MARRIED.

On Thursday the 28th ult. by the Rev. Joseph McCool, Mr. David Brown, to Miss Ellen Robert oun, both of Potteville.

FOR THE MINERS' JOURNAL. DIED,

On the 12th ult. Mrs. Maria Patterson wife of GEORGE PATTERSON.

Could the hearts of those who have known the excellence of the departed express, the esteem and at-fection her valuable qualities, and endearing friendship have excited, and in this short notice describ her exemplary practice of social and domestic duties, trace its source in her retiring piety, ever visi-ble in its fruits, and delineate it in all its influences on her thoughts and actions, it would form an im pressive model for imitation.

As a mother, tender, devoted and judicious, she has left the most enduring legacy that the youthful hearts of her bereaved family could receive. Her piety was not that of momentary or accidental enthusiasm, but was founded on love, guided by resson, and sustained by faith; when tested by the most afflicting dispensation in the death of an only daughter, its strength and sincerity were proved in the resignation with which she sustained the stroke, and still more fully in the peace and calmness with which she worked forward to her dissolution, expres sing her hope of joining her little family in Heaven, and with confidence consigning that on earth "lo the arms of her Savour."

"Without a righ or shaded smile,

She gave her hand to the stern messenger, And as a glad child seeks its Father's house
