Whig nomination to Congress.

The Conferees of Lehigh and Schuylkill counties, met agreeably to appointment at the house of Gideon Oswalt, in West Penn township. They unanimously nominated WALLTER C. LIVINGSTON, Esq. of Lehigh, as Representative. The occasion was one of great excitement in the neighborhood, and upward of fifty farmers from the neighboring townships attended, who all testified their unqualified approbation of the choice, and their determination to give him 400 majority in Lehigh. The same enthusiasm which is every where prevalent, manifested itself among all who attended the conference.

We now present our entire ANTI-SUB TREASURY COUNTY AND DISTRICT TICKET.

and we can with confidence assert, that a stronger array of talent and integrity have never been presented to the voters of Schuylkill and Lehigh. The nominations have throughout been dictated by an ardent wish to bring forward those who can justly and ably defend our rights from encroachments, and who dare to tell our enemies their faults, and stand up for the dignity and purity of our constitution and the laws. If our party be vigilant, our entire ticket must prevail.

The Crisis.

In the political annals of our nation, no era has been so fraught with deep absorbing interest as the present. The party supporting the obnoxious measures of the general administration, has been gradually falling into a minority; and now the most strenuous exertions are making to revive its strength, and blind by insidious device the zeal of their opponents. The doctrines of Van Burenism when first ushered to the world, were on a par with his whole political career—specious, designing and hypocritical. The nauseating bitterness of the gilded pill was not at first perceptible within its attractive covering. Much was to be amended, much reformed—and for some time the casual observer was really deceived by the appearance of prosperity; an overplus in the Treasury of forty millions was an aspect of continued success, and its division among the States was a healthful omen of national happiness. But alas! these were only the gaudy trappings which served to cover the stern deformity and sterility of all beneath. By degrees our eyes were opened—the wretched sisters never kept the word of promise to the ear, and broke it to the sense, more effectually than did Martin Van Buren and his political advisers.

From an overwhelming majority in our national congress, the demagogued administration now find themselves in a minority. Nothing could shield them from public rebuke: their throng of office holders and wealthy supporters in vain lavished their salaries and their gold—a subsidized and corrupt press in vain belched forth their vomitings of spleen and gall,—slander was rebuked—falsehood detected—and the true democracy of our country arose in their grandeur to say to their imperious rulers, "thus far shalt thou go and no farther." Their experiments were their ruin. The wide spread commercial desolation which followed like an avalanche, carrying fear and destruction with it, aroused the dormant faculties of our nation. They found they had been deceived, cheated and trifled with! They sought the ballot box for redress, and its influence is already felt throughout the union. The strong holds of tyranny are broken up—the flood of popular rebuke is overwhelming them, and a place in public sentiment, which is the only ark of safety amid the waste of waters, is denied them. Citizens of Pennsylvania! the moment that declares Joseph Ritner to be re-elected as your Governor, will be the sun rise of renewed prosperity; the dark cloud which has overshadowed us will be withdrawn—its plagues will be removed from Egypt, and as marked a difference will be seen in our business, our public and our private works, as in the sunshine after a tempest! This desirable end is within our reach; a few slight efforts and it is accomplished. But we must be on our guard—all that political profligacy can invent will be brought against us. The fascinations of Calypso and her nymphs—the gold of Plutus, the windings of the Cretan labyrinth will be out-fabled by their ephemeral promises, their specious bribes, and their artful machinations; all will be in vain, if we are but true to ourselves. Corruption, profligacy, extortion and oppression will be ended—our name will no longer be a by-word and our country a reproach; our bark of government will again put out to sea, manned by experienced pilots, and wafted by prosperous breezes, we will again enter a secure haven of national prosperity and joy.

On Saturday last the friends of Gov. Ritner held a spirited meeting at the house of Samuel Yost, in Brunswig; 118 persons were present, and among them were recognized several former supporters of Wolf and Muhlenberg, who are now going for the farmer Governor. Our friends in this neighborhood are full of confidence and will take a large slice out of the former loco foco majority of the county. The farmers turned out with great enthusiasm. Wagons were constantly pouring in, and two were decorated with appropriate flags and emblems—"no Sub treasury," "No Shinplasters," "Gold and Specie."

