MOFFAT'S LIFE MEDICINE -RE-AN MATRON.—When the most important functions of life are suspended, and those who are invalide by inheritance or imprudence are reduced to a deployable state of nervous debility, they should not even then despair, for it is not in despair that relief can be found. No. Let them first look a round, and, laying aside all prejudices, ask them-selves this question—If my physician cannot help me, is his reputed skill my only resort?"

Perhaps at that moment the heading of this advertisement, "Moffat's Life 'Medicines," would catch their eye; and were they in truth divested of foolish prejudices, they might, perhaps, be induced to inquire whether Mr. Moffat's theory and treatment of diseases, differed from that of their ewn physicians. They would then learn that it did dif and very widely, and with most unhappy re suhe, too.

If they pursued their inquiries still further, they would find that all practising physicians of the present day prescribe MERCURY, in some form, for almost every disease, and they would leath, too, that mercurial medicines, though they give present relief, undermine the constitution, and always leave the patient in a precarious state of health.

A GOOD VEGETABLE MEDICINE is just the reverse of all this. For hundreds of years, be fore that scoarge of mankind, "Mercury," was emthe skillful physician he who prepareth his medi cines from herbs. Witness Ecclesiasticus, chapter x2iii.

1.3. The skillful physician shall lift up his head; and in sight of the great men he shall be in Admiration.

V. 4: Ror he hath prepared his medicines out of the HERBS of the earth, and he that is wise will.

MOFFAITS VEGETABLE LIFE MEDICINES possees qualities of the most mild and beneficial nu ture. They are composed of articles the most auti-putressiredt, combined with ingredients known as the only certain antidotosfor fevers of every description. When the discuse is produced either from c.id, obstruction, bad air, ewsney and camp situa-tions, or putrid inta-mi, whether inalignant or epidemic, or by other causes, these medicines are certain in their operation or effects. They are pos-sessed of feculiar qualities, which not only expet all disease, but at the same time restore and invigorate the system. When first taken into the stomach, they immediately diffuse themselves like vapor, through every pore, producing effects at once delightful adutary and permanent. When the spark of life begins to grow dim, the circulation languid, and the faculties paralyzed, these medicines are found to give a tone to the nerves, exilerate the arimal spirits, invigorate the mbody, and re-animate

Lockport, Nov. 27th, 1837. Mr. W. B. Moffet-Dear Sir : An a remarkable istance of the virtne and efficacy of your Life Pills and Phoenix Bitters, in restoring but health to the afflicted, has occurred in my family, I deem it a duty to owe both to yourself and the public, to make the fact known, that others suffering under similar circumstances might perchance see this, and obtain remedy in season to preserve them from a prema

My wife has been afflicted with the liver cour plaint andussyrae debility for upwards of three years; and for the last three-months she has not een able to walk across the room. After trying various medicines prescribed by different physicians which gave her no relief, she was given up as incu rable. In this situation she was gradually failing, when I happened to call upon your agent in this village, and he gave me a copy of the Good Samarian; the perusing of which induced me to try your medicine, although had but little hope of her receive ing any benefit from it. The effect was surprising. Before she had taken one bottle of bitters and of box of pills, she was so far recovered as to be able to accomplish most of her house work without askis

A N UNDENIABLE FACT.—Health is the source of Happiness.—Disease is the effect of ome irregularity in the natural or healthy functions. Man produces great ends by multiplied and extraordinary measures, but nature accomplished her works by few and simple means. In the cure of all human maladies, the relief of irritation is the great object of medicine, the office of the physician is to deliver his patient from all that is noxious and debilitating, so that the constitution or nature will be enabled to perfect the work of restoration. Here we would commend the administration of a remedy calculated to fulfil the preceding indication, which I believe we may justly say of Dr. Wm. It is a preparation of greater strength (consequently of greater efficacy) than any other extruct now made, also much cheaper, being but one dollar per bottlewhich is sufficient to make one gallon of Syrup of Sarsaparilla and is bought by different druggists for that purpose

Swaim's Panacea.

A sthe intemperance and luxury of the age are hastening the ravages of scorbutic complaints and rendering the blood more impure; and as thousands have destroyed their constitutions by neglecting to apply the proper remedies—to such, Swaim's Panacea must be, and has been, more than doubly valuable as a certain and effectual means of restoring them to perfect health and vigor. Few families are wholly exempt from scorbutic affections, which exhibit various symptoms, as euptions, ulcerations, debility, loss of appenie and dejection, all arising from impuse blood, and if not properly attended to, produce the greatest injury to the constitutution, and may be imparted to their offspring.—Swaim's Panacea is recommended at this season of the year, as a valuable restorative of the system, thereby invigorating the constitution, and enabling it to bear the year, as a valuable restorative of the system, thereby in-vigorating the constitution, and enabling it to bear the debilitating effects for the summer season. It is convey-ed by the circulating fluids, and corrects their tendency to all those diseases which originate in vitiated blood, diseased liver, deprâved appetite, or predisposition to af-fections of the lungs, &c. No one, however, is advised to use it without convincing themselves of the truth of whats here stated.

This medicine is now used with success in all parts of the world, and is gaining great reputation in England.

PHILADELPHIA, Saturday, Nov. 17, 838 TO DR. WM. EVANS.—Dear Signature I take this opportunity of reluming you my sincere thanks for the benefit of your invaluable medicine, the Camontile Bills. Having been afflicted for several years with dispepsia, my very being became almost pathsome to me. I suf-fered severe pains in the side, was afflicted with fainting spells; great debility, want of appetite, inability to rest at night, frequent sickness, and in short all the symptoms of that distressing disease. I had tried several skilful physicians, but with no success, my imbecility of mind and body gradually increased, still I strictly abstained from using any of the nostrums and 'certain remedies' with which our newspapers daily abound, and for which I enternewspapers daily abound, and for winten I enter-tained a horror and contempt. At length through rearnest entreaty of my friends, and especially my wife, I with great reluctance consented to try your celebrated tills. The effect was wonderful, and as-tonished even my most sanguine friends. I had used them but a short time before I rapidly recover-ed, and I now enjoy excellent health, to which I have been a stranger for most than the contemplation. have been a stranger for more than two years. I cannot sufficiently express my heartfult gratitude to you for the advantage I derived from your mediches, and I carnesty and concientiously recommend all suffering under similar complaints to assey our CAMOMINE PILLS. Although with some diffidence. I cheerfully desire that you publish this
