ing represented thereby. Another principle was to select such individuals as would be most likely to prove efficient public officers. In our opinion Jacob Reed, Esq. who stands at the head of the ticket for Chief Burgess, though not without his faults—for who is without them?—will give far more general public satisfaction than his would-be competitor. He may not, it is true, require quite so large an amount of secret service money, to insure public tranquility and official vigilance, as the individual alluded to, but we think that public tranquility will be quite as well secured without the aid of the said secret service money. With respect to the councilmen nominated they are all good men and true. One of them, formerly a Wolf man, whose manly firmness in coming out for Ritter, has exposed him in some measure to the threatened persecution of the locofocos. These are the principal officers to be elected; and we hope that every true Whig will support the ticket. Above all, we hope that no true Whig will permit his name to be used as an opposition candidate; thereby to defeat the regularly nominated ticket, and thus afford a triumph to the Locofocos.

We call the attention of our readers to extracts from administration papers on our first page, on the subject of infidelity and Locofocoism. We think it high time that public attention should be directed to the fact that self-styled Democrats, in many places, are ranging themselves under the banner of that "bright Venus of Democracy," Fanny Wright. Tammany Hall, in New York, has been noted for its iniquities and abominations. This is the great head quarters of infidelity and locofocoism! Here, they preach politics and irreligion alternately! The Bible and the banks, the alternate topics of bitter satire and ferocious denunciation. We think that the public mind ought to be thoroughly alive to the nature of those doctrines which assimilate themselves so easily and naturally to infidelity in religion. Why is it that their political doctrines are so loudly preached by all the popular infidel lecturers of the day? Simply, because there is something in them which corresponds with their own immoral and perverted views and feelings on religious subjects. We think this is a self-evident position.

We have seen specimens of the coal iron and iron ore, brought over by Richard Jones, a miner, from the works of Mr. Crane, in Wales. The coal is a light-free burning coal; the iron a fine looking specimen of grey iron, and the ore such as is common we believe to our state. The anthracite basin from which the above specimens of coal was brought, like our own, terminates in a bituminous region, and the coal in question was taken out of the mines at a distance of twenty miles from the said bituminous region. In connexion with this subject, we would mention that Mr. Burd Patterson has commenced the foundation of a furnace in this borough, in which the business of making iron with anthracite coal will be undertaken forthwith, and we have no doubt with complete success. We shall keep our readers advised of all the experiments in this region in the business in question. We look upon it as of great moment and importance to our region, and one that holds out great inducements to capital and enterprise.

Report of the Committee on the Duel.—The report of the majority of the committee of the house of representatives; on the duel between Messrs. Graves and Cilley, has produced much sensation at Washington. The Globe published portions of this precious Locofoco document even before the report had been read in the house. Mr. Adams, in his remarks on the report, affirmed "that the committee, in the course they have thought fit to pursue, have committed a greater breach of privilege than the one under discussion." Our readers will be surprised to learn, that this committee, though instructed to inquire merely into the facts of the case, thought fit to report a resolution for the expulsion of Mr. Graves from the house of representatives; and yet these very individuals voted for funeral honors to Mr. Cilley. They are Messrs. Toucey of Conn., Potter of Penn., Bruyn of New York, and Grantland of Georgia, thorough-going locofocos, and supporters of Gen. Jackson, a noted duellist. They seize upon the unfortunate event of the death of Mr. Cilley to turn it to some political advantage; determined, as Judge Prebble of Maine declared, by a right employment of that event, to make Mr. Cilley more useful in his death, than he ever could have been in his life. What weight can a report from such men be entitled to?

New Line of Stages.—By an advertisement in another column, it will be seen that the Express Line of Stages, commenced running to day. We learn that the delay in starting from this place, has been owing to the circumstances of the new opening of the Reading and Philadelphia Rail Road. This Rail Road opened only yesterday. We have no doubt that the new line will give entire public satisfaction. It is the interest of our citizens to support it liberally, and to discountenance all attempts to drive it off the road. Having experienced for a long time, great inconveniences from the want of competition; when competition commences it ought to be encouraged and upheld.