Der Joseph Ritner ist der Mann, Der unsern Staat regieren kann. One team filled with working men was a glorious sign of the prosperity of the good cause—a sign that they were up and doing. We feel certain that Brunswig will do its duty.

The Pittsburg Convention.—News of the first day's proceedings have been received; there were nearly 4000 delegates present, the largest church could not contain them, and they were obliged to adjourn to an open grove. The Convention was organized by the appointment of William Hester, Esq. of Reading, as President, assisted by 41 Vice Presidents, a mong whom we recognize the name of Dr. George N. Eckert, of Schuylkill county. Committees were appointed to prepare addresses, resolutions, &c. which as soon as received will be laid before our readers. The utmost harmony prevailed—but one spirit manifested itself, which was honest opposition to David R. Porter, and pride of Gov. Ritner. This meeting is the greatest triumph yet achieved by the whigs—the largest meeting ever assembled in our country, and it will speak to the State in language which will cause the myriads of party to quail, and carry conviction to every honest mind. We await with intense anxiety the report of their proceedings.

When our delegates return, a meeting will be called to hear their report, of which due notice will be given.

We learn from Reading that between thirteen and fourteen hundred persons attended the Reading Porter Convention on Monday last. Nearly one half of the number were from Berks county.

Van Buren voted in the New York Convention to amend the Constitution, against permitting any person to vote unless he was a house-keeper. What say you to that, ye single voters.

Gibbons's Statement.

A "mud boss" named F. A. Gibbons, who was engaged by the repairs of the Break near Huntingdon, but discharged for habitual inattention, has come out with a statement in which he ascribes his dismissal to his being a Porter man. The facts are simply these: when he applied for work he stated that he had a large number of carts, and could go to work with great spirit, but it turned out that he did not own even a wheelbarrow; that he would come to business at 9 o'clock, and leave at four, the consequence of which was a prompt discharge. As soon as this was done, the cry of proscription and persecution was raised, and as most of the case with every idle vagabond sent off the work, he was a Porter man immediately. He then published a statement how the State was cheated by the Commissary, providing for the men, and gives a long list of prices, which by comparison we find on an average to be less than the articles were selling for in our Borough, at the same time—he attributes all to party, and Thaddeus Stevens—says he was engaged on the 30th June, and was told to make no distinction of party in his engagements, but that on the 1st of July (the next day) Stevens came along the line of canal and discharged all the friends of Porter. He then induced some of the men in his employ to give a certificate of character under color of getting another job, but when used for political purposes, many persons on the list have disclaimed all intention of giving him any character, but from a charitable motive. These impositions are too gross not to be perceptible to all, and we shall hereafter show some of its grosser inconsistencies, which want of room compels us now to decline.

We learn that a Bet of $500 was made in Reading a few days since, that Ritner would have a gain of 7000 in only ten counties in the State. A gain of 6500 will more than nullify the united majority of Wolf and Muhlenberg against him in 1835.

The Steeple on the New Catholic Chapel in this Borough, 57 feet high, which is to be surmounted with a Cross, and in which a Town Clock is to be placed, was raised on Saturday last.

Why are not the Seitzinger's names attached to the Address to the Anti-Masons of the State? They were appended to the Address published in Reading.

If John Stonebreaker is a lying vagabond, of notorious bad character, &c. as the loco state, how is it that he was taken for bail for David R. Porter in the sum of $800? If he was a vagabond, David R. Porter must have been very fond of vagabond's company.

The Messrs. Stonebreakers are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in good standing, and are well known to several clergymen of that persuasion, who testify to their good character and standing. Yet these men are pronounced by the Loco loco Porters to be lying vagabonds.

Coming Still.—The Montrose Register gives us additional names of those formerly opposed to Ritner, who will now vote for him in preference to David R. Porter, which now swells the number to 174. In 1836 there was a majority of 289 against the Whigs in all Susquehanna Co., and the neighborhood of Montrose alone knocks off that number.

