that the statements made concerping the properties of the Heinstreet & Co.'s INIMITABLE HAIR COLORING can be fully substantiated by facts, and that a trial in every case will satisfy those using it of a most curious and singular phenomenon—that is, grey hair restored to its natural color, with all the strength and healthy growth of youth.
The singular adaptation of ingredients is this compound

Pittsburgh, from August 12th to August 20th, ARRIVAL OF THE PACIFIC. Naw York, August 22.—The steamship Pacitic arrived this morning from Liverpool, with European dates to the 11th inst. The Havre steamship Arago arrived off Southampton on the evening of the 10th.

The general aspect of the news from the seat of war is unsatisfactory. The most important item is that the hombardment of Sebasiopol was resumed on the 10th.

Omer Pacha is appointed commander of the Turkish troops in Asia. Omer Facus is appointed commanded to the facilities of the siege of Kars continues without any definite result. Berdinek has been again partially bombarded. It is reported in Paris that Revel has been successfully bombarded, but the truth probably is that the fleet is assembling in the Baltic for the supposed immediate attack searching in the Battle for the supposed immediate attack upon Helsingtons.

The French government publishes an inflated account of a discovered Legitimist conspiracy to incite insurrection in Spain and further the onls of Russia. It is definitely stated, but still reems questionable, that Spain will supply 25,000 troops, to be in the pay of the Allies.

Explanation of the Market Difficulties.

— Messrs. Editors:—In reading some of the city journals I observed a statement concerning the discontinuance of the suit I entered against Allen Cordell, by the Market Committee. I wish to explain the matter as well as possible, to exculpate myself from any extra-officiousness for which it appears I have been blamed. It has been asserted, and that without any authority,

SUMMER RETREAT.

EYSTONE HOTEL, HUNTINGON CO., PENNA, one hundred and thirty-seen miles East of Pütsburgh, and only in houre ride. This delightful residence and place of public resort is located on the banks of the "Blue Juniata," at the confluence of Springe Creek. Its clear spring, trout suttaining waters, here discharge itself, and mingles its murmurs in concert, as they rush down the gorges of the Mountains. murmurs in concert, as they rush down the gorges of the Mountains.

The very central position of this Hotel makes it a desirable place of sojourn for a few weeks or days, for men of business and their families—jaded and enervated with the turmoil, bustle and heat of the city. It is situated on the Pennsylvania Central Railroad, where the great turnpike from the Susquehanna and other roads concentrate—making easy egress and ingress, several times a day, by the cars and stages, to Altoona, Tyrone, Huntingdon and the Mountains.

the cars and stages, to Altoons, Tyrone, Huntingdon and the Mountains.

The House is a now brick one, four stories high, spacious and roomy, newly papered, painted and formished from basement to attic, with all the modern improvements and appliances of Cold Baths, &c. It is also finely rentilated. There are superby lews of every department of the Mountain scenery—the "glorious mountains," the "eternal bills." Telegraph Office is in the House, always ready for work—and the proprietor ready to receive visitors at moderate charges.
