HIGH TO TRY LIPS THE GOBLET RAISE

[BY A LADY OF PROVIDENCE.]

High to thy lips the wine cup raise—
And gaze upon its sparkling rays;
A hand has mixed the nectar bright,
That in the bowl is hid from sight—
A hand that in the midnight gloom,
Is weaving shrouds to grace the tomb.
High to thy lips the wine cup raise—
And all its dazzling colours praise;
A hand within the cup I see—
A death-like hand that points to thee—
And now, it beckoning bids thee come,
And see the work that it has done.
High to thy lips the wine cup raise,
And sing its honors in thy lays;
Upon its drops a robe I see—
A lily robe prepared for thee—
The hand within the cup has made
Thy robe—and on the nectar laid.
High to thy lips the wine cup raise,
For brilliant are its sparkling rays;
The tears of wives and children there—
Upon the flowing bowl appear—
The hand that snows a shroud that weaves
A garland round the goblet wreath.
High to thy lips the wine cup raise—
That such a dazzling light displays;
Drink deep, and let thy heart be free,
That gently noise is beckoning thee—
It has prepared another cup,
Where thousand at the banquet sup.

Exchange at New York, on London 9 a 94 per cent. premium.

Casualties.—Mr. Morton of Liverpool, was drowned while bathing at Blackwell, near Dartington. Mrs. Fletcher, wife of Major F. was burned to death in Coburg street, Liverpool.

A Heroine.—Mrs. Jones, wife of the keeper of Warrington Bridewell, arrested a prisoner while attempting to escape, and re-conducted him to his cell.

The tunnel of the London and Birmingham Rail Road near Kelsby is completed. The whole line was to be opened the 10th inst.

By the Packet Ships Quebec and Wellington from London, United States from Liverpool, and the Silvio de Grasse and Charles Carroll from Havre, we are in possession of files to the 13th ult., and the contents are of so much importance that we shall anxiously await the arrival of the Great Western which will bring dates to the 26th inst.

The most prominent article in the intelligence just received is the Declaration of Independence Bill, relative to Canadian affairs, which has just passed through the house of Lords in five days, and the first passing of which into a law seems to be undoubted. We have given extracts so copious on the debates in the matter, together with a copy of the bill itself, that we need not enter here into further considerations. That it is matter of great weight with ministers may however be presumed from the fact that a Royal yacht, with dispatches to Lord Durham, accompanied by the Hon. Earl Grey, has been ordered from Falmouth on Sunday evening; the fall of those dispatches of course is unknown.

One thing is certain, that an important lesson, in the present government of Canada has been taught, at an immense expense indeed, and some that tardily, but we trust not too late to be still effective in the restoration of order. To banish even the guilty without form of trial is pronounced unconstitutional, to try them in the Canadian courts has been proved to be futile, and to pass offenders by with impunity is plainly offering a premium to dissipation and rebellion. A steady firmness when under material law was the line of conduct best adapted to the reduction of disturbances, and, if preserved in, would ere now have restored tranquillity to the distracted province.—[Old Countryman]

During the past week there have arrived in London a rhinoceros, tiger, porcupine, sloth bear, Indian elk, deer, and several birds. The first four have been purchased for the Surrey Zoological Gardens, where they were safely deposited on Saturday last.—June 23.

So numerous were the departures from London the week after the coronation, that independent of passengers by public carriages, 42 private gentlemen's carriages were conveyed to Birmingham by the railway in one day.

There are rumours in London that a marriage is on the tapis between the highest personage in the realm and a British Prince and near relative; but numbers discredit it, from an entertained opinion that the King of a Continental State exercises influence over the royal personage, and is opposed to such a union. All the senior members of the Royal Family are said to be desirous of bringing it about, and that some recent indications of feeling at the royal banquet the notion.—[Correspondent of the Caledonian Mercury]

George Watson of Sussex, the celebrated calculator died recently aged 51. Though almost an idiot, in all things relating to common occurrence, he could accurately state where he had been any day for the last 30 years, what persons he saw, and what he had been doing, tell every body's age he was acquainted with, and with various other astonishing instances of a tenacious memory.

Prussic Acid.—John Robinson, M. D. of Sunderland, has tried various experiments, to show that cold water with the temperature lowered by nitrate of potash, and common salt, dropped from an eminence on the occiput and spine will counteract the effects of this deadly poison.

