

POTTSVILLE.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCT. 3, 1838.

For Pamphlets, Tickets, Cards, Bills of Lading, and Handbills of every description, neatly printed at this Office at the lowest cash prices.

Whig Democratic Meetings.

A Meeting of the friends of Joseph Ritner is requested at Stagers This Evening, Oct. 2d.

A punctual attendance is necessary to adopt measures to carry out the triumph already so gloriously commenced throughout the State.

We particularly invite the attention of our readers to the Report of the committee that visited Huntingdon, which will be found in to-day's paper.

Our Prospects.

During the recent visit of the Editor of this Journal to Huntingdon, all doubts were quieted as to the result of our approaching election. What we had hoped and deduced from calculation, is now rendered matter of certainty. Never were there such cheering prospects, such confidence of success, such unanimity of opinion as now every where prevails.

The friends of Joseph Ritner are a mighty, consolidated mass, strong in numbers, strong in principles, strong in their purity of intention. In Huntingdon county, the majority for our Democratic Governor will be at least 800, that can be claimed for from the permanent residents of the county.

Our friends tell us that political feeling on the line of canal is very nearly divided, there are nearly as many Porter as Ritner men, and they do not claim any advantage, resulting from the influence of the government works.

In the other counties through which we passed, the right feeling is awake. The friends of democracy are sensibly alive to the importance of the contest, and are determined to go every honest length to secure the re-election of Joseph Ritner.

It requires nothing more than a common share of prudence, caution and perseverance to effect this desirable end, by a large and overwhelming majority.

As it has been asserted that the editor of this paper when at Huntingdon as one of the Committee to investigate the charges against David R. Porter, made an admission that they had failed to establish their proof in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Campbell, he would call attention to the following correspondence.

He would likewise state that this same assertion was embodied in a note which passed between the committee while in Huntingdon, was objected to as groundless, and stricken out by one of that committee friendly to Mr. Porter. How far it may be honorable, gentlemanly or correct to revive the assertion in their subsequent report, it is not for him to judge, as there appears a wide discrepancy between the moral code of those gentlemen and himself.

In our report and in all private communication in relation to our mission, we have endeavored to act with the courtesy of gentlemen, and the candor which should characterize those seeking for the truth; but we regret to say those efforts have been met by vindictive personalities, low abuse, and discourteous accusations.

We have however performed our duty to the public, and are unwilling to demon, ourselves to a parity with those who have perverted argument by abuse, and substituted prevaricating assertions for the broad, unimpeachable truths, which it was in their power to obtain, but to arrive at which they never made even moderate exertions.

It is hoped the following letter and reply will settle the question at issue, and convince our friends that the Uselessness of our opponents in using a doubtful or disputed remark, and the tenacity with which they cling to straws to support their sinking cause, is a sure evidence of their want of proof to substantiate the paltry subterfuge they have called their Report.

Pottsville, Oct. 2d, 1838.

A. ROWELL, Esq. Dear Sir—As you were present in the Register's Office in Huntingdon, at the time it is alleged that I should have acknowledged that the charge (Commonwealth vs. R. Campbell) had not been sustained, will you therefore be pleased to state whether you heard me make such an acknowledgment, or whether any such acknowledgment was made in your presence.

Respectfully yours, &c. BENJAMIN BANNAN.

B. BANNAN, Esq. Dear Sir—I have just received your note of this date, in which you ask me to state whether you acknowledged that the charge relating to the Commonwealth vs. Robert Campbell had not been sustained. I state, positively that I did not hear you make any such acknowledgment, nor do I believe you could have made such acknowledgment without my hearing it.

I am very respectfully yours &c. ANDREW RUSSELL.

OUR COUNTY ELECTIONS.

The election for Inspectors was not generally made a test question in our several districts, but every where when it was made, the result has exceeded our most sanguine expectations. If the friends of Ritner will but come forward on the day of election in their strength, and be careful not to be deceived by the arts and chicanery of the Porter party, their majority in our county will be so reduced, as to give most convincing proof of the changes in favor of our Farmer Governor!

Our Candidates.

And those they have to contend with.

JOSEPH RITNER is our candidate for Governor: a man who having been tried, has been found a firm and uncompromising friend of his native State—one who has held the office of Speaker in our House of Representatives—one who on many occasions has reported bills and introduced motions for the good of the State—one who has an understanding capable of enlarged views, honesty not to pervert them, and speech to proclaim them to the world—one who having passed the intermediate grades of Legislator and Speaker, has gradually attained the reward of the gubernatorial chair, not for his subservience to the General Government, and disenfranchisement of Van Buren; and one who if elected, will continue as he has begun, the friend of STATE RIGHTS, STATE IMPROVEMENTS and a CORRECT COURSE!

DAVID R. PORTER is the person we have to contend with: a man who having been tried has been found the tool and creature of the Executive Government; one who has never made a speech in the halls of our State Legislature; who has never received from his associates in office any public proof of confidence or esteem; who has never advanced a motion for the interests of Pennsylvania; one who if he has any latent talent as yet undeveloped, has not the moral firmness to keep it unpolished, or that integrity of mind which should be the politician's proudest boast; one who has been the hanger on of a party for years, fed from its bounty, and pampered with its smiles, looked upon as a tool and conveniently kept till wanted, and when Martin Van Buren wants to try his last desperate game to regain possession of our State, is singled out as a man equally desperate to be palmed upon our State as its Governor. The unknown, the unheard of, unthought of David R. Porter, is nominated by Martin Van Buren as your Governor! He is a man, who if elected, will in one particular be most eminently distinguished, as a cringing, servile, polluted tool of the Government; one who will sell the birth right of his native State for the mess of pottage which Van Buren will offer for his acceptance. In fine, he is one who if elected, will prove himself an enemy to Pennsylvania, the friend of a CONSOLIDATED GOVERNMENT, of INCREASED EXECUTIVE PATRONAGE, and of the INEXHAUSTIBLE SUB-TREASURY BILL.

WALTER C. LIVINGSTON is our candidate for Congress; a man whose political and private character may be proudly proclaimed without reproach or blemish; of a family whose signature is attached to our Declaration of Independence; and the same blood as Chancellor and Edward Livingston; and one whose name has never been found but as the unwavering friend of his country, and the promoter of its prosperity; one who knows intimately the counties of Lehigh and Schuylkill; who has the talent to advance their interests, the moral firmness not to be seduced from his duty by the specious flatterers of power, or the deceitful blandishments of Van Burenism; one who is opposed immovably and honestly to the Sub-treasury Bill; who understands it, who will resist it, and one whose talents will add to the reputation of our country in the Congress of the United States.

Peter Newhard is his opponent; a man who was publicly backed out of his party last year, but taken up again at the present election to the surprise of all, and by means mysteriously doubtful; means which all condemn except the vile party who hope to make him their willing tool; one who has ever proved himself ignorant in the extreme of the interests of Schuylkill County, and who has neither talents, eloquence or firmness to recommend himself; one who stands pledged in writing to support the Sub-Treasury Bill; a political friend of Van Buren, and one who if unfortunately elected, can add nothing to the dignity of our State and the welfare of our country.

Dr. GEORGE N. ECKERT is our candidate for the Legislature; a man of spotless integrity; whose political and statistical knowledge of our county eminently qualifies him as our representative; whose talents, industry and eloquence can give Schuylkill a speaking influence in our State Councils; and one whose election will secure to the coal region a firm, talented and persevering advocate.

William Mortimer is his opponent, a gentleman well known in our county, respected and esteemed by all, and of strict integrity and honor; but one who is eminently unqualified both by inclination and habits to represent our county—one who while he may be respected in private life, cannot, as his friends all admit, add either dignity or influence to Schuylkill County in her representative halls—we are proud of him as a citizen, and should regret a part from political feelings to see him transferred to a sphere where his utility must be paralyzed, and where he himself must feel he can do no good.

Of our other candidates and their opponents we might draw similar parallels, and in every instance show the superiority of our ticket. Many on the loco focus ticket are brawling politicians, who care nothing about the country or the election, except as it is made the means of their own interested views.

County Meeting.

Triumphant Gathering of the People. On Saturday last our Borough was witness to one of the most cheering scenes it has seen of late. Notwithstanding the rain fell in torrents all the morning, and held up only about noon, the friends of RITNER and DEMOCRACY came pouring into the meeting. Several four horse teams, and other vehicles bearing appropriate banners, and crammed with our honest, hardy farmers drove into town, and from the concourse assembled, there is no doubt, that had the weather proved favorable, there would have been upwards of 1000 on the ground. As it was, nearly 600 persons met to join the general shout of RITNER, DEMOCRACY AND NO SUB-TREASURY!

The meeting was addressed by our candidate for Congress, COL. WALTER C. LIVINGSTON in a strain of eloquent truth, which enchanted his hearers, and gave promise of what we might expect from him in the Halls of Congress. Col. L. modestly stated his sentiments on the all engrossing political topics of the day, and promised us in the event of his election an honest representation of our interests.

William Audreker Esq. the chairman of the meeting, delivered addresses both in the English and German languages, G. W. Farquhar Esq. in a most lucid and talented manner, gave an exposition of the sub-treasury scheme—and the utter want of political honesty which characterizes the government of Martin Van Buren. The Report of Mr. Russell from the committee sent to Huntingdon, to investigate the truth of the various charges against David R. Porter, was of such a character as to carry conviction to any honest man, and no one who heard the details therein exhibited, can doubt their truth, unless they are wilfully deaf to the voice of candid inquiry and laborious investigation.

Mr. Chapman and other gentlemen addressed the meeting with great effect, and the resolutions reported by B. W. Cumming Esq. did great credit to the head and heart of that gentleman. After the addresses were over, which occupied all the afternoon until sun down, some of those who remained on the ground until late hour, formed a procession through the streets of our Borough, preceded by a Band of Music, and bearing aloft, the proud Banner of RITNER, LIVINGSTON, ECKERT and DEMOCRACY.

The utmost enthusiasm prevailed through our Borough; the numbers, the respectability and the spirit of the meeting, struck terror and dismay to the office holders and loco focus of our Borough! Their faces were pale with apprehension, although they tried to look undisturbed and calm.

Joseph Ritner has had the honor of the largest political meeting ever held in Schuylkill county; a meeting not of interested political partisans, advancing him for their private aggrandizement, but of those who with feelings of patriots, of democrats and of men, are determined to exalt talent, in preference to the debility of mind, virtue before detected vice, and the best interests of our country, before the political panders of a base, degraded and corrupt executive! One week more, and the voice of Schuylkill will have spoken in tones so loud, that the guilty faction of which David R. Porter is the tool, will shrink appalled and routed. The base minions of Martin Van Buren will find, that as honest men, we can form honest opinions, and as freemen, support those opinions at the ballot boxes.

Farewell to Porterism! THE LAST KNELL HAS RUNG. The People have risen in their Majesty—our State is Free from Van Burenism—and Joseph Ritner Re-elected Governor. The Democratic Whigs, have gained every township they claimed, all they considered doubtful, and dozens upon dozens that they never dreamed of! Huntingdon Borough has disowned her worthless son, Philadelphia County is with us, and from every part of the state the loud shout of Victory exclaims Rejoice! Rejoice!! Rejoice!!!

Neither Providence and Chester townships in Delaware county have given the Whigs handsome majorities, neither having ever been carried before in a contested election. Getmantown gave 148 majority for the Whigs. Oxford 41 do. Blockley 30 do. Bristol 40 do. York Borough has been rescued from the loco focus, by the handsome majority of 47. Out of nineteen districts in Dauphin county we have carried thirteen. In Susquehanna township, where the Whigs claimed a majority of fifty, and up to the hour of election offered to bet any sum on carrying their Inspectors, the Ritner party had a majority of 26, and can give 30 more at the election. In Derry township the Ritner Inspectors had 107 majority.

