SATURDAY MORNINGOCTOBER 6 DESTRUCTION OF THE MERRICE House, New Briggron, by Firm.—The large and magnificent Hotel, at New Brighton, known as the Merrick House, was totally destroyed by fire yesterday. The building was one of the furgest in the State outside Pittsburgh or Philadelphia. It was erected a few years ago, by a joint stock com. pany, at a cost of about $40,000, but subsesequently passed into the possession of Messrs.

Merrick & Son, who were proprietors at the time of its destruction. The fire was discovered issuing from the roof at about 11 o'clock in the morning, but on attempting to reach the place where it was burning, the communication was found to be entirely out off, and the flames quickly spread over the whole upper portion of the house. A small engine, belonging to the town, was brought on the ground but was of dered, and the defendant discharged by proclavery little service, and in two hours from the mation. discovery of the fire, the entire building was in ruins. Strenuous exertious were made to save he furniture, and a small portion, including the personal effects of nearly all the boarders was med from the flames. There were several Pittsburghers boarding at the house, but we are happy to say, no loss was sustained by any of

The furniture of the establishment, was valued at about $10,000. On the building and furniture there was $25,000 insurance, distributed amongst the following offices: State Mutual, of Harrisburg, $5,000; Girard, of Philadelphia, $5,000; Valley of Virginia, Winchester, Va., $5,000; Pennsylvania, of Pittsburgh, $5,000; and Bear of Virginia, Winchester, Va., $5,000; Pennsylvania, of Pittsburgh, $5,000; The finder is an old revolutionary and Delaware Mutual Safety, $5,000.

The morning opened remarkably propitious but by noon a heavy shower came on, and from that until the close of the day, the rain continued to fall almost continuously. Consequently, the display of female equestrianism announced, did not come off, although several ladies 'made desporate attempts to exhibit themselves in the ring, notwithstanding the wet, and the address anticipated from John M. Kirkpatrick, Esq., was not delivered. A few hundred persons, however, held possession of the ground, despite the glocmy appearance of affairs and tried to keep themselves in good humor, by patiently waiting for a change in the weather; but late in the afternoon, finding this was not like likely to occur, they quietly dispersed, and the Sixth Annual Exhibition of the Allegheny Conty, of the Diamoud, one of the leading family grocers of the city, exhibited at the Fair a fine lot of s icos. packed by team. This is something new in this city, and from the great advantages it possesses were the old plan of packing by hand must necessarily have a tendency to reduce, in some degree, the prices of these strices. Mr. Dravo also exhibits a lot of pure Cider Vinegar, six years old. It is as clear as smber and sour as it is possible for vinegar to be.

Mr. Wardrop, whose agricultural implements are in such demand, was on hand at the Fair in full feather. Mr. Wardrop is one of the most thorough agriculturists in the country, and we have no doubt by calling at his establishment, on Fifth street near Wood, he can impart information which would do good for all engaged in this glorious pursuit.

FEVER AND AGUE.

A Cure of Eight Monkir Surviling Cured by Boerlauv's Holland Bitlers.—Michael Kolly, No. 117 Grant, near Smith neid street, says: "Last July, while vinning on the river, on a cotton boat plying between Natchers and New Orleans. I was taken with fever and ague. For eight long months I suffered with this dreadful disease. The greater part of this time I was unable to work, and spent at least fifty dollars for different medicines, but found no rermanent rel ef. Three weeks ago, one of my friends insisted upon my trying Boerhave's Holland Bittora, saying that a cure was guarducted. After taking it for one week, I must state I was a sound man. I have been at work now for two weeks, and have had no return of the chilis and fover whatever."

I certify the above statement is true.