Windfall.—A mechanic of Nottingham, has come into the possession of an immense fortune and baronetcy through a chancery decision.—The new, Sir J. Leeman comes into the possession of £400,000 per annum, and two millions funded property.

SCOTLAND.

A Chemise without a seam has been made in Glasgow for the Queen!

The enrolled adherents of the total abstinence Society in Glasgow are 8000.

Highland Sports.—On Thursday 14 June, the Common for Gael Society of London, held their annual meeting at Blackheath, to enjoy the game at Shinnie. The day was rather wet & unpropitious but the playing went on, and an excellent dinner in a spacious tent, with dilutions of mountain dew, qualified to the usual loyal toasts and national sentiments, was sufficient to have exhilarated the company, had they been contending for the half-an-hour of noon.

Her Grace the Duchess of Gordon in passing through Redwuch on Wednesday last, left First Point with Mr. Mitchell, schoolmaster of Alvie, to be distributed among the poor, a most seasonable relief at the present time when the means of subsistence with many are nearly exhausted.

Education in Scotland.—A sum of £10,000 was voted on Monday week by the House of Commons, for the erection of school-houses, and for the education of poor children in Scotland.

Caution of Good Hope-papers, to the 21st May, mention that in an attack of the Caffre tribe upon the emigrant farmers, the latter had been defeated with the loss of their horses and baggage. One account reports that the horses are completely seized by the Caffre tribes, and that they had applied to the nearest field cornet for aid.—Aberdeen Herald.

Testimonials.—The Rev. Mr. McConachie, parochial schoolmaster of Strachan, had lately presented to him, by the minister of the parish, in name of several of his friends and pupils, a handsome Rosewood Writing Desk, as a testimonial of their respect and gratitude for his zealous and efficient labours as a teacher of the young.

Deadly Mortality.—The deaths on board the emigrant ship "Albion," from Greenock, on her voyage to New South Wales, up to March last amount to thirty-four, and among these was Mr. Alex. Sutherland, from Morayshire, a teacher. Seventy of the emigrants remained at the quarantine station, and in hospital; but they were mostly convalescent.

Stonehaven.—On Tuesday the 17th July, was opened here, the Free School, established on the foundation of the late Mr. Donaldson of Quosic, for the education of fifty scholars from the parishes of F. Theresa and Donnotter. Of the full number of fifty scholars only one was absent.

Ingenious Invention.—Mr. James Duncan watchmaker, at Glenluce, has lately constructed a small steam-engine, on the high pressure principle, the novelty of which consists in the steam acting twice in the cylinder before it escapes into the atmosphere, by which there is a saving of half the fuel and half the water which a common engine of the same power would require. By the application of the air-pump and condenser it can work on the low pressure with the same saving. Some scientific men who have seen the plan think it admirable adapted for locomotive engines, or for vessels making long voyages.—[Galloway Register.]

WALES.

About two o'clock on Wednesday morning last, the quiet and peaceable town and Llandoverly was thrown into a state of great alarm by the report that a new workhouse was on fire. Crowds instantly proceeded to the spot, and rendered every assistance to extinguish the flames, which rose to an alarming height, and threatened the entire destruction of the building. Notwithstanding the praiseworthy exertions of the assembled multitude, only a portion of one wing and the out-buildings were preserved of the same, nothing remains but the bare walls, which are so materially injured that the greater part of them must be rebuilt.

The Rev. Christmas Evans.—On the 20th July, this venerable and respected Minister of the Gospel departed this life, at the house of the Rev. Daniel Davis, at Swansea. He had been for upwards of 50 years a zealous, popular, and successful preacher, in the Welsh Baptist Connection.

T. Phillips, Esq. of Brunswick Square, London, has, with unexampled liberality, presented his eleventh donation of books to the library of St. David's College. The number of books presented by Mr. Phillips to that institution at various times, amounts to 3249 volumes, besides tracts and pamphlets.

The late learned Dr. Burgess, of Salisbury, left as a legacy to St. David's College his whole library, consisting of the most valuable works in theological, classical, and general literature. Having been the original founder of this noble institution, whilst he presided over the see of St. David's, the venerable prelate has thus finished the great work which he began by devoting his last testimony of his regard to the college, and of Christian zeal in the cause of his Divine Master.

