The Penny Magazine of useful Knowledge.

IT is decidedly one of the cheapest and most popular periodicals now extant—there are 200,000 copies sold every month in England, and 63,000 in America.

The Parts of vol. 6 (for the year 1837) as far as received, can be had at this office. Price 15¢ per part, or $2 00 per annum.

This Magazine is published in monthly parts, containing 40 large pages; the present volume is much enlarged and improved. The illustrations of wood cuts are executed in a superior manner. There is an advantage in taking this work over all others, a person can discontinue it whenever he sees proper, for each part is always complete within itself.

Complete sets of this work from the commencement can be procured of the subscriber, at 6¢ per volume. B. BANNAN.

Comfort and Convenience,

TO THE HEALTHY AND SICK.

The subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public at large, that since his return from Europe, he works with a new zeal and diligence at the manufacturing of Elastic Mattresses in this Borough, and flatters himself, without fearing the accusation that he is a Boaster and Charlatan, with being able hereafter to make such mattresses as not to be inferior to any work of this kind, in reference to their beauty, solidity, and durability, and people will certainly be convinced of the comfort and saving of time, which these articles afford, principally when there is somebody sick in the family.

The subscriber knows the old adage, "the work must give credit to its maker," and he therefore, very politely invites those wishing to get an article of this description, to come and examine for themselves, one of the said Mattresses, just now finished, that they may be convinced of the truth of his saying.
