

THE CITY POST.

TUESDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 4.

The Treasurer-Manager Foster opened the Fall season on Saturday night to a full house, and last evening it was equally good. The company is a very large one, comprising a dozen ballet and half as many more gentlemen.

Among these are a few well known names on our boards who will be hailed with pleasure by the theatrical public. Mr. Cunningham, who is to take the lead in the character formerly played by Old Bailey, is a robust actor, and his part will be a very large one.

Mr. Davidson, a comedian from one of the New York theatres, made his debut on Saturday night, and was warmly received. He appears again this evening in two favorite parts.

Informations were given by the late deceased Catherine and Sarah Lutz, left Lancaster for Pittsburgh on the 10th of July, and were not heard from since. Their relatives in Lancaster feel very anxious on their account.

Branch of Premier of Marriage—Bill was entered in the District Court, yesterday, by Miss Hannah Jackson, aged 22 years, against Robert Dawson, for damages sustained by breach of promise of marriage.

Herbert G. Davis, Attorney at Law, has been appointed guardian of the person and estate of the late Mrs. J. J. Davis, deceased.

Alleged Murderer—There seems to be a determined effort on the part of Mr. Pollock, Attorney at Law, to have his client released from the County Jail.