The receipt for passengers on the 23rd miles of the Great Western Railway already opened have been £1500 for the first week, £1750 for the second week, and £235 for the first day of the third week.—[Myrther paper.]

were proposed and elected. The Hon. George Warren Edwards is the president for the year.—[Carlisle Herald, July 28]

The sole management of the telegraph between Liverpool and Holyhead has been transferred from the Dock Trustees to Lieut. Watson, the trustees considering that the expenditure is not of such a nature as the powers conferred by the dock acts justify in continuing. The sole control, has therefore, been given up to Lieut. Watson, who will carry on the telegraph at his own risk, if the mercantile community should give him the necessary degree of support.—Ibid.

We understand that the Committee on the reduction of postage have re-considered their resolution with respect to adoption of a Twopenny rate; and have thought it advisable to recommend an uniform charge of one penny on stamped covers carrying half-an-ounce weight, paid in advance—the two penny charge to be exacted when stamped covers are not used. The alterations is to take place so soon as the revenue can bear the reduction.—Ibid.

IRELAND.

The Mines and collieries of Ireland, are beginning to attract public notice, both from the increased quantity of their produce, and the great number of persons employed. One Company has made a half yearly profit of £10,000. The principle article is copper.

Steam.—A new vessel propelled by steam has been built by the Dublin company intended for Rio Janeiro.

The canal from Clear to Ennis is to be immediately surveyed.

An attempt was recently made to shoot Mr. John Marshall, of Annabane, county of Down, near Newry.

Upwards of £3000 has been subscribed for a steam packet between Dublin and Liverpool.

Robert Olden of Cork sends a large quantity of manufactured soap to England.

The Copper mines of Dean Adams at Cossock, county of Meath are about to be worked.

There is every prospect of an abundant harvest through the whole of Ireland.

FRANCE.

The French Government has formerly demanded the expulsion of Lewis Bonaparte from Switzerland.

A certain M. Chaltas has been arrested at Paris charged with the manufacture of documents purporting to be despatches of ministers and diplomatic agents of the French Government, which he sold at high prices to certain diplomatists, the representatives of foreign Courts in Paris. The Dutch Minister was implicated in pushing this notorious business of abstracting the documents from the Minister of foreign affairs, and he was ordered to quit Paris within 24 hours.

Remains of Napoleon.—The Maritime Prefect of Cherbourg has received orders to hasten the removal of the frigate the Reine Blanche which it is believed at Cherbourg is destined to proceed to St. Helena to receive on board the remains of Napoleon.

The Prince of Moskwa, son of Ney, and Duke Eugene of Wurttemberg, both fled from the opera, and the Prince Royal of Hanover is engaged in a duel.

Marshall Soul has returned to Paris.

Princess Marie of Orleans, daughter of Louis Phillip gave birth to a son on the 30 June, to be named Philip Alexander Marie Ernest.

Spark's life of Washington has been translated into French by M. Guizot.

Royal Sports.—A French paper says the same young lioness the Princess of Joinville brought with her from Brazil, gambols about the apartments of the Prince at Neuilly with all the docility of a kitten.

Prince Frederick of Orange, has visited, in a Dutch frigate, St. Helena and the tomb of Napoleon, of which latter he took a sketch.

The Ship Alexander Severa, bags, forming part of the cargo of the Alexandre, on being landed at Bordeaux, have been found to be staid with blood.

Information of this circumstance having been given to the Judge, he ordered them to be deposited in a place of detention. The fact comes in corroboration of the declarations of the cook relative to the murder of the captain and part of the crew.

STATEMENT OF MICHAEL WALLACE, Esq.

Mr. Benedict:

On looking over the Advocate and Sentinel of the 28th ult, my attention was arrested by the following statement in it. "Now the truth is, Gen. Porter never had any trustees, the gentlemen appointed never gave bond, or took upon themselves the trust; but having full confidence in his integrity, they and his creditors left it with him to make settlements and manage all the business himself."