List of Delegates to the Reading Convention.—We publish in this week's paper, a List of Delegates to the Young Men's Convention at Reading. These it will be found have been selected from every part of the county, with as much attention to the principle of equal representation as practicable. Many of these are individuals once prominent in the ranks of our opponents. Extensive preparations are said to be making to accommodate the Delegates at Reading.

Weather.—Aurora Borealis.—We have had but little warm weather yet—Sunday opened rather mild, but became cool towards night-fall. During the evening, between 9 and 10 o'clock, we witnessed a splendid Aurora Borealis; the red glow extended from the east to the west, not far from the zenith or point over our heads. The temperature was apparently much colder. On Monday night a severe frost occurred, accompanied by ice nearly half an inch thick. Vegetation still at a stand, or progressing very slowly.

The Delegation from the city and county of Philadelphia, to the 4th of June state convention has been increased to two hundred.

Awful Accident. LOSS OF ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIVE LIVES.

A slip from the office of the Cincinnati Whig states, that the boiler of the new steam boat Moselle, on leaving the wharf of that city burst; and out of about two HUNDRED PASSENGERS, it is stated that ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIVE PERSONS HAVE PERISHED. The accident, it is stated, occurred thro' carelessness.

OUR COUNTRY.—One cannot feel the grandeur of our republic, unless he surveys it in detail. For example, a senator in congress, from Louisiana, has just arrived in Washington. Twenty days of his journey he passed in a steam boat on inland waters—but constantly moving, at a quick pace, to day and night. I never shall forget the rapture of a traveller, who left the green parks of New Orleans early in March,—that land of the orange and the olive, then teeming with verdure, freshness, and life, and as it were, mocking him with the mid summer of his northern home.—He journeyed leisurely toward the region of ice and snow, to watch the budding of the young flowers, and to catch the breezes from Tombeckoos in a comfortable steamboat. From Tuscaloosa, he shot athwart the wilds of Alabama, over Indian grounds, that bloody battles have rendered ever memorable. He traversed Georgia, the Carolinas, ranged along the base of the mountains of Virginia,—and for three months and more, he enjoyed one perpetual, one unvarying, evercoming spring,—that most delicious season of the year.—till, by the middle of June, he found himself in the fogs of the Passamaquoddy, where tardy summer was even then hesitating whether it was time to come. And yet he had not been off the soil of his own country!—Knickerbocker.

Loco Foco Voters.—A correspondent of the Baltimore Chronicle, writing from Wilmington, Delaware, on the 22d instant, states that on his passage from Philadelphia to Baltimore, in the steamer Telegraph, he ascertained that there was a Van Buren agent on board who was taking 13 persons from Philadelphia to Baltimore, to vote at the election there. They are probably a part of our loco loco locomotives.—N. Y. Transcript.

A Loco Foco's opinion of his party.—The Post Master of Kennebunk (Me.) having lost the town at the choice of town officers, uttered the following as the reason:—"About 60 voters deceived us—the truth of the matter is, WE HAD SO MANY D—D DRUNKARDS ON OUR SIDE THAT THEY DON'T KNOW HOW THEY VOTE, OR WHETHER THEY VOTE OR NOT."

Upper Canada.—The Hamilton Gazette of the 10th inst. states that on Wednesday morning Hon. Mr. Justice Manauay proceeded to pass the awful sentence of the law upon Haratio Hill, Stephen Smith, Charles P. Waldrath, Ephraim Cook, John Tafford, Nathan Town, and Peter Malcom, sentencing them to be hung.

When the election about a year ago, commenced going against the administration by such large majorities, the V. B. editors assured their readers, that the whole thing was merely "the result of spasmodic action." Don't they think the spasm lasts a long while?—Prentice.

A violent Van Burenite wrote to us on Saturday, abusing us for calling his party loco foco, and bidding us "go to h—." Really we cannot oblige him in this matter. If we were to do so, we would be in the very hot bed of loco focism.

GOOD.—Prentice, in speaking of the continual flight of Van Buren's Locomotive Subtreasuries, says "the only effectual method of preventing this continual flight of Sub-Treasurers, is to chain them to their iron safes and strong boxes, just as knives and forks are sometimes chained to a table, or Bull-dogs to a wagon."

