

THE STRAGGLE OF LOVE. A slightly youth and maiden gay. In smiling summer weather, Where Love, within a garden lay.

One morning stroll'd together, The nymph had laugh'd the god to scorn, Which served but to amuse him, And he had vow'd that every morn To lodge within her bosom.

She tript along with fairy feet That scarcely bent a flower, And could full many a blossom sweet, Deriding Cupid's power.

Just then the youth, who ask'd his aid, And begg'd he'd not refuse him, Pluck'd a fair rose from the maid, And placed it in her bosom.

While to her bosom he had hid, Unconscious that what she did, The simple maid retain'd him, A transient life the buds retain'd.

But Cupid and the Rose remain'd, And long disturb'd her bosom.

MOFFAT'S LIFE MEDICINE - RE-FUNCTIONALITY. When the most important functions of life are suspended, and those who are tormented by inheritance or imprudence are reduced to a deplorable state of nervous debility, they should not even then despair, for it is not in despite that relief can be found.

For further particulars of the above case see Moffat's Good Samaritan, a copy of which accompanies this medicine, a copy also can be had on application to the office of Messrs. MILLER & HAGGERTY, Philadelphia, or to the Sole Agent for the sale of the Medicine, JOHN T. WERNER, Schuylkill county, Pa.

AN UNDENIALE FACT. - Health is the source of Happiness. - Disease is the effect of some irregularity in the natural or healthy functions. Man produces great ends by multiple and extraordinary measures, but nature accomplishes her works by few and simple means.

PHILADELPHIA, Saturday, Nov. 21 1835. DR. WM. EVANS. - Dear Sir: It is with pleasure I take this opportunity of returning you my sincere thanks for the benefit of your invaluable medicine, the Camomile Pills.

ing your Vegetable Life Pills and Phlox Bitters. In taking the first bottle and one box of pills I found the most excruciating pain that I had long been troubled with, entirely disappeared.

Mr. Moffat - Sir: I am most happy to send you through your agent Mr. White, a few lines relative to your excellent Life Medicine. For a length of time I have been complaining of an infection of the liver, and tried much medicine, but found no relief until I commenced with yours; I have now taken nearly two bottles of your Phlox Bitters, and I am pleased to state that I find myself fast recovering from a long and lingering complaint.

Mr. W. B. Moffat - Dear Sir: As a remarkable instance of the virtue and efficacy of your Life Pills and Phlox Bitters, in restoring lost health to the afflicted, has occurred in my family, I deem it a duty to owe both to yourself and the public, to make the fact known, that others suffering under similar circumstances might perchance see this, and obtain a remedy in season to preserve them from a premature grave.

For further particulars of the above case see Moffat's Good Samaritan, a copy of which accompanies this medicine, a copy also can be had on application to the office of Messrs. MILLER & HAGGERTY, Philadelphia, or to the Sole Agent for the sale of the Medicine, JOHN T. WERNER, Schuylkill county, Pa.

DR. WM. EVANS. - Dear Sir: I can never be grateful enough for the cure I have received by the use of your invaluable medicine, (CAMOMILE PILLS.) I was for five years very seriously troubled with Dyspepsia, which caused a nervous sensation throughout my system - so much, that I sometimes shook as if I had been afflicted with cholera; during all this time I took many medicines, but none would cure me.

PHILADELPHIA, Saturday, Nov. 21 1835. DR. WM. EVANS. - Dear Sir: It is with pleasure I take this opportunity of returning you my sincere thanks for the benefit of your invaluable medicine, the Camomile Pills. Having been afflicted for several years with dyspepsia, my very being became almost bathosmic to me. I suffered severe pains in the side, was afflicted with fainting spells, great debility, want of appetite, inability to rest at night, frequent sickness, and in short the symptoms of that distressing disease. I had tried several skillful physicians, but with no success, my impidity of mind and body gradually increased, still I strictly abstained from using any of the nostrums and "various remedies" with which our newspapers are so abundantly supplied, for which I entertain a horror and contempt. At length, through the earnest entreaty of my friends, and especially my wife, I with great reluctance consented to try your celebrated pills. The effect was wonderful, and as I touched even my most sanguine friends, I had used them but a short time before I rapidly recovered, and I now enjoy excellent health.
