ABeautiful Head of Hair. Is the grandest ornament belonging to the human frame. How strangely the loss of it changes the countendrice and prematurely brings on the appearance of old age, which causes many to recoil at being unconered, and sometimes event to shun society to avoid the jests and sincers, of their acquaintance; the remainder of their lives are consequently spent in retirement. In short, not even the loss of property fills the generous thinking youth with that heavy sinking gloomas does the loss of his har. To avert all these unpleasant commences OLDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA stops the hair from tailing off on the first application, and a few bottless restores it again. It takewise produces eyebrows and whiskers prevents the hair from turning grey, makes it curl beautifully, and frees it from scar Numerous certificates of the first respectability in support of the virtue of Oldridge's Balm, are shown by the proprietors.