New York Election.—Both parties have girded on their armor for the coming conflict in November. The whig convention assembled at Utica—the Locos at Herkimer. It will be a desperate struggle on the part of the office holders and their myrmidons; beaten last year, all their energies will be directed to repair their losses—it is the wild death struggle; they are already gasping for breath, and before December is ushered in, the cannon of Whig victory will fire over the tomb of the Sub treasury party, and its death will be drowned in the triumphant shout of millions of freemen.

Further returns from Illinois still render the gubernatorial election in this State doubtful. It is now stated that the Administration candidate has probably succeeded by a small majority.

The news from the Vermont election is glorious. Notwithstanding the boasts of the Locos of the "great reaction" in this State, the Whig ticket has increased majorities as far as heard from.

The election in Maine took place on Monday last. The Government has sent at least half a million dollars in this State to carry it. The Experiments having reduced thousands to poverty—they are now endeavoring to buy them up with the public money.

The Porter papers are making a great noise because James Dunlop of Franklin county, some time since said, that he did not believe the charges preferred against Porter. This is nothing very strange. There are hundreds, even in Huntingdon county, not acquainted with the circumstances, who did not believe the charges, until Porter had the suits pending against him put off—and the Stonebreakers have sworn to his fraudulent insolvency. They now believe it, and will not vote for him.

Columbia County.

The friends of Ritner in Columbia county have nominated John Bowman for the Assembly, and W. G. Hurley, to represent Columbia and Luzerne Counties in Congress.

The Jail Candidate for Governor.

It appears that George Davis, Esq. the particular friend and neighbor of David R. Porter was the person who put him in jail, on a bail piece. If the friends and neighbors of David R. Porter could not trust him, and committed him to prison, can the people of Pennsylvania trust him for Governor of the State.

Porter Editors Backing out.—We learn from the Miltonian that Gabriel Yeacock, Editor of the Union Times, a violent supporter of Porter loco footism, has abandoned. He has thus proved himself a locomotive subtreasurer, leaving his hostess, a poor widow minto about $300, as also the Hatter, Tailor, "tinker, cobbler," &c.—Before his departure he was for selling out his interest to the Ritner party, but as that interest turned out to be nothing, it would not answer. Well he's gone,—where many more will follow after the election; we expect to see a caravan of loco editors start for Missouri, the latter end of October, as being the only soil where their principles will vegetate.

Congressional Conference.

The Democratic Republican Conferees from the counties of Schuylkill and Lehigh, convened at the house of Gideon Oswalt, in West Penn township Schuylkill county, September 10th 1835, for the purpose of nominating a suitable candidate for Congress. The meeting was organized by appointing PETER FILBERT, Esq. of Schuylkill, President.

GEORGE YUNT, of Lehigh, SAMUEL D. LEIB, of Schuylkill, Vice Presidents; JOHN SMITH of Lehigh, Charles Dengler, Esq. of Schuylkill, Secretaries.

The following conferees were present. From Schuylkill.—Samuel D. Leib, Peter Filbert, Benjamin Heffer, William Wolf, Charles Dengler, Esq., David Kistler, John Shoemaker. From Lehigh.—George Yunt, John Smith, J. F. Ruhe, jr., Joseph Morey, G. A. Sage, Jonas Seiberling, Esq., Charles W. Weant, Esq.

On motion of J. F. Ruhe, jr., seconded by Wm. Wolf, Col. Walter C. Livingston of Lehigh, was declared to be nominated, by a unanimous vote.

On motion, a committee of five were appointed to draft Preamble and Resolutions, for the adoption of the meeting, viz: G. A. Sage, S. D. Leib, J. F. Ruhe, jr., John Shoemaker and Jonas Seiberling, Esq., who, after retiring for a short time, reported the following, which were unanimously adopted.