Having been one of the persons appointed trustees for David R. Porter, I feel myself called upon to state to the public the reasons why I did not act as his trustee. Immediately on my name being announced by the court as one of the trustees, Mr. Porter came to me and expressed a wish that I would consent to the appointment, and give the necessary security, and to induce me to do so intimated me, that it would not be necessary that myself should do any thing in the matter; but that he would do all, and that his intention was to pay all the claims against him but one, which was a large one, and which he would never pay. I was reluctant to comply with his wish, and told him so, he then left me, and in a short time I saw him, and he urged me to consent, and I complied, and at the same time informed and gave me to understand that unless I would let him have the settlement of all the business, he did not wish me to have any thing to do in the matter, and that if I would so consent and comply he would make me as safe as he could; that he would give me John Stonebraker, and I think, Thomas M. Owens, as security or bail that I should not lose by doing so. This I refused to agree to, and Mr. Porter then walked off and left me. A short time after this, Mr. Porter in conversation induced me to believe that there was no property, or trust funds to be gotten or to look after, at any rate worth the trouble of attending to it, and in consequence thereof, I never acted in, looked after, or inquired further about the business. I have been disappointed in what I hoped I had at that time, that Mr. Porter might pay me debts, as he has since baffled and delayed several of his creditors, whose claims were evidently just. As to my own claim, although a small matter, not the one half of it is yet paid, though it was the claim on which he got himself put to jail. During the last August court in Huntingdon, I called on Mr. Porter, personally, and demanded a settlement with him; but he positively refused doing any thing in the matter until after the election, and I will now be compelled to get what is justly due to me from him in the best way I can, which I am now contemplating and trying to do by the only course left me.

During the fall of 1801 I became acquainted with John Stonebraker, and lived with a few rods of his house for some length of time. I have since that time lived in his neighborhood, been intimate with him and regularly had dealings with him for the last thirty-six years, and have always considered and found him to be a man of truth and strict integrity. I never heard his character for integrity, veracity & truth questioned by any one until he declared his independence and moral courage enough to publicly declare his knowledge of what he had discovered to be a dishonest transaction on the part of Mr. Porter.

What a astonishment I have seen Thomas M. Owens of Birmingham announced in the Porter papers as an ex-priestly pious man and an elder of the Presbyterian church, and "one whose declarations must forever put to flight the depositions of the Messrs. Stonebrakers." I have some knowledge of the character of Mr. Elder Owens, and would just say "it is no better than it should be." One thing however is certain, he never was an Elder of the Presbyterian church and his character could not have been so very good, but a very few years ago, when and where he was best known. ARRESTED ON A CHARGE OF PASSING COUNTERFEIT MONEY, at Birmingham in this county, where he had long dwelt and his character was well known. At which time a respectable clergyman who was pretty well acquainted with him, told me he hoped the law might now do what moral persuasion had failed to accomplish, that it produce a reformation in his character.

In short I feel confident that I state but what is well known, and what the mind of every candid man who is well acquainted with Thomas M. Owens, will at once concur in, when I state that he is a man who will say, "yes, yes, O yes, yes, certainly," to any thing which can be asked or requested of him, provided the doing so will not trench or create a demand upon his pocket or interest, that he is just the proper sort of instrument for a designing man, or set of men to get the consent that they should have the use of his name, to suit their purpose. No man who knows Thomas M. Owens can believe that he wrote or dictated a single sentence of that which appears over his name, in the "Advocate & Sentinel" of the 5th Sept.

POTTSVILLE.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 26, 1838.

Great Meeting IN UNION TOWNSHIP.

On Saturday last a large meeting of the anti-Sub-treasury and Rittner party, was held at the house of Jacob Rapp, in Union township. We give the proceedings below: a friend in attendance tells us that the spirit was enthusiastic, and that where at the Presidential election General Rittner only received two votes, Joseph Rittner will have from 60 to 70. The meeting was organized by appointing RICHARD ADDAMS, President; SAMUEL ROBERT, THOMAS BRYLES, SOLOMON SELIGER, and WALTER McDONALD, Vice President; and D. H. Goodwin, and Court-ship, Honell, Secretaries.

motion the following persons were appointed a Committee to draft a preamble and resolutions for the consideration of the meeting, viz: Jacob Rapp, Jonathan Koabinger, George Gregg, Matthias Halldeman, Abraham L. Boughner, Michael Larrah, Edward McGovern, Amos Martin, John Brown, Henry Gilbert, George Davids, Rolandus Zimmerman, Hiram Owens, Charles Turnbaugh, Mark Bitler, Solomon Ushafer, John Drescher, William Rapp, Joseph Snyder, Henry Miller, Moses Sarver, Emanuel Larrah, Peter Keffler, David Fritz: who after retiring for a short time reported the following which were read and unanimously adopted.

Whereas, we have ever been the firm supporters of sound democratic principles; and whereas, the party now in power at Washington, have for the last eight years used every insidious means to form a strong and consolidated Government; and whereas, our present self styled democrats are now giving their zealous support to men who are the avowed advocates of that most infamous Sub-treasury Scheme—a system having for its end the concentration of all power in the hands of the President. Therefore

Resolved, That this meeting can see no difference between the principles and actions of the present Van Buren and Porter Party, and the former Federal Party of 1799, who were like the present party in favor of investing the President with unlimited power.

