27 The extraordinary reputation that Dr. Spohir temedy for this discressing complaint is every dr. gaining is certainly a matter of much astonishment. That so much suffering should have existed for it without any discovery of an unlectual preventive, or it is truly a subject of triuch regret, but Dr. S. now assuft the right that with the respect of the contraction of the contraction. the public that such a remedy has been invented it will convince the mester redulous. The principles upon which it acts are simple and plain.—If is an admitted he that this compliant, whethercalled sick Headache, of Nervous Headache, irrises a rimarily from the stomach-those who think they have the Nervous Headache pay rest assured that this organ, the stomach, is the first case. that thesystem has become vitated or deliberate, through the stomach, and that only through the size channelmustete they expa restoration of the naturation thanking functions of the system. This object, Dr. Spolis remedy is summently calculated to attain.—The truth of the postucial call of the controverted, and the sooner sufferers with the headache become convinced of it, the sooner will their sufferings end in restoration to headache. The remedy thay be had of apothecaries.
