

Editor's Correspondence.

From Corresponding Committees.

DANVILLE, July 24th, 1838. The Majority in Columbia county against Joseph Ritner in 1835 was 1348 votes. We do not believe that Porter's majority at the ensuing contest can exceed 800 votes, and we expect to reduce that considerably. Our friends are as active as gold is expected in a county where there has been so heavy a majority against us.

PITTSBURG, July 20th, 1838. The majority in Allegheny county for Ritner in 1835 was about 400, and you may rest assured that under no circumstances will it be less than One Thousand in October next, but we nevertheless claim fifteen hundred, which I should not be at all astonished will be nearer the mark than 2000. The fact is there is no telling what the Proclamation of the Governor will produce—already many active and influential friends of the National Administration have come over to our ranks. Depend upon it the Western counties of this State will give a tremendous vote for the farmer Governor.

TOWANDA, July 19th, 1838. If the Loco Focos say that Bradford county will give Porter from 6 to 800 majority, they intend to deceive—for the Locos here only claim about 200 majority, and we intend that the 200 shall be on the other side. The majority against Ritner in 1835 in this county was 671, and you may rest assured that Ritner will have a small majority in October. The Portersites here to keep him up, declare that Porter is opposed to Van Buren, asking Administration, and in favor of Henry Clay. Tioga county is doing well—the gain will be at least 500, and in Susquehanna county, our gain also is very great.

Extract from the Speech of Senator TALLMADGE, of New York, delivered in the Senate of the United States, June 31, 1838, against the enlargement of Executive Power: "Sir, we have every cause for apprehension and alarm. We have seen the country in the palmiest days of her prosperity, suddenly plunged into the deepest embarrassment and distress, through Executive instrumentality. We have seen our merchants sacrificing their ample means to sustain a sinking credit—sinking by the adverse action of the Government upon the confidence of the people. We have seen their families abandoning their homes and their fire-sides, to pine in penury and want, and suffering for the ordinary comforts and conveniences of life. We have seen the husband and the father, after struggling to sustain his wife and his children against the unfeeling action of his own Government, finally sink to an untimely grave, the victim of oppression and despair. We have seen the sturdy operations of the mechanic industry of the country suspended. We have seen the looms and the spindles of the manufacturer stopped. We have seen the farmer, with his hand to the plough, look back to see if he too was to be overtaken by the desolating tornado, which had swept away every other occupation around him. Sir, he is the last to be reached; but his time is yet to come, if the administration persist in these destructive measures. When the products of his industry shall remain upon his hands—when by reason of the destruction of other branches of business, it shall not pay the cost of production—when the price of his lands shall sink so far as not to meet the incumbrance which may chance to rest upon it, he will then wipe the sweat from his brow, and with his brawny arm hurl from the high seats of power those who have forgotten the great interests of the country in the ignoble pursuits of party. Sir, we have seen the Government itself become bankrupt under the very operations by which it has bankrupted the community. We have seen the Executive asking of Congress the means of keeping its wheels in motion, and at the same time dictating, through his organs, the amount and the manner in which those means should be granted. We have seen the administration plunging the country into a national debt, without the ingenueness to acknowledge it. We have seen them resorting to every expedient to meet the current expenses of the Government, and at the same time, by their destructive policy, cutting off the sources of revenue by which alone the means can be supplied; and we shall see a still farther application for supplies, rendered necessary by the blindness, the fatuity, the wilfulness, nay the incompetency of those who have brought us to this state of bankruptcy, of shame, and of degradation. We have seen thousands and thousands of our fellow citizens utterly and irretrievably ruined by the hostile attitude of the Government towards the banking institutions and credit system of the country. Yes, Mr. President, thousands and thousands who, but for this attitude, would have saved from the wreck of their fortunes an ample competency for themselves and their families—thousands and thousands, who would have bent beneath the storm of adversity which howled around them, and would have a gain risen to bask in the sunshine of returning prosperity. But, the spirit of Loco Focism was the very fiend which mingled in the tempest; and although it "put the wild waters in this roar," it would not consent to "allay them." Amidst the desolation and darkness which surrounded the unhappy victims of this policy, their cries and their entreaties were sent up to the Executive ear, but were unanswered and unheeded. Even the few that survived the wreck of their fortunes, and whilst they were yet struggling to keep their heads above water, rare nantes in gurgite vasto, received no aid nor even encouragement from Executive clemency. Appeals, which would have melted the hearts of an Ocracoke wrecker, found that his was not made of such "penetrable stuff." Wrapped in a mysterious and unapproachable dignity, neither the advice of friends, nor the fear of foes could reach him. Shut out from a real knowledge of the extent of the disasters which his own measures had brought upon the country, he neither empathized with the sufferings of the people, nor came to their relief."

Warm Weather.—The Portland (Me.) Mirror says, that the thermometer stood in that town at 10 o'clock A. M. on the 9th inst. at 93; half a degree higher than it has stood for the last thirty years.

Samuel Sturgeon's Character.—The Huntingdon Journal of July 18th, 1838, says: "During the past week, Mr. Wm F Johnson, the present Porter member of the Legislature, and a candidate for re-election in Armstrong Co. was in our town. Mr. Johnson (than whom there is not more, independent, fearless & devoted friend of Pennsylvania within her borders) is a resident of the same county as Samuel Sturgeon. Upon his arrival, every friend of "David the Dodger"—who are under bonds to say any thing he orders them, waited upon Mr. Johnson, and asked "what kind of a man is this Sturgeon?" To all of them Mr. Johnson replied—"he is an honest and respectable man—an estimable man—a MAN OF CHARACTER." They were dumb founded, to hear a political friend of Mr. Porter, give such a good character to Sturgeon—but as their resolution had been taken, they resolved to make "no bones" of the matter, but to "jump into it" and its right and left, being the only thing that they could do."

From the N. Y. Express. BANGOR, July 19, 1838. The Conservatives of this State held a Convention to-day, about 100 delegates present. Hon. R. O. J. Smith was nominated as their candidate for Governor, and Senators were put up for Penobscot. The Convention meets again in August to nominate for Congress.

Governor Ritner had no right to issue his Proclamation, requiring the Banks to resume specie payments.—Easton Sentinel, Porter paper. Then why do you blackguard him for not issuing it sooner? Governor Ritner's Proclamation is an abominable humbug.—Porter papers. Yes—a species of humbug that stings you abominably. Governor Ritner has discovered that the people are determined to right themselves.—East. Sent. And while they are getting right, he has determined to right the currency—so that the People, Ritner and a sound Currency will be all right together.—People's Adv.

In a description of the Astor House by the New York Whig, we have the following account of the application and power of steam: "By the multiplication of stationary wash-tubs, and the power of steam, clothes may be washed, dried, and ready for use, in half an hour after they are given out. The drying process is accomplished in five minutes, by spreading the clothes on wooden horses running on rail roads, and leading into a large close apartment heated to a very high temperature by steam. A rotary steam engine pumps water, supplies steam to the kitchen, wash-room; &c. cleans the knives and forks, boots and shoes, and has in reserve power enough for other purposes."

It is said that in a thunder gust on Saturday last, a hickory pole was shivered to pieces in New Haven, Conn. We thought that nearly all of these evidences of a wicked idolatry had been struck down by the repentant worshippers, in obedience to public opinion; it seems, however, that there is here and there one to be scathed by the lightning.—U. S. Gaz.

A Remedy.—The New York Journal of Commerce publishes a communication, in which it is stated that a napkin, saturated with boiling water, thrown upon the stomach of a man, who was apparently dying from drinking cold water during one of the warm days, afforded almost instant relief.

"RITNER AND RESUMPTION." A meeting of the citizens of Pittsburg was held a few days since, at which a committee of one hundred were appointed, to make arrangements for a public commemoration of the Thirtieth of August, the day fixed for a resumption of specie payments in Pennsylvania. It is probable that the day will be commemorated in like manner by those who are in favour of resumption, throughout the Commonwealth. Hereafter, we should not be surprised if "The two R's" (Ritner and Resumption) should become a more popular sentiment at the gatherings of the people, than the "Three R's" of the London Alderman.—Ballimore Patriot.

The Effect.—We learn that the Mechanics and Tradesmen in all parts of the city and county, are coming out for Ritner. The Proclamation is working wonders; all trades and classes being determined to rally for a specie paying Governor.—Inquirer.

PENNSYLVANIA.—As a sign of the progress and condition of opinion in the Keystone State, we give the subjoined extract of a letter from Adams county, under date of the 21st inst. now before us:—"Ritner will have in this county at least 1000 of a majority. Some think 1400. The Porters men are tarping round for Ritner, as fast as you could turn buckwheat cakes." The writer is evidently in earnest, as we judge from other things as well as his familiar and not far-fetched illustration.

SUICIDE BY THE TEXAN MINISTER

We learn from the Lexington, Ky. Intelligencer of the 17th inst. that Peter W. Grysson, Esq. of Texas committed suicide at Bean's Station, a few days before, by shooting himself with a pistol, through the head. Mr. Grysson was on his way from Texas to Washington City, having received and accepted from the Government of Texas, the appointment of Minister Plenipotentiary to the Government of the United States. The act, it is said, was committed with much deliberation. Mr. G. was a native of Kentucky.

"So hint, so spiritless, So dull, so dead in look, so we begone." We have advices from Washington that Mr. Van Buren, Mr. Woodbury, Mr. Blair, and others of like feather, feel very keenly their late defeat in the House of Representatives. They look as if they had been detected in the commission of some disgraceful act. "They look, like men by sentence of the law, Shut out forever from the light of day." CONGRESS and the FROX have declared that the ruinous policy which Martin Van Buren foolishly and wickedly pledged himself to support, shall not be policy of the country.—Boston Journal.

A Meritorious Portrait.—A Portrait of the Farmer Governor, now exhibiting in the Exchange, excites much attention, as well as cordial approbation. The likeness is excellent, and the whole character of the painting, is such as reflects the highest credit upon the artist, Mr. Francis, whose rooms are at No. 176 Vine street. The plough, a farm-house, a road with a six-horse team and wagon, are all distinctly visible; while the general effect is of a most agreeable character. Mr. F. has greatly aided in its reputation by this highly successful effort.—Poulton.

A Bold Prediction.—A contemporary observes "it may be confidently asserted that in less than three years, nearly if not all, the carrying trade of both hemispheres will be performed by steam ships—unless electro-magnetism shall be successfully applied to the same object."

A Knotty Point.—The following question has been proposed for discussion at the Blairville (Pa.) Lyceum: "Is it expedient for Printers to starve to death to oblige their subscribers?"

Abolition.—Since Ritner came into office he has abolished the Slave Tax, and in less than three weeks he will abolish Sine Fratres. We all may his opponents call him an abolitionist.—Carlisle Herald.

DIED.

In this Borough, on Thursday afternoon last Mr. ISAAC H. MOODIE, merchant of this Borough in the 28th year of his age. Mr. Moodie was a young gentleman respected and esteemed by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance, and his early loss is much regretted by this community.

RITNER'S DEMOCRACY

Against Porter and the Aristocratic Sub-Treasury Bill.

Democratic county Meeting.

THE Democratic Republicans of Schuylkill county, favourable to the re-election of our present worthy Farmer Governor of Washington county, Joseph Ritner, and all those who are opposed to the principles and measures of the corrupt National Administration of Martin Van Buren, whose aim it was to saddle that most aristocratic and odious Sub-Treasury System upon the free and enlightened citizens of this great Union, for the purpose of placing the "purse and sword of the nation," into their own hands, in order to oppress and tyrannize over the People and destroy the best interests of the country. In short, all those who would like to see the Presidency in the hands of the Patriotic William H. Harrison of Ohio, or some other staunch Republican, who would go for his country, and not for a particular party; are respectfully invited to attend a general county meeting, to be held in the Court House, in the Borough of Orwingsburg, on Tuesday the 31st of July next, at half past 1 o'clock, P. M. for the purpose of adopting such measures as may be deemed necessary to secure the re-election of our excellent Governor, Joseph Ritner and for carrying out the great principles of Democracy which was once upheld by a Washington, a Jefferson, a Simon Snyder, and to make the preparatory arrangements for the formation of a county ticket, to be supported by the free citizens of Schuylkill county, at the next October Election. A general attendance of the true Pennsylvanians of this county, on said occasions, is respectfully solicited.

A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR.

IS the grandest ornament belonging to the human frame. How strangely the loss of it changes the countenance and prematurely brings on the appearance of old age, which causes many to recoil, being uncovered, and sometimes even to shun society, to avoid the jests and sneers of their acquaintances; the remainder of their lives are consequently spent in retirement. In short, not even the loss of property fills the generous thinking youth with that heavy sinking gloom as does the loss of his hair. To avert all these unpleasant circumstances OLD DRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA stops the hair from falling off on the first application and a few bottles restore it again. It likewise produces eyebrows and whiskers; prevents the hair from turning grey, makes it curl beautifully, and frees it from scurf. Numerous certificates of the first respectability in support of the virtue of Oldridge's Balm, are shown by the proprietors.

Read the following: ROBERT WHARTON, Esq. late Mayor of Philadelphia, has certified, as may be seen below, to the high character of the following gentlemen. The undersigned do hereby certify that we have used the Balm of Columbia discovered by J. Oldridge, and have found it highly serviceable not only as a preventive against the falling off of hair, but also a certain restorative. WM. The aged, and those who persist in wearing wigs, may not always experience its restorative qualities, but it will certainly raise its virtues in the estimation of the public, when it is known that three of the above signers are more than 20 years of age, and the others not less than 30. (From the Mayor.) COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, City of Philadelphia. I, ROBERT WHARTON, Mayor of said city of Philadelphia, do hereby certify that I am well acquainted with Messrs. J. P. Ingle, John S. Furey, and Hugh McCurdy, whose names are signed to the above certificate, that they are gentlemen of character and respectability, and as such full credit should be given to said certificate. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the city to be affixed, this [L. S.] sixth day of December, 1838. ROBERT WHARTON, Mayor.
