

POTTSVILLE.

SATURDAY MORNING NOV. 17, 1838.

Small Pox.—Several cases of Small Pox have recently occurred in and about our Borough.

Town Hall.—This building is rapidly progressing; the cut stone for the exterior have arrived from Valley Forge.

Delaware Election.—The Returns from New Castle County are received, which give a decided majority for the loco foco.

The Mormons.—A battle has been fought between the Mormons and their persecutors in Ray County, Missouri, in which ten of the latter were killed.

The three Black Crosses.—The New York Star says, "Pottsville, Pa. is in danger of being undermined by a coal shaft."

New York Election.—The following was the vote in New York City at the recent election.

Table with columns for names and votes: Hoffman 20559, Corrie 20434, Grinnell 20517, Monroe 20429, Seward 20201, Bradish 19206.

Look out for Fires!—We advise the inhabitants of Washington to look out for fires.

Progress of Infidelity.—In Tammany Hall, the head quarters of New York loco focoism, the novel sight was recently presented of work men engaged on the Sabbath painting the sashes of the large room where, Cambridge, Fanny Wright, and the chosen hold their orgies.

NATIONAL CONVENTION.—We extract the following from the National Gazette of Wednesday last.

The Anti-Masonic Convention adjourned over from yesterday till this morning, owing to the absence of some delegates.

The Philadelphia are reveling in all the delights of a Fair at the Masonic Hall.

Cheap at Half Price.—Fanny Wright, Esq. told all the New York loco the reason of their defeat last Sunday night for a loco cause.

Loaves and Fishes.—Governor Marcy, the great defeated, breeches and all, is in the city of New York, to get another office.

A Little Crooked.—The Reading Press thinks that "New York has got a little crooked as far as the election returns are heard from."

Rhode Island.—The assembly of this state have elected Nathan F. Dixon a Senator to the U. S. Congress from the 10th March next in place of the Hon. Asher Robbins.

Omnibus.—Ten shares of Tammany Hall stock are advertised for sale at New York, cheap for cash or skin plasters; any thing to get rid of it, we suppose.

Never desert your flag.—A good Ritner man who resides in our Borough, having lost some money on the recent Pennsylvania election, resolved to make it up on New York.

"Fanny was younger once, than she is now, And prettier of course."

What a glorious thing is logic! and what a comfortable logician Fanny Wright Esq. must be!

Let me, as an old, and I think, somewhat tried friend, address a word—not to a triumph party, nor to a discomfited party, but to you—ever firm and unshaken People!

Let the people of this city see to turn the present catastrophe to account and they may receive from it a salutary lesson.

O'Connell.—The "great agitator" has addressed another radical and inflammatory letter to his constituents; by will soon become the "nihilist loco of them all."

Virginia Coal.—We learn from the Richmond Whig that a new location of semi-bituminous coal has been lately discovered in Botetourt County Virginia.

Glorious Minority.—In Pike county, the vote on the new Constitution stood 586 for, and 3 against the amendments.

MISCELLANY.

Laconic Correspondence.—A mother in Maine wrote to her son in Mississippi.

Bishop of the Western Diocese of New York.—At the primary Convention of the Western Diocese of New York, held at Geneva, the Rev. William H. Delancy, D. D., Rector of St. Peter's Church, Philadelphia, was unanimously elected Bishop.

Difficult to Please.—A gentleman who had just been shaved by a barber, asked for a towel to wipe his face with, and upon being presented with one, inquired of the master of the shop, if he had not another.

A Graceful compliment.—The N. Y. Mirror says, that any lover of music, who has heard the beautiful chaunt from Handel's oratorio of Theodora, commencing "Angels over bright and fair," as executed by Madame Caradori Allan, will admit that the graceful compliment contained in the following well-turned stanza is neither uncredited nor extravagant.

On hearing her sing, "Angels over bright and fair, Take, oh take me to your care!"

Very Fanny.—An infirm old gentleman was found by a rogue, moaning sadly at the following: "What's the matter, sir?"

Rhode Island.—The assembly of this state have elected Nathan F. Dixon a Senator to the U. S. Congress from the 10th March next in place of the Hon. Asher Robbins.

The fellow went off like a shot, and the old gentleman was left as bald as a coote.

"My charmer! I would die for thee if thou wouldst! Oh live for me! Ah! do!" replied the dark eyed elf, "I never liked to die myself."

Money is Power, says Van Buren, "so bend me over the Sub Treasury—and ask no questions."

An Inker Bull.—The following notice lately appeared in a shop window of a tailor at Cork.

Absence of mind.—A gentleman while out shooting in Tennessee, put the wadding in his pocket, and rammed himself down his rifle instead.

Misfortune of Genius.—Fitz GREENE HALLECK, the poet, the confidential partner and agent of JAMES JACOB ASTOR, receives a salary of six thousand dollars per annum.

Curious Botanical Fact.—The assertion of Sir H. Davy that no species of plant will vegetate downwards, has been lately contradicted by an eminent florist in London.

Stocking Bad.—A friend asserts that the looms have been licked up in New York without mercy!

N. Y. Conservatives.—JOHN C. CLARK Esq., was one of the New York members of Congress, who voted against the sub-treasury last session of seven, who at that time dared to oppose that master piece of Van Buren tactics.

We take great pleasure in giving place to the following beautiful stanzas from a fair New York correspondent.

Breathing Musings.—'Tis eve, rich eve, the silver moon is leaning o'er the earth.

Moments of deep, delicious calm, With sacred musings fraught, Thou bringest to my soul, a dream

My home! my home! in this lone hour How bright thou seem'st to me!

Its hollow friend-ship, heartless joys, Its mockery of mirth and haunts, And that dear household path!

Oh! what in this cold world of ours Is like a mother's love!

It glows—'tis pure and sacred flame All earthly lights above!

My mother! I can never repay Thy matchless tenderness; And yet, for this I know, I feel 'Thou wilt not love me less!'

And, this most happy consciousness, Within my heart shall be, The deepest fount of gratitude That swells, my God, to thee!

I. O. F.

Let gratitude in acts of goodness flow; Our love to God, is love to man below;

It will be a duty of the next Legislature from which nothing can be done to investigate the late election for Governor.

A good assortment of French, English, and German Merinos for sale at reduced prices.

Portrait of the Loco Foco Party by a Master!—The Editor of the Globe has drawn a portrait of a party now in this country.

"It makes oblique and calumnious supply the place of argument and fact. No longer able to carry its men and measures by means which have at least of fairness, it practices and avows a system of unblushing fraud."

Prophecy about being Realized.—When it was proposed in the Senate last session, to print 30,000 copies of Mr. Wright's report on Mr. Clay's resolutions, Mr. Tallmadge objected to printing so large a number as a needless expense;

At Philadelphia, on Friday the 9th instant, in the 25th year of his age, Mr. OLIVER C. BOYD.
