This design was abandoned by them in consequence of information having been received subscquently to the parchase of the goopowder, that the troops they on their route from Philadelphia were not all of the same political party, a large portion of them belonging to the Democratic party, to which Col. M'Elwee and his associates in this design also belong. He farther said that it was to this circum stance alone that the arrival of the troops from Phil adelphis at Harrishurg without injusy or loss, was to be attributed. The design was abandoned because it would have been impossible to have separa-ted the Democrats from the Whigs in its execution. protected them from the danger of the explo and sion.

λ. J. PLEASONTON. Col. Pleasonton, in explanation.

I deem it proper to state to the committee, I some persons might suppose that I had been inst mental in causing my testimony on this subject be adduced; that I have never mentioned this co versation before my examination to day to any b to one gentleman from a neighbouring State, w was casually here in attendan ne on pr and with whom I was in the habit of daily into CUUTSE.

When on the eve of his departure from Harr burg, he incautiously repeated the substance of t rsation to a member of the Senste, and me tioned my name as that of his authority for his statement. That senator caused me to be subpen ed as a witness before this committee. When for learned what object I had been thus subported, I declined to give my testimony until I had stated these circumstances to Colonel M'Elwee. ' This I did this morning. Col. M'Elwee made no objec. tions to my giving his conversation in evidence, and accordingly I have answered the question which the committee have proposed to me

A. J. PLEASONTON.

Some of Judge Porter's opinions before he went on the bench

As Judge Porter is astounding as well as alarm ing the citizens of this community by his strange epiduct on the bench, and in particular in relation to the 4th of December rioters, it may not be a miss to give some of his opinions as given by himself, beture he went on the bench, of the " fighting men, who were to be at Harrisiburg at the opening of the Legislature, to do the fighting of the pirsy, and who did do it; and how select one judge Porter acts its one Col. J. M. Porter would do if he possessed the power of screening its se lighting men from punish-uicat. God save the Commonwealth

J Jenkins Ross, was subpresed and gave tests mony before the committee of the Senate, appointed to inquire into the cause of the 4th of D centre The following extract in relation to J. M. Por. 1 ter, is taken from this testimony. It was attested to under oath. We hope the citizens of the whole state as well as of Dauphin county, will read it carefully, and compare it with Judge Porter's de

J. Jenkins Ross appeared upon subporna issued March 1, 1839, returnable March 11, 1839, at the request of Mr. Barclay, and being duly sworn ac cording to law, deposed as follows:

Quest. by Mr. Barclay.—Ilad you any conversa-tion with Colonel J. M. Porter, of Easton, previous to the meeting of the Legislature, on the subject of the contested election in the county of Philadelphia? If yea, please to state. the same fully.

Ans.-I had a conversation of that kind with Col. Porter about eight or ten days previous to the meeting of the Legislature; I temarked, I believe that the Whig members of the county of Philade nhia, would take their seats on the first day the Le gislature met. Mr. Porter replied they would that there would be nt. Harrisburg one thousand able bodied men from various sections of the State on the day of the meeting of the Legislature, who were determined not to see their rights trampled upon ; that if the Whig members from the county of Philalelphia ottempt to take their seats they would be thrown out of the windows. I remarked in reply to what would our party be doing all that time;
