

was commenced by several respectable citizens, so far as to place him in a situation to obtain an honest livelihood, and thus enable him to persevere in well doing. He gave ample security to the Borough Council and School Directors, for the faithful discharge of his duties, so that the public will be no loser by his misconduct, but the whole has, amounting to about $500, will have to be borne by his unfortunate security. The facts above disclosed respecting this event are substantially correct and we concur in the views and participate in the indignation of the writer at the apathy which is but too often manifested, with regard to the depredations of Gamblers.

FOR THE MINERS' JOURNAL.

It seems, Mr. Editor, that the long agony is over, and that our persevering fellow-citizen has manouvered his Swiss Guards with perfect success, and the Bill called the Offshore Coal Company has become a law of this free and enlightened State, whose modest motto is "Virtue, Liberty and Independence!" We know now the worth and value of the professions of candidates, when they cringingly supplicate our suffrages to give them a seat in our Legislature or in Congress. And I guess the Honorable Senator who originated this most odious and abominable bill, knows better than we do whom he represented in the matter. A worthy member of Congress, and one of the most faithful of the faithful, told me lately that his expenses at Washington were nine dollars a day, whilst his pay is but eight! And that the expenses of many members are twice the amount of their pay! Surely our Republican form of Government must be near its last gasp if the people are so ignorant as to suppose men will leave their homes and their business to devote themselves to the public service, and sink money by it, besides the loss of time and all the trouble. But we know that the laborer is worthy of his hire, and that there are such "places of retirement" as an embassy to Austria, and the Collectorship of the Port of Philadelphia; and that some Senators may make more by their own deeds than as dependants in office regarding the deeds of others. Verily, Mr. Editor, "corruption seems already to be the order of the day," and if the people are willing to submit to it, then the name, style and title of our free government will all be humbug.

Mr. DICKSON, the writing-master, has, we learn, been very successful in the line of his business in our borough, and given entire satisfaction to his pupils. We learn that he contemplates renewing his visit in about three weeks hence, when we hope all who stand in need of improvement, will have recourse to his assistance.

NEW YORK CHARTER ELECTION.

On the first day, 18,995 votes were polled, a larger vote than ever was polled on the first day before.

In the city of Brooklyn, the whig ticket for Charter officers has triumphed by a large majority.

SANDERSON'S PARIS.

We have read, from Preface to Finis, an account of Paris, written by Mr. J. Sanderson, of this city or of Pottsville, we do not know which, but a sound classical scholar, and a curious observer of men and manners. He went to Paris a few years ago—but why, we never could learn, unless to please himself—but did that, we dare say, and a good deal more—for he pleases thousands who read his interesting letters, which have more of real genuine wit and originality, than any records of an European journey that we have read, since the sentimental journey of Yorick. Like that curious record of sentiment, feelings, and sights, the volume before us has a small claim to our disapproval—while we laugh, "with all our heart," at whole chapters, that must have made the author laugh when he had written them. We had written thus far, when we found in the New York American a notice of this work, from which we extract the following:

"Had this book been ushered forth to the public in all the charms of large type and wide margin, its success would have been commensurate with its appearance; but as it is printed in a close dense mass, an inferior white-brown paper, it requires an effort to summon the courage to undertake its perusal. This effort is however well repaid by the astonishing variety of the subjects of which it treats, and by the accuracy of its descriptions. We are somewhat at a loss in what rank of society to place our author, being mystified by the vague announcement of his title page; but we find in the middle of his book that something else beside 'keeping a gig' confers the patent. He says, 'I mean by gentleman, a youth who has just come over from England or America, to the lecture, or a French clerk of the corps bureaucratique, or an apprentice philosopher, who calls himself a man of letters.' As to the author being an 'apprentice philosopher,' we can only say that if we look at his head, we should say that he was an apprentice to Socrates; and if we judge him by his letters, we should give him Pliny for his master.

Mr. Sanderson is an observer of men and matter—an original seer as well as an original thinker—and we hope to hear his account of London, for he was there. A friend told us, that walking along the Quadrant, he discovered Mr. Sanderson on the sidewalk, absorbed in deep contemplation of the splendid carriages and their inmates. Our informant passed on to Regent street, and after about an hour returned, saw Mr. S. in the same place, gazing at the continued stream—and so he gazed, and noted, and thought, in Paris.—U. S. Gazette.

POSTSCRIPT.

THE IMPROVEMENT BILL.

The committee of conference appointed by the Senate on the Improvement Bill, reported this morning (Wednesday) after an extended debate of several hours, in which the opponents of the bill striven every nerve to defeat it, the report was adopted by a vote of 18 to 14. The bill, as it now stands, appropriates about 1,300,000 dollars.

