Destructive Fire. WHARMATON, October 17.—About midwight last hight a fire commenced in the large machine shop of J. M. Poole & Go. The fire spread rapidly, consuming the building in which it commenced, and destroying the adjoining block occupied by several firms as work shops. Included in the conflagration will the carpenter shop of J. B. Jaffries, the sash and abutter factory of Zebley & Brotler, and the pump and block shop of Missirs. Winn & Teal. A small frame dwelling house was also destroyed. The loss of this fire will not fail short of $40,000. Rebecca Lytle. The prosecutrix testified in sub-stance that the defendante came to her house, in Logstown, Peebles township, on the night of the 12th of April last, and after breaking in her loor, knocked her down and otherwise abused her. The Murderer of Dr. Hadel. BALTHEGRS, October 17.—The body of the unfortunate Dr. Hadel was brought to this city this morning from Gamber-land, in charge of a committee of Massona, of which order d the deceased was a member. The head had been severed from the body, and burned in a different spot from the trunk. The murderer's name is Miller. His object in de-coying the Doctor and his student away, was for the pur-pose of robbing the office, which he selfceted on Bunday night. The function of Dr. Hadel will take place this after-noon. a verdict of assault and battery against Igglesor and riot against M'Coy. The Court sentence iggleson to two years' imprisonment in the pen itentiary, on a former conviction for assault and battery with intent to kill, sentence on the pro cont verdict being reserved.
