Some writer in the Chronicle yesterday pitches into the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad Company for not constructing their bridge across the Allegheny river at the Point. It is rather late at Masonic Hali every evening and Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoon. It gives us New York city-its streets, buildings, squares, vehicles, calvacades, and people—in the most vivid and life like manner. One may actually see more of New York by sitting an bour and half here by this moving picture than by traveling about the city a week. THE Catholic says that on Sunday last Bishop O'Connor administered the Bacrament of Confirmation to forty persons, some of whom word adults, recently converted, in St. Bridget's Church, 7th ward. Mr. Tracy delivered an appropriate discourse on the occasion. On the morning of the same day, about fifty children made their first Holy Communion. It is not yet quite two years since St. Bridget's Church was opened for Divine Service, still, through the exercitions of the Rev. Mr. Tracy, its Congregation has become not only well organized, but very edifying.

BLIGHTOWN, June 1. 1854.

Dear Sir—Having lost my sight by old age, I was induced to purchase your wonder: all instruments, and by using the same according to your fections, I succeeded in restoring my sight so that I can read by night or day without spectacles. I have not used my spectacles for the last three or four months, which shows that the restoration is not a temporary one, but a valuable and permanent cure.