The appropriation to the Union Canal, the Harrisburg, Portsmouth and Lehigh River, the Pennsylvania and Ohio Canal, and the Erie Navigation, are entirely stricken out. The appropriation to the Gettysburg Railroad is reduced to 135,000 dollars, and the appropriations to turnpikes and state roads about 25 per cent. The loan of 300,000 dollars originally authorized, to be applied to the North Branch & Erie extension, in the report are authorized to be applied to the public works generally, as it may be deemed expedient; and the loan of 1,000,000 from the U. S. Bank, is reduced to 600,000 dollars, to be borrowed when the Governor may deem proper.

Correspondence of the Courier & Enquirer.

Washington, 7th April, 1838.

Mr. Hamer of Ohio asked permission to have a paper printed, which he sent to the Chair, and which was read for information. It was a short resolution, preceded by a preamble, stating the currency and the exchanges of the country, and in the following words and figures: "Considering that the business, commerce, circulation and exchange of the country are in a deranged and embarrassed condition—

"Considering also that some of the Banks of the United States have expressed a desire to resume specie payments at an early day—

"Resolved, that the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States, that if the Banks, or a portion of them, do thus resume, it will be the duty of the Government within the limits of its constitutional authority, to aid such Banks in regaining public confidence and to sustain them in their laudable efforts to fulfill their obligations to relieve the wants of the community and to restore to the public a sound circulating medium."

Now, what does this mean? Mr. Hamer is known to be one of the most obsequious of the adherents of power. He is a strenuous supporter of party discipline. He is a man of respectable talents, but of unquenchable prejudice, and embittered feelings. Coming from a quarter, the resolution has excited attention and much inquiry. It has not been presented without due deliberation. It has, therefore, a meaning. What is that meaning? It was ordered to be printed.

WASHINGTON, April 9, 1838.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. HAMER asked leave to make an explanation on the subject of the resolution offered by him on Saturday, and then ordered to be printed. It was; requested to him by a friend that the Resolution as read would produce the impression that the Administration was really hostile to the Banks, and would, therefore, have the effect to prevent the Banks from attempting to resume specie payment. Supposing that he had full power over the Resolution, and being anxious to prevent any misconception of it, he modified it by inserting the words—"as the present Administration designs to do." If this was wrong he begged pardon for it. He now struck out those words, and asked leave to offer the Resolution in its original form.

Objections being made, Mr. HAMER moved to suspend the rules.

Mr. WISE, in favor of the resolution as now modified; but he did not vote to print it with those words in it. A call of the House was ordered, and 156 members answering to their names, the call was suspended.

The motion to suspend was lost, yeas 110, nays 166—not two thirds.

It appears to us that if matters are suffered to go on as they are now doing, a resumption of specie payments will in due time come of itself, while if undue means be taken to hasten the event, nothing but mischief can be the result. The interest of the Banks is to resume at the earliest moment practicable with safety, and there is consequently no reason to believe that they will defer the payment of coin any longer than prudence may require. The healing process is going on, and in a little while the wound will be at itself. The use of stimulants would in all probability only irritate, and produce a protracted disease.—Balt. American.

A Handsome Gain.—The Whig net gain in Mr. Cilley's district, is over ONE THOUSAND VOTES.

Mr. Deafield having resigned, Moses H. Grinnell, Esq. has been elected president of the Phoenix bank of New York.

The Honorable David Scott President Judge of the district composed of Luzerne Wayne & Pike counties has resigned his office.

A Good'un.—The latest we have heard of a man who is so fat that he can't reach his knee; and when a mosquito bites it, he has to hire a boy to scratch it for him.

The Madisonian of Saturday says: "We learn from a most authentic source, that a part, if not the whole of the delegation in the house of representatives from Connecticut, took upon the result of the election in that state, as a clear indication of the sentiment of the people against it, (the sub-treasury plan) and will accordingly vote against it in any shape."

A slip from the New Orleans Merchant a Whig paper, announces the result of the election in that city a great victory.

Gen. Van Rensselaer of the Patriot army has published a manifesto in the northern papers, containing a history of events and an announcement of his determination "to make a dash at another quarter of which you will hear in due time."

A Solemn Warning to V. S. Editors.

At the late term of the Circuit Court of Bond county, Ill., Seth T. Sawyer, late public printer at Vandalia, Illinois, was sentenced for one year to the Alton penitentiary for stealing a portion of the public deposits. In the event of the election of Stevenson, the loco loco candidate for Governor, who stands charged with having pocketed $75,000, of the public money, we presume that Sawyer will not only be pardoned by him but appointed to some high office.—Louisville Jour.