FOR THE MINERS JOURNAL.—A change came o'er the spirit of my dream. I started forth in summer time when all was bright and fair, My heart was glad as summer skies and warm as summer air. My songs like fresh summer flowers so strangely bright and free, And my hopes had just been freighted forth on life's dimstrous sea.

As yet my mind was garrisoned with the choicest of thought's flowers, And all uncarved by man's hand on the ever varying loom; I gazed but on the airy side of this our resting home; Nor dreamt that in this world of ours changes would ever come.

And mine has been a better change, a fearful varying lot, And almost in the midst of change I smiled and knew it not; But now a stillness reigns o'er all, and altered is the tone, And mid rejoicing festive hours I feel both sad and lone.

And I, that I have felt how and this ailments is to bear, How bitter 'neath the mask of joy the thoughts of we to wear; Though young in years I sigh and think earth's hap-piness how vain, And mourn too for the happy hours I may not know again.

FOR THE MINERS JOURNAL.—Mr. BARNUM.—Please allow one of your fellow citizens and an uneducated Whig, to say a few words respecting the election for borough officers which will be held on Monday next. That election is of the greatest importance to the Whig party in Schuylkill county, as it regards the coming election, in October next; and of the truth of that fact a large majority of the Whigs of this borough are aware. But our ex-Chief Burgess, to gratify private malice & spleen, in willing to unite with the Locofocos, to get up a second ticket, with himself at the head of it for Chief Burgess, in opposition to the ticket which was regularly nominated by a meeting of the free voters of Pottsville, assembled for that purpose. Now Mr. Editor, that gentleman, and those who second his movements, (if any there be who do so) are very much mistaken in the people whom they are attempting to gull. How many are of rather too frequent occurrence now days not to be seen plainly with even one eye.

Can it for a moment be supposed, that the free enlightened, intelligent, and honest voters of this Borough, can support a ticket with such a man at the head of it. Why, the very dogs would rise up and give a mutinous yelp at these for doing so. A WHIG.

The National Intelligencer gives the following unwelcome intelligence concerning the Peach orchards: April Frosts.—It is generally thought that the late severe frosts have killed the peaches in this part of the country. Some experienced market gardeners in this neighbourhood, however, entertain a different opinion, and we shall be very glad to find that their views are correct. We were now some very valuable peach orchards in this vicinity, which have been raised at great expense, and with ordinary care, labor and attention; and it would, indeed, be a matter of great regret, not only to their owners and cultivators, but to our citizens generally, if the crop of peaches should again fail.

We are told that some of the peach cultivators in the District have kept fires constantly burning during the late frosty nights in the midst of their peach trees; and we are informed that this method of saving their fruit from the ravages of the frosts has been successfully practiced by experienced horticulturists in the Northern States.

Block Island.—Much speculation has been excited by the great political change in Block Island, (Rhode Island.) We learn from the Providence Journal that it was occasioned by the spread of the temperance reform, the building of a church and a general awakening of interest in education.

The Globe says, that the Government is "opposed to imprisonment for debt." No doubt of it. Imprisonment for debt were universal, the Government itself would have been peeping through the bars of a jail long ago.—Prentice.

Facts! Facts! Facts!—READ THEM.—There are facts in the history of our country which should not be forgotten. During the administration of Mr. Adams the expenses of government amounted to 13 MILLIONS A YEAR; a cry for Reform and Retrenchment was raised; and, under the present reform administration, the expenses amount to THIRTY-TWO MILLIONS annually. But this is not the worst of the case. During Mr. Adams' administration, ten millions of the national debt was annually paid off; now, we find ten millions annually contracted! These are facts which we dare the profligate presses of the administration to deny. Will the people quietly suffer this? The late election answers this question in a voice not to be misunderstood.

Reading Journal.—A SCENE IN NEW YORK.—A gentleman walking in Broadway, a few days since, Canal street, suddenly felt something jerked from his coat pocket, and turning round, saw an odd looking pad making off with his handkerchief. The rogue was soon arrested, and immediately confessed, assuring the gentleman that he "couldn't help it."

