In snother column It is no wonder the people who have thus been defrauded are resolving to punish the traitors. And yet those knaves pretend to do all their dirty work to punish "the Nebraska outrage." Atchison, Stringfellow and Whitfield have committed no greater outrage in Kansas than Oam-eron, Stevens and Jessup have attempted to commit in Pennsylvania. It is Know Nothingism in both instances, and if the people of this State tamely submit to the fraud here, then ing, which took place in the Associate Reformed cought the Atchison fraud to be legalized in Kan-cas. There is but one way of repudiation and thanks, and we do it again, to Mr. C., his teachpunishing it here-and that is by electing Arnold Plumer Canal Commissioner by an over whelming majority.

168 DEPUTIES. There are 56 election districts in this county worth bribing ; and it is said that Ephraim Jones has promised an average of three men in each of those districts an appointment as deputy sheriff if he is elected Sheriff. Now which shall we believe ? Are we to have 168 deputy sheriffs if Ephraim is elected ; or is he making promises that he never intends to fulfil? Let his deluded friends answer. It a desperate game he is playing. It is his last chance, and he knows it, and is resolved to win, pocket the profits and endure the curses of the friends Plitsburgh, October, 1855. he has deceived.

R HEUTATION IN NEW ENGLAND. Busson, N. IL, June Oth. 1853. To B. A. Falmestock & C. - Gentleman: For fire years past I have used B.A. Valmestock's Vermiuged for an an-thelimintle in my practice; my attention was first called to it is a case where I had tailed to dislocing worms with a state of the second secon o'clock; the Emperor left the church with the ame state as he entered it, and returned to the Tuileries amid the same acclamations. The Empress was not present at the coremony, but her ladies of honor attended, and were seated near the Emperor. It appears that the vestments worn by the Archbishop and the clergy on the present occasion, are the identical robes that were presented by the Emperor Napoleon 1. to the clergy of the cathedral at the baptism of the King of Rome. The Belgium Minister did not attend the Te Deum, and the ministers of some of the smaller States of Ger were also absent.