"Free Banking" in Michigan.—The "Wild Cat" system recently adopted by the Democratic Anti-Bank Legislature of Michigan does not seem to afford all the advantages that were anticipated. We find a notice in the Detroit papers from the Bank Commissioners that the following institutions have forfeited the public confidence:

The Bank of Lapeer, Farmers' Bank of Genesee county, Farmers' Bank of Sandstone, Jackson county Bank, Exchange Bank at Shiawassee, and The Wayne County Bank.

The Bank of Manchester is also said to be in a rotten condition. The Farmers' Bank of Genesee is said to be even worse than its comrades in iniquity; though we should judge that its notes are just about as good as any of them. These are all Democratic No-Monopoly Free Banks.—The Commissioners do not appear to have examined all the others.

WHIG VICTORIES IN NEW JERSEY.

Advices received in New York from New Jersey, state, that at the town elections on Monday last, Woodbridge, Rahway, Elizabethtown, Newark, Bergen, and Jersey City, the Whigs prevailed.

Woodbridge, which is one of the largest towns in the state, and hitherto for Jackson, gave 50 Whig majority.

Sutherland found guilty.—A letter from Toronto, under date of the 3d inst. states that Sutherland has been found guilty, and will be executed forthwith.

Flour was still on the decline at Cincinnati on the second instant: sales has been made at Canal on that day as low as four dollars eighty-seven and a half cents.

Perjury Indictments.—We perceive by the Boston Courier that more indictments have arisen from the bank investigations in that city than have hitherto transpired here. The Grand Jury of Suffolk, at the term of the Municipal Court proceeding that now in session, returned indictments against Parker H. Pierce, President of the Commercial Bank, and Joseph Andrews, Cashier of the same bank, charging them with wilful perjury. Warrants have been out for them since last term, but neither has yet been arrested.

Keen Hits.—The following are of course from the Louisville Journal.

The V. B. papers denounce Mr. BIDDLE for dealing in cotton. Why do they not denounce Col. JOHNSON? Is it a more heinous crime to deal in cotton than in wool?

The V. B. papers are still descending upon the overwhelming influence of Mr. BIDDLE's Bank. Do they think that Old Hickory, by killing the monster, increased its power.

Public Meeting.

In pursuance of public notice, a large meeting of the citizens of the Coal Region assembled at the Pennsylvania Hall, for the purpose of expressing their opinion on the subject of the veto of the Offshore Coal Company by our excellent and worthy Chief Magistrate, SAM'L BROOKE was appointed Chairman; CHARLES BAKER and ABRAHAM PERRY, Vice Presidents; and Samuel J. Potts and B. B. Bannan, Secretaries.

The object of the meeting was stated from the Chair, when on motion of L. Chapman, Esq. a committee of thirteen, consisting of the following persons, were appointed to report proceedings for the consideration of the meeting, viz: L. Chapman, Col. George Shoemaker, Wm. H. Palmer and Andrew Russell, who after retiring for a short time, reported the following, which were adopted: Whereas, the Executive of this Commonwealth, in pursuance of the power vested in him by the Constitution, has thought proper to withhold his signature from the act recently passed by the legislature incorporating the Offshore Coal and Mining Company; and whereas, the reasons and objections set forth in his message in reference thereto, are such as to merit the unanimous approbation of all who are interested either directly or indirectly in the prosperity of the country; and whereas, it is deemed proper to express in the most public and suitable manner, the sentiments of the citizens on this event, and to show their gratitude for Executive interference in protecting our best interests. Therefore

M. for the purpose of giving a decided expression of the judicious exercise of the Executive power, in arresting, as far as he was concerned, a monopoly, one of the greatest evils which could befall the enterprise of the citizens of the county; and that the following persons be a committee to make the arrangements for said meeting, and cause public notice thereof to be given in all the papers of the county.

Public Notice.

As it appears, that because Mr. Crane obtained a patent for smelting Iron Ore with Anthracite Coal in this country, many suppose that they are now at liberty to adopt the method of smelting Iron ore with Anthracite by the use of a heated air blast; although I gave notice last year that I had a patent for smelting Iron ore with Anthracite Coal, both by the use of a cold atmospheric and a heated air blast, I would now inform the public again, that on the 14th of January, 1838, I received a letter from the Commissioner of Patents at Washington, stating: "Sir, upon examining the case of Mr. Crane's application for a patent for smelting Iron by means of anthracite, I have viewed his claim as interfering with your patent of Dec. 1833, and have given notice to his attorney of this decision." Every attempt to smelt Iron ore with anthracite by the use of a heated air blast, is an infringement upon my patent, against which I caution and warn all men; as I shall prosecute every one infringing upon my rights, according to law. And I further offer to dispose of patent rights for the erecting of furnaces, according to my patent, upon very moderate terms.