Genl. "Couldn't help it? Why?" Rogue. "Why, ye see, I's been studying phrenology, and I discovered that I have a very large development of self-appropriativeness." He was instantly released.

Excellent.—Night before last, a lady was accosted by a mistachod ruffian, in Bleeker street. She paused, and deliberately drew from her reticule the lower joint of a black fagocet, which she held forth, wrapping the key. His lordship supposing it was really a pistol, made off immediately, declaring that he "did not wish to be shot by von lady American."

N. Y. Whig. CANDID.—The editor of the New Orleans Merchant says—"We denounced the Carrollton Hotel the other day. We retract our remarks. We dined there yesterday—GRATIS!"

POSTSCRIPT. VIRGINIA ELECTION.

We gather from the Richmond Whig, the following result: In Henrico county, Batts (Whig) elected—majority 41. HANOVER—Result not known—poll still open—favorable.

CAROLINE—Corbin (Whig) ahead; favorable. POWHATK—Harris (Whig) ahead yesterday—a strong Van Buren county formerly, and elected Van Buren men in 1834, the Leigh contest.

LOUISA—Van Buren as usual. CUMBERLAND—Results not known. PETERSBURG—May, (W.) elected. PRINCE GEORGE—Always Van Buren—no change—V. Buren majority 10. CHESTERFIELD—Van Buren majority 97.

NORFOLK BOROUGH—Whig elected. NORFOLK COUNTY—Whig elected. NARRIMOND COUNTY—Whigs elected, and Whig gain.

FREDERICK COUNTY—This was one of the strongest Van Buren Districts in Virginia—Three Whigs elected. JEFFERSON—One Whig—(gain.) HAMPSHIRE—Whig.

In many of the above named Counties, the polls had not closed, and there is good reason to believe that the Whigs will gain many members. UNEXPECTED WHIG VICTORY. ALBEMARLE COUNTY.

We learn by a gentleman who received a Charlottesville paper, containing the full returns, that Gilmer and Southwall (Whigs) are elected over Randolph and Rives, (V. B.) by about 120 majority. This it one of the strong Van Buren counties, and the triumph is the greater. The National Intelligencer, says:—"We received information from Fredericksburg last evening, that there was no doubt of the election of Mr. Slaughter, the Whig candidate, over Mr. Banks, the Van Buren sub-Treasury candidate for Congress, to fill the vacancy made by Mr. Patton's resignation. This is quite an unexpected and gratifying Whig triumph, as the district was thought to be the most decided sub-Treasury district in the State of Virginia, and Mr. Banks a most popular gentleman, and for many years past Speaker of the House of Delegates."

STILL LATER. The National Intelligencer of Monday says: VIRGINIA ELECTIONS.—As far as heard from the representatives elected stands as follows:

EXPEDITION. The Express Line of Stages arrived at this borough yesterday from Philadelphia, at a quarter before 6 o'clock, full of passengers.

The Whig majority for Mr. Kennedy, in the Baltimore district, is 862 votes; showing a Whig gain over the last election of 1113 votes.

Rail Road.—The Reading Journal of Saturday last says: "On Tuesday next, at 8 o'clock, A. M. the first cars drawn by a locomotive engine, will leave this place for Pottstown, where stages will be in readiness to convey passengers to the Norristown rail road. Should the weather be favorable it is supposed that a complete line of rail road communication from Reading to Philadelphia will be finished by the 4th of July.

An efficient corps of engineers, under the direction of Mr. Fairfax, is now engaged in making a re-survey of the route to Port Clinton, preparatory to a final location.

The Cars for Philadelphia, leave Reading every day at 8 A. M. and 12 P. M.—Leave Pottstown at 10 A. M. and 3 P. M.

The Whig members of Congress have recommended the 4th of July, 1838, as a suitable time for holding the National Convention, to nominate candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency.

The Government proclaimed through the Globe, that "the people must take care of themselves." They were taking care of themselves.

Post Office and Custom Specie Circular Revoked.—The bills of the city banks are now received at the Post Office for postage.—N. Y. Transcript.

We are requested to state that the Rev. Dr. M'Cartee will preach in the New Baptist Church, Belmont, about two miles from Port Carbon, next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.
