TO DR. WM. EVANS.—Dear Sir: It is with pleasure I take this opportunity of returning you my sincere thanks for the benefit of your in-valuable medicine, the Camomile Pills. Having valuable meanine, the camounte runs, having been afflicted for several years with dispepsia, my very being became almost loathsome to me. I suf

very being became almost inatheome to me. I suf-fered severe pains in the side, was afflicted with famting spells, great debility, want of appetite, ina-bility to rest at night, frequent sickness, and in short all the symptoms of that distressing disease. I had tried several skillful physicians, bot, with no success, my imbecility of mind and body gradually increas-ed, still I strictly, abstained from using any of the nostroms and 'certain remedies' with which our newspapers daily abound, and for which he enter. newspapers daily abound, and for winch I enter. tained a horror and contempt. At length through earnest entreaty of my friends, and especially my wife, I with great reluctance consented to try your celebrated µills. Dr. WM. EVANS-Dear Sir.-1 can never be grateful enough for the cure I have received by the se of your invaluable medicine (LAMOMILE PILLS.) I was for five years very seriously troubled with Dyspepsia, which caused a nervous sensation throughout my system—so much, that I sometimes shook as if I had been afflicted with pal-sy; during all this time 1 thok many medicines, but none would cure me. At last my physician gave me up; but fortnessing on a participant. gave me up; but fortunately one day as I was speaking to a friend on the appject, he told me tha Dr. Wm. Evan's Camomile Pills were the only medicine that would cure me; of which I purchased some, and the result is that I am now enjoying perthe health.
