COMMERCIAL POST. NEWS FOR RIVER MEN. PITTSBURGH BUARD OF TRADE AND THE RIVER-Last evening at dusk there were 3 feet 9 inches water, by the pier marks, and failing gradually. The weather moderating and clear. Tur steamer "Forest City," Oapt. B. A. Way, is the regu-lar Wheeling packet to-day. She leaves at 10 o'clock, A. M.

The steamer "Chevoit," Capt. Brown, is the regular packet for Zanesville to-day; she leaves at 2 o'clock. CAPT. A. DEAN has taken charge of the fine steame Brazil," and will leave to-day for St. Paul. Mr. Wm. Smith presides in the clerk's office, and will attend to those traveling' on the "Brazil." THE steamer "Oastle Garden," Capt. H. H. Devinney, wil leave this morning, at 10 o'clock, for Louisville. Her officers are obliging and experienced rivermen. We can safely recommend her to shippers and travelers.

THE fine light draught steamer "Rochester," Capt. Neare will leave for Cincinnati this morning. She will be easily recognized by her colors-they were presented by the ladies of Rochestor, Pa. Passengers going to the Queen City should give her a call.

I (new) Poem, "The Press." "FOR CINCINNATI. --- The fine steamer " Lucie May," Capt. J. Doors open at 64 o'clock; to commence at 71 o'cloc Tickets, 25 cents-to be had at the Music and Book Stor Hotels, Library Rooms, Lecture Committee, and at t . Robinson, will leave for the above and intermediate ports to-dsy. She is light of draught and fleet --gliding over the water like a thing of life. Those traveling to the Quicen JOHN M. KIRKPATRICK, JOHN M. KIRKPATRICK, HRNRY WOODS, JAMES BUCHANAN, Lecture Commit City should embrace the present opportunity to secure comfortable berths on the Miss "Lucie May."

THE levithean steamer "D. G. Taylor," Capt. Simms, was vertised to leave St. Louis for the Missouri river on th 25th inst.; Capt Fulton, an old Captain on the Missouri river, was clerk. The steamer "Amazon," Capt. Hazlett, would also leave for St. Jo eph the same evening. The steamer "Fanny Fern " arrived at St. Louis, on the 24th, with a full load.

THE St. Louis Democrat, of the 25th says :

The St. Louis Democrat, of the 25th says: The river fell here two inches, yesisotay, and continued failing slowly at a late hour. An upper Mississippi pilot, about "the last man down," reports a decline of 12 innhes on the Lower Rapids, and the river from St. Paul dewn the most of the way to St. Louis, falling rapidly. The Illinois continues in good navigable condition, and liberal quanti-ties of freight are brought ont of it daily. There is no change as yot to report in the Missouri. No arrivals from that stream yesterday. Numerous arrivals from other quarters, however, receipts liberal, and things on the land-ing lively and business-like.

g lively and business-like Tan Louisville Courier, of the 25th, says : The river was at a stand yesterday, with 4 feet 4 inches water in the cansh by the mark last evening, and a bout 27 inches water on the falls.

inches water on the falls. DESASTER.—On the last trip of the Jacob Strader to Cin-cinnati, her wares, while passing, were said to have caused a flatboat full of moving pinnder to mink. It was fitted up by a family of the name of Murdock as an ark in which they were to be moved or flatted to Missouri. The boat was lying to at the shore just above the Kentucky river when the Strader wint by, and her wares knocked the boat to pieces. She was fully reventy five yards off, in the mid-die of the river, and totally unnware of the disaster. The loss is estimated at $1,000.
