Democracy has ever presented for the support of the people.

Judge Wilkins' name heads the ticket. The did campaigner has come in to the result. For formal merly Member of Congress, Minister to Russia, and Becretary of War, he now consents to run for Blate Senate. Could a better man have been found in the State to head our ticket.