Resolved, That it is an insult to the democracy of the country for the Porter men to arrogate to themselves the name of democrats, so long as they support the old federal measures of 1799, and follow in the footsteps of their federal leaders some of whom were at the head of the federal party in the reign of terror, and who to this day cling to their federal principles.

Resolved, That we have lost all confidence in Martin Van Buren, and warn our fellow citizens to have a watchful eye over him since he formed a coalition with John C. Calhoun, the great leader of the Southern nullifiers, who boldly declares that the "Union has failed to accomplish the object for which it was formed, and the sooner it was dissolved the better."

Resolved, That we continue our unshaken confidence in the sound democratic principles of our present worthy chief Magistrate, Joseph Rittner, and that we consider it the duty of every patriot who loves his country better than party to support his re-election.

1. Because under his administration a most judicious system of Internal Improvement has been adopted; the income of our public works been made to yield double, and all the great interests of our commonwealth scrupulously guarded without adding one cent to the burthen of the people.

2. Because by his proclamation he has restored to us a sound and constitutional currency, and has drawn out of circulation the nasty and filthy Van Buren and Porter Shimpsters.

3. Because he has done more to promote the prosperity of this State, than any other Governor since the days of Simon Snyder.

4. Because he is a democrat not only by name, but also in principle.

5. Because he has been tried and in the language of Thomas Jefferson, found "honest, capable, and faithful to the constitution." Lastly because in all his relations of private life he has sustained an unblemished character, and has never failed to conciliate the confidence and affection of those who know him best.

Resolved, That we cannot support David R. Porter

1. Because he is in favor of the odious sub-treasury scheme, and Martin Van Buren's irredeemable shimpsters, for proof see his vote on the senate Journal of last session, page 653.

2. Because he has been proved by those "who know him" to be a dishonest and perjured man, and totally unworthy of trust.

3. Because we believe him to be unfit as well in point of intellect as in point of integrity, to perform the duties of the office to which he aspires.

4. Because although said to be worth $40,000, he still refuses to pay his honest debts.

5. Because his whole character shows that he is a low, intriguing and dangerous man.

Resolved, That the charge of abolition against Joseph Rittner is unfounded in truth, and only got up by the Porterites as their last resort to divert public attention from the crimes charged against their own candidate, and of which they know him to be guilty.

Resolved, That we warn the friends of Rittner in all parts of the county to be ready and prepared to meet this stratagem of the Porterites with the undeniable facts, viz: That Martin Van Buren voted in the New York Convention to give negroes the right of suffrage; that Richard M. Johnson is a practical amalgamationist; that David R. Porter himself voted against the admission of any Territory into the Union, unless it would first set all negroes free; and lastly, that a majority of the leaders of the Porter party are known as avowed abolitionists.

Resolved, That the silly caricatures exhibited by the Porter men of the Getysburg Rail Road, hardly deserve passing notice, because it is well known that David R. Porter voted for an appropriation of $150,000 to this same road winter before last, and that our own Senator, Charles Friley, Esq. voted last winter for a further appropriation to it, deeming it as an important link to unite our seaboard with the great valley of the Mississippi.

Resolved, That the mis-statements of the Loco-foco State Treasurer, Daniel Sturgeon, in regard to the increase of our State Debt under the present administration, can have no influence upon an enlightened public; and that we have confidence in the certificate made officially by the Auditor General and the Secretary of the Commonwealth, Messrs. Hobart and Barrows, to wit: "We, the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and the Auditor General, both of whom are with the State Treasurer, Commissioners of the Internal Improvement fund of Pennsylvania, do hereby certify that the whole permanent State Debt, on which the State paid interest, and which she was liable to repay, was on the fourth day of December, 1835, $24,330,003 32, and that it is now on (18th August, 1838) $24,230,003 32.

Signed THOS. H. BURROWS, Sec'y of the Commonwealth.

NATH. P. HOBART, Auditor General.

Resolved, That we heartily approve of the whole ticket formed by our political friends, and that we will give our zealous and united support.

After which Mr. Goodwin addressed the meeting in a very able and eloquent manner.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the officers, and published in the Miners' Journal, and all other papers friendly to the re-election of Joseph Rittner.

(Signed by the officers.)