Whereas, this meeting has been convened for the purpose of nominating a suitable person, to represent the Eighth Congressional District, composed of the counties of Schuylkill and Lehigh, in the ensuing Congress of the United States; and whereas, in the performance of this high and responsible duty, we desire to be governed by sound republican principles and usages, a due regard to the wishes of our constituents, and the welfare and prosperity of the people at large; and whereas the abuses and corruptions of the present National Administration, have reached a point of enormity, unprecedented in the annals of our country, calling loudly for reform, and a recurrence to the fundamental principles, and devolving upon every freeman the duty to active vigilance and exertion; to rescue the violated Constitution and Laws, restore the happiness and prosperity of the people, and check the progress of political profligacy and usurpation. Therefore Resolved, That we unanimously nominate Col. WALTER C. LIVINGSTON, as a man in whom we repose the highest confidence and well qualified to represent this district in the Congress of the United States.

Resolved, That we recognize in him a sterling Democrat, a friend to Individual Enterprise and Industry, an opponent to Incorporated monopolies, in favor of a sound currency and opposed to the Shin Plaster and Sub Treasury Systems.

Resolved, That we will oppose all nominations that are made by our opponents, that support the measures of Martin Van Buren and Porter, either by pledges or otherwise, because we believe those measures and pledges, are in principle arbitrary and detrimental to the welfare of the people.

Resolved, That we recommend to all our friends Union and Harmony, Vigilance and Activity.

Resolved, That we entertain the fullest confidence in the sound Democratic principles of our present Chief Magistrate Joseph Ritner, and in the success of the good cause we advocate, and that a glorious victory will reward our exertions.

On motion, Resolved, That the Proceedings of this Convention be published in all the Democratic Whig and Ritner papers of Schuylkill and Lehigh Co. Resolved, That the convention adjourn, and the officers of this meeting sign the proceedings.

We are no enemy to the Vice President. We hope, that he may live to a good old age and then die calmly in the arms of his wife.—Western Statesman. In that case, the verdict of the inquest will be—"Died in the wool."—Louisville Journal. We understand, that Dr. JOEL B. SUTHERLAND has accepted the nomination of the "Democratic Conservatives" of the First Congressional District of this State.

Read the following—it makes the re-election of Gov. Ritner certain.

No man can longer have any doubts about the result.

The Re-election of Gov. Ritner conceded by the Enemy.

A REASONABLE ESTIMATE.

The promulgation of the estimates concocted by the Porter Central Committee, has excited such general contempt and ridicule, that all other estimates that may be made between this and the election—no matter how correct the data upon which they are formed, will be looked upon with suspicion. Still the following, with regard to twenty counties only, appears to us so reasonable, or we should rather say, so liberal with regard to the enemy, that we copy it with confidence, perfectly willing to test its accuracy by the results. It may also be well enough to repeat here, for the information of those who pay little attention to the subject, that the Porter Committee admit a Ritner gain of MORE THAN FIVE THOUSAND VOTES in ten counties alone! Also, that Governor Ritner's vote has CONSTANTLY INCREASED at every successive contest; and that in 1835, he RECEIVED TWENTY-FIVE HUNDRED AND FORTY EIGHT MORE THAN MARTIN VAN BUREN RECEIVED IN 1836. It should also be remembered that in 1833, when Wolf and Ritner were the only candidates in the field, and when Wolf was assisted by the patronage of both the National and State Administrations, and backed by the popularity of General Jackson, his majority was a little more than 3900 votes. The Porter men admit a change of more than 3000 in favour of Ritner in Philadelphia city and county alone! Not only this, but one of his papers, the Key Stone, argued with great pertinacity some time since, that the appointment of Messrs. Stevens and Dickey as Canal Commissioners, would make a difference of 10,000 in favour of Ritner. Take their own statements, therefore, and Governor Ritner must be elected by a triumphant majority. He beat Van Buren in '36, before that individual had identified his fortunes with the odious Sub-Treasury Bill; and it will be extraordinary indeed, if we do not overwhelm the Van Buren Sub-Treasury Candidate for Governor, especially as the popular current for the last two years has been running as rapidly as the waters of the St. Lawrence, against Loco Focism, its madness, its measures, and its men.

We invite attention to the subjoined estimate of the probable result of the election in the counties mentioned:

Table with 3 columns: Philad. City & County, Ritner, Porter. Lists various counties and their respective vote counts for Ritner and Porter.

Come up to the Mark Porter-ites.

You who boast of getting from 1000 to 1200 majority in Schuylkill county. We are authorized to offer the following Bet:
