

POTTSVILLE.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCT. 10 1838.

Complete Checks, Cards, Bills of Lading, and Receipts of every description, neatly printed, at his Office at the lowest cash prices.

Let the People Remember that DAVID R. PORTER voted in the Senate last Winter to instruct our Senators and Representatives in Congress to vote in favour of the odious and infamous Sub-Treasury Bill.

Let the People remember that if David R. Porter is elected Governor, and the Sub Treasury Bill should pass, the Government will be continued, and they will again be compelled to suspend specie payments, and the country will again be flooded with Shin Plasters.

We have issued our Paper this morning, instead of the usual morning, Wednesday.

Vote Early.

Let those who wish to vote quickly, and avoid the crowd which will assemble round the polls in the later part of the day, vote early!

Order at the Polls.

We are pleased to learn that our Chief Burgess has appointed sufficient special Police, to preserve order during the day, and to keep the polls open. This is right, give fair play to all.

Push on! Keep moving!

Work to day, my lads and Joseph Ritner is still our Governor! Keep moving—vote yours—do not let a friend to our cause be inactive!

One more Pull!

For the honor of our State, our candidates, and True Principles, a long pull a strong pull! and a pull together!

Look out for Tricks.

When you once get your correct ticket from your vigilance committee, don't let any loco loco touch or look at it. The Magic in has learned them some tricks about changing votes, that has been practised before to day! Remember, 'tis our last warning.

Mechanics and Laborers.

Do not forget this day, that the Globe which is the organ of Van Buren and the supporter of Porter, denounced you all in words like these.

"IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO MAKE HEROES OUT OF COBBLERS AND TINKERS."

Perjury! Perjury! Perjury!

Two or three persons perjured themselves, and one dead man voted at the Inspector's election! They are known, let them be on their guard, for if they attempt the like this day, they will be arrested, and the heaviest penalty of the law be dealt them!

Beware of Handbills

Coming from the enemy! the country is flooded with them, and we have no time at this late hour to prove their falsehoods to our friends. Let all remember that if any truth could be spoken against Gov. Ritner, the opposition would have seized upon it months ago, therefore reject all you hear, and all you see, as infamous falsehoods.

More Exposure.

The Locos are trying to impress the voters of Schuylkill county with the belief that the Whig party are in favor of Coal Companies. Our great leader, Governor Ritner has too often shown his position for you to be deceived. But look at Messrs. Frailey and Krebs, the approvers of Porter, they are the advocates of Incorporations which will cripple all the energies of our county, and are now finding about the county, telling the people that Gov. Ritner and Dr. Eckert will press coal companies upon our state! We know better—do not be deceived!

Look out for Forged NATURALIZATION PAPERS.

We have every reason to believe that the most gross and flagrant attempts will be made to palm false naturalization papers on our inspectors.

Assertions of the Locos.

The loco locos are desperate, they assert that they will now say and do any thing, true or not, correct or not, to secure the election of their infamous candidate. We believe they are confident in their determination, for they have shown evidence enough of their sincerity.

Be on your guard there fore friends! desperation will suggest many plausible falsehoods—shun them as you would the pestilence, shun them as you would a character like David R. Porter's!

Sawyers

Put the rescuer set your mills going, and cut off loco locos and Porterism, they are nothing but clabs and of little use.—Should then if they plant any beds, and you will find your race such a one, as to make you rejoice!

TO THE PUBLIC.

A Handbill has been issued stating that I lost $5 by betting that Russell & Bannan would testify to the whole Report; and the assertion that I lost the money is a wholly untrue and positively false. I won the money, but finding that the Porter men were determined that Huntzinger should not give it up without a quarrel, I told them rather than have any further difficulty about it, Huntzinger might take the money and keep it—and he was mean enough to do so. EDWARD BOYD.

I, Moses Reed, being the Stakeholder of the above mentioned $5, do here certify that Edward Boyd did not give up the money as LOST, but holds out that he is the winner of the money, and gave up because, as Boyd said, he would like to be out of a quarrel. MOSES REED. Schuylkill Haven, Oct. 8, 1838.

Naturalized Citizens.

Put no faith in those who seek to inflame your passions, and excite your feelings against Gov. Ritner and his supporters! Their assertions and their promises are alike deceptive, and when they have used you for their infamous purposes, they will care nothing more for you, and they will forget all their kind words, and make you hewers of wood and drawers of water! Beware of them!

Irishmen,

WHO ARE YOUR TRUE FRIENDS? In spite of all the calumnies which have been heaped on individuals by the reckless loco locos, let us ask who have been your true friends here? Did not Mr. John Pott, the father of Mr. BENJAMIN POTT, a good and true Ritner man, give the lot on which your Cathedral stands to the Catholic Church of our Region, and when the work stopped for want of funds, did not Mr. Benjamin Pott advance $1000 for you to go on with! This is true! what cause then will you support, that of your friends and Ritner; or Porter and the shin plaster party!

Loco County Meeting.

On Saturday last, the Locos, after making several day's exertion, held their County Meeting. This tremendous gathering was to have sealed the fate of Ritner—was to have crushed the hopes of his party, and to have scattered dismay and consternation over the county. The awful day dawned, there was no new eclipse! the hour of meeting came, we heard no rumbling of an earthquake! our streets were still and quiet, unusually so; perhaps it was the dread silence which usually prefaces a tempest; we trembled in our shoes! At last 3 o'clock came, and the meeting assembled—there it was in all the imposing grandeur of some seventy strong! not so many as came in from the county to the Ritner County Meeting! Such men; — so, so, so, we began!

Our quotation is about as incorrect, as their meeting was ridiculous, but no matter, we will proceed. Their faces were as long as their legs were short, there was about as much fire in the meeting as could be found at the bottom of the canal, and the poor speakers who tried to make a huge impression, could not raise the steam! every thing was dull, flat, stale and unprofitable. At last one of the loco orators more celebrated for the quantity than the quality of his productions, one who if the road to truth was but a quarter of a mile, would go round ten miles for the pleasure of shaking hands with a he, determined to break the spell! up he rose! he began his torrent of eloquence—swore every two or three sentences by his creator! and broke out into such a torrent of falsehood and abuse, that all the well disposed of the "young seventy" became enraged, and declared that he led faster than a horse could trot—that they might have sold run, and left the meeting in disgust declaring they could not stand it. We are told the same orator made a spirited speech at Minersville the same evening!

Thus ended the great county meeting, the speakers could raise no applause, and their auditors could not raise their spirits. The adjournment took place, and had it not been for the murmurs of their own party, and the laugh of those who witnessed the signal failure, very few would have known that the Locos had a County meeting in this Borough.

West Branch Meeting.

The friends of Ritner in Minersville and its vicinity, held a meeting on Friday evening last. It was a "rouser and no mistake!" 200 people at the least were assembled! Sam'l. Heilner Esq. presided over the meeting, assisted by several Vice Presidents and Secretaries. Mr. L. Chapman being called on, addressed the meeting in his usual happy manner, which was rapturously received. Vigilance Committees were appointed, and other exertions made, which we trust will result in the overthrow of Van Burenism and the Sub Treasury in that District. We know that this day the Whigs of Minersville will do their duty!

A Good Sign.

The above meeting at Minersville was called at the house of Mr. Jno. Prevost, but so large and enthusiastic was the gathering that they were compelled to adjourn to the School House, which was crammed to overflowing. They do things well in Minersville.

To Miners and all opponents of Coal Incorporations.

Charles Frailey, Esq. was in the Mahanago District last week, electioneering for Porter and Coal Companies. We learn that he has promised them, if Porter be elected Governor, a large incorporated company will be located in the Pinegrove District; a large town be built, and a market afforded them. Mr. Frailey is the agent of a large tract of coal land in that region, and there is no doubt but that if Porter be elected, Mr. Frailey, our Senator, will apply for them for an Incorporation! Put it down Miners and Colliers, vote for Ritner and Eckert who are opposed to them. If one or two more incorporations be admitted among us, the business of our region will be lost to individual enterprise—individuals will be driven from our region, and the spirit of monopoly shall over our lands, where we are now striving to gain an honest livelihood! This too, is the same Charles Frailey who last winter betrayed his constituents of Schuylkill County, and who is now going about making speeches and electioneering for David R. Porter—and this is the same Charles Frailey whom the Porter party are supporting.

Town Hall.—The corner stone of the Town Hall will be laid on Thursday next, by the members of the Pulaski Lodge, with Masonic honors.

Another Trick!

The Locos are secretly circulating petitions purporting to be signed by Whigs, directed to Congress, and praying that all foreigners should be compelled to reside in the county twenty one years before they can become citizens, and obtain naturalization! Look out for it, adopted country men it is.

Another Porter Falschood.

The Locos are the same party, who forty years ago tried to bring this before Congress, and who then passed an alien law, obnoxious to all good democrats, and which was put down by the FOLLOWERS OF JEFFERSON, WHO ARE THE PRESENT WHIG PARTY!

A Great Mistake.

The Locos we learn have issued a handbill stating that the Whig party signed a petition to have the naturalization laws repealed. This must be the same petition got up last winter by the Van Burenites which caused all the Irish supporters of that party to withdraw from the election and stand aloof!

Waterloo!

The Holy alliance of the Democratic Whigs will this day give the loco locos a Waterloo Defeat, and banish their leader Porter to pluvial life. Let each remember he is every vote is a cartridge to send the loco a broadside; and route them horse foot and dragoons! Forward march then to the polls!

Speedy Returns.

The Locos have all their bets taken as soon as they dare offer, which is but seldom now. They have a few hundreds left to bring around the polls this day. If you take them up, you may expect speedy returns, as the working men cannot afford to lay long out of their money.

Where do the Locos get all the Northampton money from which they used to live? Is not there a brother of David R. Porter residing thereabouts?

Conservatives! Look Here!

The Conservatives of Philadelphia have held a meeting at which Col. JOSEPH S. REILY, acted as Chairman, and T. B. L. FREEMAN, as Secretary. They resolved to support Joseph Ritner, because he is the opponent of the Sub-Treasury Bill.

WORTH NOTHING.

"I give you my honor, that what I say is true," exclaims a notorious liar. "How kind to give, what nobody will take," was Sheridan's reply. "We stake our veracity," exclaims one of the locos. "Give us something of value for a stake" said our rejoinder.

Maryland.

We have carried both Houses of the Assembly by handsome majorities, although it is probable we have lost our Governor by a small majority. This was owing to their being no opposition to the Whig Assembly ticket in Somerset and St. Mary Counties, and our friends therefore neglected to turn out, and vote the gubernatorial ticket. Even if Grasson be elected, however, the sphere of Van Buren influence can be very limited with a majority of both houses against him.

This is the first time the Governor of Maryland has been elected by the people, the choice having formerly devolved on the Assembly. In the City of Baltimore, the whole of the Whig Ticket for Governor or Assembly, was gloriously triumphant, being the first victory achieved since the induction of Jackson into power, with the exception of the special election, which resulted in the choice of Mr. Kennedy to office. The following letter will show the desperation of the Van Buren party, and the firm resistance made by the Whigs.

Whigs take care of your selves.

We learn with deep pain that such was the outrageous conduct of the Van Buren men in Baltimore, on the day and evening of the election, that the City Guard was ordered out; but not, as we understand, until several persons had suffered violence by the rioters.

We submit the following: Extract of a letter to a gentleman of this city, dated BALTIMORE, Oct. 5th 1838. Dear Sir,—I have but a moment before the closing of the mail. We have, after a very hard battle, elected our entire ticket. We have had every thing to contend with. The whole power of the General Government, and city officers, and in the Van Buren wards, a mob had possession of the polls, so that many of our old and infirm men lost their votes. About 3 o'clock this morning, when it was ascertained the Whigs had carried the city, the Van Buren party marched up from the Republic office to pull down the Chronicle office; they were driven back by the Whigs.—Gay street, from the Chronicle office to the Republic office, is literally covered with brick bats. The City Guard were ordered out at 2 o'clock, and remained under arms until day light. When every thing is taken in view, we have done wonders, achieved a most splendid victory.

From the Wilksbarre Advocate

A song for all true Pennsylvanians.

At—The Old Oaken Bucket." Come on to the contest—the call is loud ringing; Each son of the Keystone, the call is to you; The foe all his forces to action is bringing; Then say, are you ready, and wait to receive it, The shock which the Freemen must shortly repeat. Right onward! your aid! every true son will give it, And vote for the Farmer that's worked the Farm well! The hard-fisted Farmer; The honest Old Farmer! We go for the Farmer that's worked the Farm well!

We want no new workman—no experimenting On the blood-fertilized soil where our fore-fathers fought; We'll keep the old path, and there'll be no repent-ing. And ever remember good lessons when taught! Then away in your pride for the farmer present-ing; Let the note of approval in loud concert swell, And his vote still in vain may present in deriding; We'll vote for the Farmer that's worked the Farm well! The hard-fisted Farmer! The honest Old Farmer! We go for the Farmer that's worked the Farm well.

Van Buren and Porter in vain with their legions Would vanquish the free in the claim of their birth; And they'll hear in deep thunder that these are the regions Where no tribute is paid save the tribute to worth! That tribute is due, and we're hast'ning to pay it, And soon they shall hear the triumph tone swell! On the ninth of October! No longer delay it, But vote for the Farmer that's worked the Farm well! The hard-fisted Farmer! The honest Old Farmer! We'll vote for the Farmer that's worked the Farm well. PLOUGHBOY.

THE RALLYING SONG. Tune "YANKEE DOODLE." Deep plans are laid—fool games are played To seize the Nation's treasures, Whilst voters pay; and Rulers play And riot in their pleasures.

The Globe cries out "Come run about Ye underlings so pampered, Prepare your tools to reap the spoils, And get the people hampered." The Nation yet is deep in debt, And we're without a shilling—Our troops want cash, some get the lash, And almost have a drilling.

With treasury notes, we buy up votes, And heal our own disasters, And let the land in ruin stand Or load it with "Shin Plasters." The people all, by sudden fall Have got to be vile hobbler—Our Naval men, of rogues, a den, Or "tinkers" and low "cobblers."

Ye voters hear, with burning ear These scandalous confessions—You once were told, that wealth and gold Would follow their professions. Come Whigs! come all, obey the call, With patriotic action, By one brave fight set wrong things right, And rout the reigning faction.

CASIMIR PERLEX, on being called an "aristocrat," and one of the privileged classes, replied,—"My only aristocracy is the superiority which industry, frugality, perseverance, and intelligence will always assure to every man in a free state of society. I belong only to those privileged classes to which you may all belong in your turn. They are not privileges created for us, but by us. Our wealth is our own, we have made it. Our ease is our own; we have gained it by the sweat of our brows, or by the labor of our minds. Our position in society is not conferred upon us, but purchased by ourselves—with our own intellect, application, zeal, patience and industry. If you remain inferior to us, it is because you have not the intellect or the industry, the zeal or the sobriety, the patience or the application, necessary to your advancement. This is not your fault, but your own. You wish to become rich, as soon as to become wiser; but there is no royal road to wealth any more than there is to knowledge. You sigh for the ease and repose of wealth but you are not willing to do that which is necessary to procure them. The husbandman who will not till his ground shall reap nothing but thistles and briars. You think the commodities in human society are useless and misdirected if you do not become wealthy and powerful by the changes; but what right have you to expect, you idlers and drones in the hive, you shall always be fed on the honey and sweets of office! What right have you, who do nothing for yourselves, your families, your communes, your arrondissement, departments, your country or your kind, to imagine that you will be selected by them for their favor, their confidence, and their reward!

I am not an aristocrat in that sense of the term in which it may be applied in absolute government of under imperial rule; but if, by an aristocrat, you mean a man that has earned his pre-eminence by his labor, his honors by his toils, and his wealth by his industry—oh, then, I am an aristocrat—and please God, I may always remain so. The distinctions in human society displease you, because you do not the talent or the industry to amend your own position. You are too idle, to labor, and to proud to beg, but I will endeavor to take care that you shall not rob me. I throw back, then, with indignation and resentment, the charge which is made. I belong to the middle classes of society. These classes must take their part in the government of society. I have been selected by my fellow citizens, and by my king, as one of their representatives, and by the blessing of God, I will represent them."—Blackwood.

Intemperance and its Fruits.—Governor Bagley of Alabama is, we rejoice to perceive, exerting himself to the utmost in the benevolent cause of Temperance. He recently delivered an address before the Temperance Society of Tuscaloosa, in which he furnished a striking illustration of the connection between intemperance and crime. He stated that, in the course of his life he had been employed in some 50 or 60 capital cases; every one of which, as well as the rebel faction, was connected with intemperance.—We think the Governor, (observes a Mobile paper,) deserves great credit for giving his influence to the temperance cause; for it is the cause of public virtue, of national prosperity, and of individual and domestic happiness.

Our gibbets, our jails, and penitentiaries, our poor houses, our lunatic asylums, and our domestic circles all attest the awful ravages of intemperance among us, in brutalizing the whole man, in "paralyzing the head, the heart, the arm," in destroying every thing amiable, lovely and of good report, and in filling the land with vicious, loathsome, bloated, blasted drunkards, ruined for time, and ruined for eternity.—Phila. Inq.

A Good Hit.—A capital anecdote was related to us yesterday. One of our Cincinnati belles, a beauty of the first water, was recently at Saratoga, and attracted much attention. Among strangers there was considerable speculation about the fair lady's identity, &c. A new comer, one day, observing the number of dandies dancing about her, and followed on her wake, inquired who she was. "That is the Great Western." "Is it I presumed as much, from the number of flats she has in tow?"—Cin. News.