Direct from a letter to a gentleman in this Borough, dated Philadelphia, Sept. 30, 1838.

We hasten to inform you that we have best the enemy yesterday in every one of their strong holds, where they would allow the laws to prevail. The use of violence to prevent an election, is a strong evidence of their weakness. We are now certain of carrying our County Ticket.

In Cumberland and Perry counties as far as heard from all is right for the Whigs. In Cumberland co. East Pennsborough and New Cumberland have given hand some Ritner majorities.

In Perry co. New Buffalo elected their Ritner Inspector.

In Juniata co. Lewistown which last year gave a loco majority of near 60, has this year elected a Ritner assessor by a majority of 12! The Portrites were so certain of carrying this district by illegal votes, that they had prepared a transparent! Poor souls they could not use it.

Look out for the Dishonest Tricks of the Dishonest Candidate Party.

The Portrites have taken a lesson from their leader, and will stick to nothing to deceive people. They are huzzing as much as if they were certain of victory, when already they have given every thing up for lost, and are only putting a good face on the matter till the last to please Martin Van Buren and his satellites, who have sent their thousands among us to have bet on the election. If one tenth of the Whigs bet by the loco focus in our Borough belonged to themselves, their faces would look all long, and no wide, and we should see nothing of that constrained grin, under which they try to conceal their mortification, route and defeat.

More of Ready aim! Five tactical—Gen. G. M. Keim as we learn said last Thursday evening at a political meeting in Reading that Martin Van Buren and the Government at Washington would compel this State to annul the charter of the United States Bank of Pennsylvania, and to pay back the bonus received from it, and that if they did not, the same power would be resorted to, as in the Revolutionary war, the point of the bayonet! Think of this voters of the Key Stone State! Hear how the organs of the most corrupt administration that every disgraced the annals of any Country, dare speak of freedom in the presence of freemen! But how is this blustering to be avoided by a simple remedy, fellow citizens, by opposing your votes to their threats! When Joseph Ritner is re-elected, when Martin Van Buren is sent into private life again, despised and hooted at, when a good and righteous successor shall have the Sub Treasury under his heel, then and not till then can an honest freeman, dare to express an honest sentiment, without making himself the mark of vituperation, the target for every shaft of calumny, and the hunted down enemy of the thrice accursed executive!

Will not the loco focus party publish some of Peter Newhard's yea and nay speeches? They will show his deep penetration and oratorical acumen. Or give us the result of the celebrated bill which was to carry the waters of the Lehigh into the Delaware!

Amendments to the Constitution.—We have heretofore refrained from noticing the amendments to our Constitution, and we do not now revert to them for the purpose of expressing any opinion on them. They have by the provisions of the law been so extensively circulated throughout the state, that it would be dictating to the good sense of our citizens were we to express an opinion on their merits or demerits. It is creditable to the press and our voters that although party violence has been at its height during the present election, still the Constitution has been so widely mixed up with political discussion. There is not a person in our state who has not read the proposed amendments, and every one must form his own opinion and give his vote accordingly. It is a subject of much moment: the sacred institutions of our country should be touched with delicacy. They are the legacy of our fathers and as such should be venerated and respected. It is true that time and change may call for amendments and alterations, but let us be careful that we do not alter without amending, and that in attempting to improve the architecture of the fabric we do not destroy its harmony of proportion, and neatness of appearance!

Come up to the Mark Porterites.

You who boast of getting from 1600 to 1200 majority in Schuylkill county. We are authorized to offer the following Bet: That Porter will not 100 majority in Schuylkill county. That he will not have 200. That he will not have 300. That he will not have 400. That he will not have 500. That he will not have 600. That he will not have 700. That he will not have 800. That he will not have 900, and That Ritner will have a majority in Schuylkill county. The above to be taken collectively.
