They are compounded not of the drugs themselves, but of the medicinal virtues only thought be best results. The system of composition for medicines has been found in October, proposition of the drugs themselves, but the medicinal virtues only that is desired for the curptive effect is a desired fo The reason is perfectly obvious. While by the old mode of composition, every medicine is burdened with more or less of acrimonious and injurious qualities, by this each individual virtue only that is desired for the curative effect in present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident that the effects should prove as they have proved, more purely remedial, and the Pillsa more powerful antidote to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that many medicinesshould be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as he could not properly judge of a remedy without knowing its composition. I have supplied the accurate Formula by which both my Pectoral and Pills are made, to the whole body of Practitioners in the United States and Brijish American Provinces. Messrs. B. A. Fahnestock of Co.—We had the pleasure of receiving, this morning, the within certificate of your Vermifuge, which will be very gratifying to you, as it was sent voluntarily. We are, Gentlemen, yours, very truly. Genilemen—My little daughter, four years old, and my son, older, were for a considerable time suffering from worms. I purchased two bottles of your Vermituge, of which I gave them three doess, according to directions, and strange to say, in less than three hours they passed no less than JIVE HUNDHED WORMS, some of the extraordinary length of from tweive to fifteen inches.

Having experienced so much of the beneficial effects of your Vermituge, I feel it my duty to recommand it to the public, as, in my opinion, one of the most efficacious remedies against worms ever offered to the public.
